J. C. SILL
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CORONER

MY PRINCIPLES ARE:
The Living shall Respect the Dead — We should have a Public Morgue

It is my purpose, if nominated and elected to this office, to establish a public morgue independent of any undertaking establishment. In seeking this nomination I feel confident of discharging the duties of the office with credit both to the living and the dead. These are and have been my principles from the beginning, and on these principles I stand independent, regardless of the fact that these same principles are being advocated by others since I introduced the same to the public.

A PUBLIC MORGUE WILL DRIVE OUT PRIVATE GRAFT

L. A. McNARY, LEADING CANDIDATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

L. A. McNary, the leading candidate for circuit judge, was in Gresham a few days ago in the interests of his campaign. His ad. will be found in another column. He seems particularly well fitted for the office he seeks. He says of himself:
"I have lived in Oregon since my youth, 40 years ago; have practiced law in this county eighteen years, for five years of which time I was city attorney of Portland (1902-1907). Long devotion to the public office which I filled should testify to my integrity and qualification."

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

For the benefit of a few who do not know what statement No. 1 and 2 are in substance, we reprint them in full.

STATEMENT NO. 1.
"I further state to the people of Oregon, as well as to the people of my legislative district, that during my term of office I will always vote for that candidate for United States senator who has received the highest number of the people's votes for that position at the general election next proceeding the election of a senator in congress, without regard to my individual preference."
(Candidate.)

STATEMENT NO. 2.
During my term of office I shall consider the vote of the people for United States senator in congress as NOTHING MORE THAN A RECOMMENDATION, which I shall be at liberty to wholly disregard if the reason for doing so seems to me to be sufficient.
(Candidate.)

L. A. Harlow for Representative

Let us not forget the candidacy of Mr. L. A. Harlow of Troutdale for representative. Mr. Harlow has spent the most of his life in the community where he now resides. If there is any question as to his ability or fitness for the place for which he has been announced, his neighbors can answer them. Mr. Harlow is a republican of republican stock and stands for all that the word means. A vote for him on April 17th is a vote for Eastern Multnomah.

GEO. J. CAMERON, THE POPULAR CANDIDATE

Within the week Judge George J. Cameron has received many congratulations from his friends because of the great strides he is making in his contest for nomination to the office of district attorney. Judge Cameron stands well with the masses. Those who know Judge Cameron best are free to say that he will conduct the office of prosecuting attorney for Multnomah county without fear or favor. Judge Cameron has no promises to keep, and the conduct of the office will be on impartial lines. A culprit turned over to the grand jury will receive just dues, whether it be a penniless felon or a band official. As a republican he stands staunch; he never even looked at a democratic hand wagon, and as a conscientious man with a clean record there are none more worthy. Untiring energy and thorough capability are two of George Cameron's prominent character, and these with integrity will fit him for the responsible office he seeks.

Not Backed by the "Interests."

The Republican Business Men's candidates consists of an affiliation of ten men running for the legislature. They are Elmer B. Colwell, Emmet Drake and J. B. Kelly, for the senate, and John Brown, J. W. Campbell, Willard H. Chapin, D. F. Hardman, J. H. Hickman, Lucius J. Hicks, and Harry E. Northrup, for the house. These men are not backed by any private or corporate interests and stand for good government.
