MOUNT SCOTT

The friends of Rev. Hiram Vrooman were sadly shocked to learn of a great disappointment that has just befallen him. Rev. Vrooman was to have been married June 2. Only a few days ago his fiancée, Miss Alice C. Lord of Rockburg, Massachusetts, was drowned while bathing at the Seaside. Rev. Vrooman has the sympathy of many admiring friends in this vicinity.

Peter Rath notifies us that he doesn't care for any more samples. He prefers to become a regular subscriber.

Mr. Woodruff's lost an infant baby Monday.

Prof. W. P. Swoop was given a surprise by members of the East Side Christian church last Thursday evening.

Geo. Spring went to Salem Tuesday to attend Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

The many friends of our druggist, Arthur Geisler, congratulate him on a safe recovery from what seemed a fatal illness on last Friday. Suffering from indigestion he gave himself an overdose of medicine and results were too dangerous to be humorous.

Fred Spoor, carrier on route one, is taking a vacation for two weeks. Mr. Tweed takes his place.

The people of the East Side appreciate the renovated appearance of the O. W. P. waiting room since the jungle of obscene devices for robbery have been removed. The railway will probably continue to do business without this source of Revenue.

James Cannel's little four-year-old son died on Sunday of the croup. The funeral services were held at the home and were conducted by Rev. H. O. Henderson, assisted by Rev. Hanson.

Mrs. French returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Salem on Saturday.

At the recent Evangelical conference, Rev. H. O. Henderson was transferred to Salem, while Rev. Mr. Goodie comes here.

Mr. Donaldson is kept from his store duties on account of an attack of the mumps. His little daughter Leona is keeping him company.

Rev. Henderson preached his farewell sermon Sunday morning to a large audience. The new presiding elder for this district is Rev. Showers.

Reta Price visited at Corvallis recently.

Clara Anderson's school will close at Silverton in three weeks. She will attend the commencement exercises at Corvallis before returning to her home at Lents.

Miss Blanche Retherford will close her term of school this Friday.

Mr. Marshall is repairing the interior of his house that was recently damaged by fire.

At the Women's Press club which met at the home of Mrs. Maria Holden, Miss Lucia F. Additon of Lents was elected president.

ROCKWOOD

School District No. 27 at their meeting Saturday afternoon bonded the district for $5,500 for the purpose of building a new schoolhouse.

Max Rheule is going to do some landscape gardening on the grounds purchased by the grade for their new hall.

It is reported that S. Bliss will take a trip to Switzerland in the near future. Mr. Bliss thinks he would like to see his old friends again. His wife will accompany him to New York and visit relatives there.

Thomas Stensland is reported on the sick list.

W. Childers and J. Quinn are hauling gravel for the cement work on the basement of the new schoolhouse.

Miss Maeve Lovelace spent Sunday at home with her parents.

Miss Bertha Weiland, Charlie Baner and Dexter Quisenberry have just finished their eighth grade examinations. School will close the 29th of May.

Don Young has gone to Troutdale to work in the jacking house.

The "Red Wings" of Rockwood were out in their new suits Sunday. They played the home team in the forenoon, seating them and in the afternoon they played the Corbett team but on account of the condition of the grounds the game was called off before the finish.

HURLBURT

Connie Emily and Leila and Weltha Lasley who are attending high school in Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents.

Don Young has gone to Troutdale to work in the jacking house.

The "Red Wings" of Rockwood were out in their new suits Sunday. They played the home team in the forenoon, seating them and in the afternoon they played the Corbett team but on account of the condition of the grounds the game was called off before the finish.

Sig Knighton and wife of Gresham were visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood Sunday.

The stork visited the home of J. Fitzgerald May 15th and left an 11-pound boy.

The many friends of Mrs. T. Evans will be glad to know that she is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Eickert were Gresham visitors Saturday.

The members of the school board of District No. 35 are intending to make extensive repairs on the Hurlburt schoolhouse during the coming holiday.

S. M. Davis and family were Gresham visitors Sunday.

MEASURES FOR COMING ELECTION

Portland in the interests of better navigation on the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers. (By the people of Multnomah county.)

For an amendment of section 28 (evidently intended to be section 29) of article 3 of the constitution, changing the compensation of members of the legislature to $600 for each regular session and $10 per day for each extra session, instead of $5 per day and mileage. Section 28 provides the time when laws take effect, and the proposed amendment is therefore strongly recommended.

Woodmen Entertainment a Success

The entertainment and basket social given by the Modern Woodmen of America on the 16th inst. was a decided success, financially and otherwise. A good audience was present and listened to a fine musical and literary program. The numbers deserving special mention were the solo by Wm. Gable and the Woodman play, "The Orphans." The camp cleared $50 on the entertainment.

A movement is on foot to erect a new hall, which is badly needed. New members are being taken in at every meeting.

