TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Ore., Oct. 21—The business men of Troutdale are talking strongly of organizing a commercial club. A banking institution for the town is also being seriously considered.

The new pound located back of Aaron Fox's building occupied by Chas. Rowley, has already been initiated and is proving to be an excellent reminder to those owning stock, to keep them off the streets.

Troutdale is taking on a new and decided improvement in the way of sidewalks. The fine concrete walk entirely around the Weinhard building has proved an incentive to others. All walks have been made on a level with the street in compliance with an ordinance to that effect. Osburn Bros. are having new walks made around their property occupied by Aaron Fox's store. J. A. and U. B. Larsson are each having concrete sidewalk made in front of their residence property.

W. Banard has just returned from several days sojourn in California. Wm. Chamberlain and wife left a few days ago for Lawrence, Kans., to settle up their affairs and bring their household goods here. They expect to make their future home at Montavilla.

Aaron Fox has had a new double sign made for his store building.

John Strite is taking a week's vacation which he is enjoying in hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers are entertaining their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Enock, her child and nurse from the Philippines.

Reverend Wood, of Lafayette, conducted the morning services in the Evangelical church last Sunday and Mrs. Wood the evening services.

Reverend Stewart will preach next Sunday morning in Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hubbard were in Portland on Monday to attend the funeral of John St. Alm, who was a former Troutdale resident.

Dr. W. Dean Wright visited relatives at Ainsville over Sunday.

J. M. Edmonson and wife returned a few days ago from several weeks spent traveling by team over the eastern and southern part of the state and are with Mrs. Edmonson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hursell.

Chas. Kane and wife of Portland, visited Henry Richardson and wife, on Sunday. They will leave for California about November 1, to spend the winter.

H. Vose has returned from a business trip to his former home at Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleet are visiting the latter's grandfather, D. F. Buxton. Mrs. Van Vleet, nee Eva Bristol, was united in marriage to Charles W. Van Vleet on Wednesday evening, Oct. 14. The ceremony was performed in the First Christian church of Portland, by the pastor, Rev. Buckley. Mrs. Van Vleet is the eldest daughter of J. N. Bristol and wife of Portland, and is a trained nurse. Mr. Van Vleet is connected with the Norwich Pharmaceutical Co., of New York, where they will live in the future. They will leave in a few days for that place, going by way of California, where they will visit for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Branham of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Buxton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleet were guests at dinner at the home of J. N. Buxton on Sunday.

Frank and William Dillon who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. F. Yannerman, left a few days ago for Klamath Falls.

C. M. Stillson brought a carload of cattle from his farm near Diamond, Wash., to place on his farm here. He returned on Monday and will bring Mrs. Stillson here after Nov. 5, and remain for the winter.

Wm. Helmsing and wife of Portland, spent Sunday with L. Helmsing and wife. Joseph Latourelle is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. Alfred Larsson.

The lumber used by the Fair Association in sheds will be sold to anyone with whom satisfactory terms may be arranged. Carl Shattuck will have the matter in hand.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview, Ore., Oct. 21—When O. R. & N. agent, Charles Hogmire opened the depot on Monday morning he found the contents of his two trunks, which were left in the waiting room, strung from one end of the room to the other, but nothing was missing. Money seemed to be the only thing desired by the thieves as they left some valuable jewelry and silverware. The Sun Dial feed mill was also entered and the safe opened but only two cents were found. A skeleton key had evidently been used to gain admittance but no clue was left as to the identity of the intruders.

A number of Frank Sharp's young friends gathered at his home last Saturday evening and gave him a pleasant surprise in honor of his 17th birthday.
