

The Sandy Hotel

First-class accommodations
Commercial trade solicited
Clean beds and good meals

Feed Stable in Connection

CASPER JUNKER, Prop.
Sandy, Oregon

LUMBER

TIMBERS
ROUGH LUMBER
SIZED AND DRESSED LUMBER
RUSTIC
FLOORING
CEILING
FINISHING MATERIAL

STRAUS LUMBER COMPANY

Phone, 411. Mill 3/4 mile east Kelso
ORIENT, ORE.

Market Price for All
GRAIN BOUGHT

BORING ROLLER AND CHOP MILL

FEED ON HAND
ROLLING AND CHOPPING DONE

Robt. Tassell

BORING, ORE.

T. HENSLEY

Gasoline Wood-Saw

50c a Cord

Troutdale, - Oregon

Phone Farmers 35x2

Steam

Wood Saw

TROUTDALE, ORE.

FIRWOOD 50c.

W. F. GREER

Wood Sawing

GRESHAM STEAM SAW

50c Per Cord

Quickest Cheapest and Best

Call or phone

Robt. Doane

Phone, 257. Res., Main Street
GRESHAM, ORE.

Washing

Is no longer a drudgery. - Try

MT. SCOTT

Washing Compound

"It Does the Business"

If you try it once you will use it
Always.

J. A. CARTHON

Horseshoeing

General Repairing

Wagon and Carriage Work

FAIRVIEW, OREGON

TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Ore., Nov. 4—The attendance and circulation at the Troutdale Reading-room was unusually good last month. The percentage of non-fiction books taken out was especially pleasing to those in charge. The custodian, Mrs. Estella Richardson, submits the following report: attendance, adult 383, juvenile 286, total 669; circulation, fiction 320, non-fiction 215, total 544; registration, adult 14, juvenile 2, total 16; fines 25 cents.

H. Brink and family have returned to their home here from Elgin, Ill., where they have been for the past few months. Misses Mabel and Blanche Brink are just recovering from typhoid fever.

Mrs. Frances Allard is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. F. Gray, of Cottage Grove.

Miss Effie Swain has returned from several weeks visit with her aunt in Sandy.

Mrs. F. A. Jette of Champoeg is visiting her parents, G. N. Reynolds and wife. Mrs. C. A. Hewitt is visiting Mrs. Jane Northway at Springdale, Oregon.

Mrs. George Schlatter has gone to California, called there by the illness of a sister.

Mrs. George Rowley has returned to her home at La Camas, after a few days visit with relatives here.

John Stafford has gone with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kane, and G. W. Goecht of Portland, to Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Albert Fox left for San Francisco last Friday for an extended stay.

Dr. Henneberger and Dr. Wright are spending a few days out of town.

Gus Peterson has sold his 90-acre farm at Springdale to Herman Willow of Powell Valley for $4200.

Larson Bros. and Chas. Williams are preparing to move into their new quarters in the Weinhard building.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stillson returned to their home after a few months absence. Mr. Stillson was on his farm at Diamond, Wash., and Mrs. Stillson in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Ella Hornish of Pendleton is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Graig.

H. Scharf is having a porch built on his cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gotham of Hillsboro, are the proud parents of a daughter, born a few days ago. The Gothams are former Troutdale residents.

L. A. Harlow has finished harvesting his potatoes, which yielded 1200 bushels for four acres.

Jack Greenwalt returned from a few weeks sojourn on his ranch at Carley.

Aaron Fox has purchased a mule team from J. M. Edmonson for use as a delivery team.

Mrs. F. Mority entertained the Ladies Aid Society at her home Wednesday.

Miss Salina Fox was given a pleasant surprise party by a large number of her young friends Friday night on the occasion of her 12th birthday.

EGYPT

O. Westlund is building a barn for F. Schultz.

Miss E. Graf entered high school in Portland last week.

J. Nix dug potatoes for H. Hansen last week.

O. Westlund has the gasoline drag-saw from O. M. Hickey of Portland.

Miss J. Udey was slightly ill last week.

Dell Deverell is clearing this week.

Gus Arent has returned to work at Burkholders saw-mill.

C. Deverell has quit running the donkey for Burkholder.

DOVER

Mrs. Miller and her son Augustine of Deer Island, were in Dover looking after their property with the intention of moving here in the spring. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Exon.

Mr. Locke of Lents is working on the Watters. He likes Dover and will move here if he can find a suitable place.

A. J. Kitzmiller is doing a good business in the meat line.

Rev. D. A. Watters expects to sell his farm soon.

Commissioner Mattoon was at Dover last week inspecting bridges. He says the new bridge across North Eagle creek is a good one.

George Kitzmiller has his wood business going in good shape.

The new road along Eagle creek is already receiving considerable travel, and when thoroughly opened up this will be our most important highway.

Dover is hopeful of receiving rural mail service in the near future.

Mrs. Jennie Kitzmiller is recovering.

POWELL VALLEY

Charles Norddion of Seattle has moved to Powell Valley where he expects to make his future home.

Miss Aida Norddion and Mr. Drun-ander of Portland, spent Sunday with Miss Norddion's mother and sisters.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview, Ore., Nov. 4—Wm. Byers and wife have been visiting relatives in Salem for a few days.

B. W. Shaver of Clatskanie, has been visiting his brother G. E. Shaver.

Mrs. E. Smith entertained the Misses Alice and Margery Stearns of Portland, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and son visited their parents here from Friday to Sunday.

W. Ellison and family have returned from a few days visit with Mrs. Ellison's relatives at Springwater, Ore.

Chas. Hogmere and wife have gone to housekeeping in a part of Mrs. Julia Snover's house. Mr. Hogmere is agent for the O. R. & N. here during Agent Ellison's vacation.

