MOUNT SCOTT

During the month of August the Lents Reading room will be open from 4 p. m. to 8 p. m. every week day.

The residence of Fred Love on Powell Valley road, was totally destroyed by fire last Friday evening, the origin of which is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Love have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors. A more substantial evidence of regard is shown in the generous purse they have presented the family.

Ira Allen is preparing to make an addition to his house.

Mrs. Deaton, who came over from Idaho to help in the sickness of her grandson returned to her home Monday.

A marriage license is out for the marriage of Walter Baker and Hazel Borin. As we know nothing of the date yet we will not be able to tell when the event takes place. The Herald extends its greetings to the newly weds.

Cecil Drake has returned from a visit to his property near Klamath Falls. He reports fine things about that country and its prospects as a wheat country. The Herald and Farm Journal, $1.50

The annual convention of the Swedish Lutheran church will commence Monday, Aug. 3rd, at 8 p. m. in the church. Tuesday and Wednesday the services will be held in Wm. Peterson's grove. On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies Mission society will have an auction sale. Dinner will be served both days in the grove.

The Young Peoples society will meet at the Lutheran church Sunday night at 8 p. m. A good program is to be rendered.

The annual convention of the Swedish Mission church was held last Sunday in Wm. Peterson's grove as well attended by several hundred people who enjoyed the day in the cool, shady grove listening to the sermon. A choir from Portland was present and sang several numbers and Miss Christine Oleson rendered a solo which was very much appreciated.

Sigrud, the little daughter of Rev. Jonas Johnson, has been very sick but is improving.

Gust Carlson arrived here last Monday from Iowa with his family. They moved from here last Spring but didn't sell their place. Later they bought the Milstead farm which they now occupy.

We enjoyed the pleasure of getting acquainted with the editor of The Herald recently when he was up this way looking after business interests and we wish him and his paper success.

After August 1st the Portland mail for Orient will remain at Boring instead of going on to Orient and will be distributed at Boring to the carriers and will be delivered the same as usual.

WELCHES

Quite a number of campers are on the camp grounds and almost every cottage is filled.

There was a good deal of excitement here one day last week when a horse belonging to Anderson Brothers of Portland ran away, throwing out Mrs. C. W. Kern and Ed Anderson. They escaped with a severe shaking up and a sprained ankle each. The buggy was an entire wreck and the horse escaped with a slight scratch on the leg.

A large number of fish are being brought into camp daily, by some fishermen, and some have to come to camp to get fish. A party of seven young men caught 700 trout one day at the falls on Salmon river.

During August the Montavilla reading room will be open from 7 to 9:30 every evening. It will not be open during the afternoon.

MONTAVILLA LOCALS.

Irving and Lena Hutchins are the parents of a fine, new boy.

Mr. Markell's father and mother have been visiting them.

Mrs. McBride has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McNall.

Mrs. McKinney has friends visiting her this week.

John Kelley, the auto man, and family are camping on his place here.

Mrs. Etta Bakus is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. L. Shriner.

Harry Meserve has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Douglass, the past week.

The large colored drawings of Taft and Bryan, the presidential candidates, that The Herald has on exhibition at Mrs. McColl's store, are attracting a good deal of attention. They are 21 x 28 inches and each a high-grade production of art. Your choice of either given free with your subscription to The Herald.

Additional Gresham Locals

The house was owned by Mrs. Dr. Twitchel of Portland who was out from town canning some fruit when the fire started. The fire spread to the adjacent woods and resulted in quite a forest fire.

Prof. Metzger of McMinnville college spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. George Metzger.

E. C. Freeman, an old-time friend of Mr. Darnall, made The Herald a call Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Freeman is instructor in electricity in Armour institute, Chicago. He is seeing the country and visiting friends. He says this part of Oregon suits him best of anything in the west.

Sig Knighton has installed another up-to-date barber chair in his shop, making three chairs now.

Ben Rollins has purchased a new show case and a cash register.

The ball game between the Union Meat company's team and the giants last Sunday was called off on account of a misunderstanding. The game is scheduled to take place here Sunday.

The Butchers have annexed several Tri-City Leaguers, and a good game is looked for.

The people of Gresham ought to be interested in the proposed sale of the Studdard's tract in the eastern part of the town of Gresham. We ought to have money enough in Gresham to buy this tract and avoid some person getting it who might prevent the growth of the town. The sale will occur August 10th, at 10 a. m., at the Courthouse in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Darnall spent last Saturday and Sunday camping at Bull Run.

The old Methodist church building is on its way to its new location on Roberts avenue where it will be fitted up and used by the Zion Evangelical congregation.

Dr. J. P. Powell, W. H. Bond, Emil Anderson, and Ed Andre were among the number who brought encouragement to the editor this week by their friendly calls.
