"Vacation" Is Well Rendered. One of the largest crowds ever assembled at Metzger's hall gathered there last Saturday evening to witness the play, "Vacation," given by the band boys of Gresham. It was indeed a success in every way and all were surprised at the excellent work done by the boys.

The arrangement of the stage was something new in Gresham, especially the moonlight scene in the last act. The effect of the electric lights was very good.

PLEASANT VALLEY. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leiner and daughter of Portland visited at W. A. Moore's Sunday.

Walter Heiser has returned to the hospital, having to have his entire hand amputated. He had it injured in Wing's sawmill some time ago.

Wm. Kesterson and family have moved up to Wing's mill.

Mrs. W. V. Moore and children expect to leave Sunday for Ohio where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. Ervin of Garfield is visiting Mrs. Kronenberg.

BUSINESS PERSONALS

We call attention to H. C. Campbell's "ad" this week. We don't know whether Mr. Campbell intended to be numbered in the lower group or not—anyhow he is in it.

V. E. Fosberg of Sandy reports a rushing harness trade.

Bornstelt & Ruggs big store at Sandy is chuck full of the season's supplies, and they are too busy to keep things shaped up.

Irene Douglass runs the Douglas store at Pleasant Home in the absence of her mother. She is developing into a first-class advertiser, and is worthy of note for her original ideas.

Harlow Brothers of Troutdale had their safe broken open last week and a good sized "wad" removed. This is the second time within six months. The fellows seem to know where much of the cash is in Troutdale.

F. B. Stuart, ever alert for the best, and always accommodating, has been presenting to his lady patrons a very neat and useful dustpan. A long handle does away with stooping over.

Brother Geisler of the Lents, Mt. Scott drug store expects to take a parlor-snooze—but not a druggist.

Aaron Fox is having his store building painted. On the west side some of the marks of last summer's fire are being covered.

The second story of Shattuck's store is being occupied by the undertaking establishment of B. W. Emery, who is remodeling the same for the purpose.

Lewis Shattuck of the popular Gresham "Goods of Quality" store is, spending a few days in the mountains this week. We will expect a mess of fish (stories) when he gets back.

T. R. Howitt & Co. have greatly improved the appearance of their market by a coat of white paint.

Banker Meyers says he will lend his assistance to the Mt. Hood road if it hasn't the ready cash to secure the right of way in the vicinity of Gresham.

Carlson & Henderson have added a piano to their well arranged undertaking rooms.

MOUNT SCOTT

The county authorities are meeting with considerable opposition by trying to establish a rock crusher in the middle of the street in Lents, and in front of residences.

Mrs. Greg, Mrs. Elliot's mother, is spending a few weeks in Lents.

M. R. Robbins and his mother called on Mr. and Mrs. Darnall Sunday. Mr. Robbins used to be a former pupil in 1900.

Mrs. L. M. Hedge has bought the Chamber house from Hattie Yott and is having some alterations made and repairing done. We understand the consideration was $1500.

Walter Tyler is having a turn at the mumps. Lawrence Sager is filling his place at I. F. Coffman's store.

Mrs. J. E. Petite and daughter Helen from Lewisville, Wash., were visitors at Levi Lininger's last week.

Media Johnson who has been quite ill for some time, is much better.

Since the election and defeat of the "Stock at Large" petition, some of our cows have been getting in trouble with the pound master.

Miss Marion Brodie, formerly a teacher in the Lents school, will start for San Francisco on June 20th to spend the summer.

Mike Abplanalp and his brother-in-law John Abuhl, with their families, will return to Lents in a few days from a nine months' visit to Switzerland. As they intended to stay a year, we imagine they became homesick.

Mr. Steiger was elected director in District No. 45 at the last annual school meeting.

Floyd Marshall has been very busy of late in his line of work. The past week he superintended the painting of the wood work of E. M. Hogue's house, assisting Mrs. Hogue as a helper.

Mrs. McCollum and children have gone to Fort Stevens to spend a few days visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Portland spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. Anderson's.

Charley Johnson of District 45 has gone to work at Allen's mill. Chag, is ambitious and intends to save his money so that he may be able to attend school in Portland the coming year.

It is an assured fact that the Lents Grange will soon own its own building. A well-equipped hall is much needed in Lents.

Mrs. Bryant has gone to Falls City to spend a few days with relatives before she goes East this summer.

Mrs. Jos. Kluckner of Kern Park died Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock after a lingering illness.

Charlie Service is back from California. He says Oregon is good enough for him.

J. W. Kennedy from Baker City and his son-in-law, Marshall Huffman, are visiting in this neighborhood. He will be remembered in connection with Pinehurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler are in Minnesota where they will remain during the summer.

Miss Alice Daugherty, one of Lents' teachers, will leave for Cleveland and other Eastern points on Saturday.

Miss Zimmerman and her mother have engaged Mr. Price's house and will move into it some time next week.

Miss Florence Toon is home for the summer after teaching this year at Mt. Hood.

Miss Elva Kingevole of Oswego, a friend of Miss Zimmerman, visited Lents school Monday.

S. Chapman and wife of Cottage Grove are in Lents to attend their daughter who is sick.

Ada Sears and Elmer Wood were married at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday, June 10.

Mrs. Rebecca Thorn died at her family residence in Lents last Wednesday and was buried at Lone Fir cemetery.

Philo Zimmerman and wife of Oswego visited his mother on Thursday.

The Lents schools were closed Friday. Prof. Hershner entertained his ninth grade class of his home in the evening.

Miss Thomas has moved into her home on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Horner is learning the dressmaker's trade. She is sewing in Mrs. Freeberg's dressmaking parlors.

Dr. E. C. Joss will take a short vacation, beginning Saturday, and visit friends and relatives in Kansas. He has gone to accompany his wife and baby home who have been visiting there some two months.

Great excitement prevailed last Friday in Arleta Park, No. 2, when the cry of fire was heard on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Anderson took the hose, while Budd Marshall grabbed the ladder and Mrs. Hogue came with buckets of water. Many neighbors were soon there and the fire did not make much head way.

Mrs. Foster was very grateful to those who saved her home from being destroyed.

Thieves Not Found Yet
No trace has yet been found of the safe crackers, who so successfully operated in the store of Harlow Brothers here last Thursday evening, securing nearly $10.00 in money besides a case of valuable jewelry of Mrs. Harlow's.

LET US STUDY THE

PORTLAND BUSINESS COLLEGE

This School located at Tenth and Morrison, is the Oldest in the Northwest. It is "THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY." Prof. A. P. Armstrong, LL.B. says:

"We occupy two floors 65 x 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction."

It is open all the year. Students are admitted at any time. Catalog free.

We refer you to: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

IT PAYS TO ATTEND SUCH AN INSTITUTION

The Prizes will be distributed to those securing the largest number of votes. The one getting the largest number of Votes will have first choice of the Prizes; the one getting second highest number of Votes will have second choice of the Prizes, and the one ranking third will have third choice of Prizes. In addition to this, DURING THE FIRST FOUR WEEKS OF THE CONTEST FOR EACH YEARLY SUBSCRIBER OBTAINED 25 CENTS WILL BE GIVEN.