SECTION LINE

F. B. Davis of Petaluma, California, made a business call in our midst this past week.

J. C. Buckley is on the invalid's list resulting from a swollen hand.

John Sorenson has turned out some fine photos of our school and private residences.

Report hath it that our side road from the section line to the Powell Valley road will soon be graded. Considering how much road work is possible to the county, it is high time that this unprofitable piece of highway is attended to.

Mrs. T. E. Lewis of Rose Cottage, Russellville, is expected home from her Chicago trip this coming week.

Services at Gresham Baptist Church
Sunday School, every Sunday, 10 a. m.
Prayer meeting, 7:30 p. m.
Cottage Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7 p. m.
All cordially invited to any and all of these services.

TOM WORD

THEN AND NOW

FOUR YEARS AGO Multnomah County in general and Portland in particular was the Mecca for gamblers of every degree and description. One could find "wide open" in the City of Portland every game known to the gambling fraternity. One could also find in the City of Portland the largest and most notorious dives on the Coast.

It was the good fortune of the people of Multnomah County that they had Mr. Word in the Sheriff's office during the Fair year, for had Mr. Stott been elected the chances are that he would have followed the "rodden path." In that event the whole world would have witnessed the rottenness of this City which would have been a disgrace never to have been forgotten.

WHAT A HARVEST THOSE GAMBLERS WOULD HAVE HAD IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR TOM WORD!

Is it any wonder that there isn't a single gambler or dive keeper in the county who is not opposed to Tom Word, and who is not doing everything he can to defeat him.

It is not strange that "Pete" Grant again makes his appearance in this county. Nobody knows better than Grant what Word cost him, and of course Mr. Grant doesn't want Mr. Word returned to the Sheriff's office.

We need a man in that office who is willing to do more than serve warrants and subpoenas. We want and must have a man in that office who will do his whole duty and ferret out such violators of law.

MR. WORD HAS RENDERED THE COUNTY AND STATE A GOOD SERVICE, AND HE SHOULD AGAIN BE ELECTED.

GRESHAM LOCALS

At the Swedish Lutheran church in Powell Valley tomorrow night a sale of articles, useful and ornamental, will be held by the young ladies society. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. W. J. Wirtz had recently as a guest, Mrs. E. E. Eaton and daughter Heppie of Aberdeen, Wash.

Memorial services will be held in the Baptist church Sunday, May 24th, at 11 a. m. Comrade Rev. T. H. Elkin will preach the sermon. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. will meet at the Grange hall and march to the church. All are invited to attend.

E. P. Smith brought The Herald force a sample of Chataqua gooseberries grown by him. They are nearly as large as Black Republican cherries, measuring 2 1/2 x 3 inches in circumference.

The German church will be moved to the lots adjoining Max Davis' property on Roberts' avenue where they have purchased a half-acre site.

Miss Parsons, who arrived here from Kansas two weeks ago, is visiting relatives and friends in Gresham. Miss Parsons is a niece of Mrs. M. A. Bramhall.

J. B. Lent, recently from Junction City, Ore., and a former teacher for many years in the Gresham school, was in town on Thursday. He expects to be in this vicinity for the summer.

Mrs. Johnson and her daughter Margie of Los Angeles were recent guests of O. Thomas and family.

W. J. Wirtz was down from Sandy early this week. He says Sandy is forging ahead.

Miss Maud Cleveland returned Monday from California where she has been attending college.

Chas. Cleveland, Jr. was chosen one of the livestock judges at the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis and spent part of the week at that place.

Mrs. C. W. Doane, who has been very ill the past week, is slowly improving.

Services will be held in the Baptist church on Decoration Day, May 30th, at 11 a. m., address by Rev. H. Wood. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. and children will meet at the Grange hall and after services to the cemetery to decorate the graves of all soldiers, sailors and friends. All are invited.

R. H. Conroy Monumental company, 665 Johnson street, Portland, has erected a handsome monument in the Gresham cemetery to the memory of Henry and Alving Hevel.

Robt. B. Campbell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Campbell, died at the home of his parents a half-mile north of Gresham on Thursday morning, May 21st. The funeral service will be held at the home Sunday, May 24th, at 10:45. Friends are cordially invited. The interment will be in Riverside cemetery, Portland. The friends and relatives will take the O. W. P. car leaving Gresham at 12:00 and arriving in Portland will take the Fulton & Cemetery cars at Second and Morrison streets. Dr. A. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate both at the home and the cemetery.

Rev. W. E. Ingalls of Portland will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church at Gresham on Sunday evening.

Next Saturday being Decoration Day, the mail carriers will have a holiday.

A meeting of the old Fair committee was held in the town hall this afternoon to discuss the Fair proposition and also the Fourth of July celebration.

Joe Hamlin has commenced the erection of his residence in Regner's addition.

S. E. Toppelman will leave for California next week on a business trip and sojourn.

Miss Pearl Lindsey left today for St. Helens where she will spend a few days visiting friends. She will return home the first of next week for a few days before leaving for Salem where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Grace Metzger, for a few weeks.
