signed up this week. In fact it is getting to be a query with Manager Casewhere he is going to put all the things coming his way. One day at Salem this week secured several new opportunities to close contracts and, best of all, the promise of the boldest, most daring wild bronco buster in the country. They are coming. Watch the program.

The premium lists are about all in now. It is likely that they will be ready to mail by the middle of next week. They will supply a lot of good information that will settle many inquiries.

Get together a load of your best things and have them on the spot by Saturday, October 3. The biggest pumpkin, the heaviest cabbage, the best potatoes and the finest fruit should all find a place in the fine new exhibition hall.

One of the Wonders of the Furrow.

One of the wonders of the Furrow will be the most complete and perfect specimen of a whale's skeleton 86 feet long. This whale weighed 120 tons. The skeleton alone weighs 18000 pounds. Its age is estimated at 700 years. Twenty men can stand in its mouth and it possibly could have held 100 men in its stomach.

An estimate is given by Prof. Andrews of the Smithsonian institute that it would take a 500-horse-power motor for each flipper to drive this immense mammal through the water at a speed of 75 miles an hour which it frequently attained. Captain Sangley, the owner and exhibitor, killed this whale at the great whaling station situated on the west coast of Vancouver Island, where they frequently kill four or five whales a day. Last year they killed 546 whales, and this is not a Jonah.

RESERVOIR PARK.

Building is still going on rapidly in Reservoir Park. The new store is just about completed, the church has the roof on, several houses are in course of construction and several more basements are dug ready for the foundations.

The two Conley families, the Noble family and Mrs. Neep are at the hop fields.

Roy Rickert of Springdale spent one night last week at the home of his uncle, M. Rickert.

Sam Esteb has quite a number of building contracts in and near Reservoir Park.

Mr. Brentnell, Mr. Hoffman, wife, children and father and mother, Miss Trenette Almstine, Miss Orphia and Ruth Palmer, Mr. Nash, Fred, Roy and Lawrence Rickert, Hiller Almstine and Bert and Gladys Hibbard were entertained last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. M. Rickert.

Mr. and Mrs. Brentnell have purchased four lots in Montavilla where they expect to move inside of a month.

Al Harsh and wife are the proud possessors of a new baby girl. This is their first and we wish them joy.

Geo. Jesup and three friends have gone on a six weeks' hunt up in the mountains for big game.

Mr. and Mrs. Bicker have moved into the Duncanson house on Hazel street.

Grandpa Hibbard who had the misfortune to sprain his wrist badly some time ago is improving very slowly.

Bert Hibbard has moved his house back from Mora street and is building two rooms on.

Mr. White is raising his house and will move it nearer to Cherry street.

Mrs. A. P. Hill has nearly recovered from a sprained ankle which she received when on her way to the coast with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rickert, some time ago. She only got as far as Wilson River postoffice.

certainly looked good to them on their return, and are not at all impressed with Southern Oregon.

Ray Harper of The Dalles spent Thursday with Dalles Simonsen.

Donald McMillan was a welcome Herald visitor the other day and cheered us with his usual hearty hand shake, gift of fruit and a year's subscription. The world would be better and brighter if there were more like him.

Among the many decided improvements being made by property owners in town is the removal of the old plank walk in front of N. L. Smith's tract on Main street and the replating of a fine hard gravel walk.

E. O. Ball of Washougal was a caller early this week on his way to Cottrell.

The entertainment given at Melrose Methodist church by the Methodist church choir of Gresham last Friday evening was a success in every way. Twenty-five people from Gresham were present. After the entertainment, which consisted in music by the choir and readings by Miss Frances Judy and Miss Strebin of Melrose, a light lunch was served by the Melrose people, after which all departed for their homes.