Rev. Becker of Dallas, preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening, assisted by Rev. Byers of Salem, who is visiting his son Wm. Byers.

H. B. Perkins and wife returned last Saturday from a visit with their daughter in Washington.

Miss Pauline Gloor of Fulton, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Luscher.

Misses Bell and Fanny Webb, who resided in the Carter cottage on Sandy road, west of Fairview, have moved to Rose City park for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kuhlman have a fine baby boy, born on Oct. 27.

J. Robinson and wife of Pleasant Home have rented and moved into R. W. Wilcox's residence in the south-west part of town.

Grant Shaw will live in his mother's house during the latter's absence in Walla Walla.

Mrs. B. H. Bowman, Mrs. J. W. Faris and Mrs. E. D. Holgate gave a ten cent autumn coffee at Mrs. Bowman's home on Thursday afternoon for the benefit of the Ladies' Society of Smith Memorial church.

Chas. Fitzgerald, who has resided at Clarnie station for the past year, will move onto the old Fitzgerald place as soon as suitable buildings are erected.

Lloyd Schram is ill with typhoid fever at his home in Highland, Or. Lloyd is well known in Rockwood and Gresham.

Grant Shaw is loading a car of oak wood to be shipped to Portland.

The Pacific Telephone Company crew, who have been replacing old poles and generally repairing the line have finished the work between Portland and Troutdale and are going on east.

J. H. Schram is making quite extensive improvements on his place.

Mrs. Hoyt of Portland, is having repairs and improvements made on her place in the southwest part of town.

The ladies of the Methodist church gave a reception for their new pastor on October 30. Although it was stormy, there was a good attendance and the evening was spent in guessing games and impromptu music. A straw vote on woman's rights was taken, the issue was being carried by the women but defeated by the men; Wm. Taft was elected also, by the same method. Light refreshments were served after which the new pastor Rev. Creevy made a good talk, followed by prayer by Rev. Byers.

ROCKWOOD

The dance given by the Artisans in Grange hall on Saturday evening was most attended and everybody reports a most enjoyable time.

Roy Dawes re-entered business college in Portland on Monday morning.

Merrill Prettyman and wife of Portland are spending a few weeks with Mr. Prettyman's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Ernest Burdick and wife, over Sunday.

W. Crockett and his friends from California, have gone for a few days' hunt.

Rockwood School Notes.

(Conducted by Geo. Crane)

Mrs. Tegart, a school director, visited school last week.

The fifth graders are doing nicely.

The boys are organizing a foot-ball team.

Death of John H. Wildee

John H. Wildee, born at Syracuse, New York, 57 years ago, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Holcomb, last Saturday, of cancer of the liver.

Mr. Wildee had not lived in this locality long, but had acquired numerous friendships and was well regarded by his acquaintances.

At his request the funeral services were conducted by Pleasant Valley grange, of which he was an active member and the remains were taken to Multnomah Cemetery.

He left no family, having been a widower for several years. While here, he lived with his sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Holcomb. His memory will be held in high esteem by all those with whom he was acquainted.

Cosmopolitan, Outing and Review of Reviews, Herald too, $5. See last page.

GOLD WATCH FREE!

ON JANUARY 1

See

J. W. BENECKE

CLEONE OR FAIRVIEW

CHOPPING AND ROLLING

Grist Taken at any Time—Quick Delivery.

WE CARRY A FULL LINE OF MILL FEED

Market Price Paid for Grain

SUN-DIAL FEED MILL

FAIRVIEW,

OREGON

Everybody is Talking

About Our Special

$15.00 SUITS

They have all the goodness and good looks of Suits that are sold for considerable more.

Convince Yourself When in Portland Next

Norris-Baker Co

THE AMERICAN CLOTHIERS
SUCCESSORS TO WELCH & CO.

223-25 MORRISON STREET

PORTLAND, ORE.

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST LOSS BY

Fire!

INSURE IN THE

OREGON FIRE RELIEF ASSOCIATION

John Brown, Rockwood, Agent

For Eastern Multnomah and Clackamas Counties.

COTTRELL

A large audience was present at the Cottrell Baptist church Sunday night.

The Ladies Aid Society of Cottrell met at Mrs. Schneider's home; about fifteen were present.

Some additional work is being done at the Cottrell school.

The small-pox scare is over and regular attendance is reported again.

Ambert Andrews has been hauling feed for Jonsrud Bros. Milling-Co.

Last of next month an apron fair and entertainment will be given at Cottrell.

The Pipe-line road is being much improved by the gravel. Let the good work go on.

We all admire the pluck of S. Osburn in continuing to clear, despite his injured arm.

W. Hudson will move to Portland.

Henry Inlow of Lents, was here this week arranging affairs on his ranch.

T. Dunn and G. Beers realized a good profit on their dance.

Everybody have pheasant dinners now, the birds being more plentiful than last year.

Is Louis Haughman going to build a new house?

Pete Heia and Ole Mickelson are both erecting new dwellings. The spirit of improvement is strongly in evidence about Cottrell.

A general holiday was granted the pupils this week on account of election and Institute.

Clifford Schneider and a Portland friend are coming out to visit at his home Saturday and Sunday.

Several "outfits" of Japs are engaged in digging potatoes in these parts.

Farm Journal, five years and The Herald one year. See offer on last page.

CORBETT

Fred Shultz has a new barn under construction.

Mrs. M. E. Reed and son Floyd spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. Lucy Kincaid was a Sunday visitor at F. H. Reeds.

Misses Marie and Gertrude Hogan of Portland, were guests of Miss Henry on Saturday and Sunday.

Fred C. Reed took a party of young people to Cape Horn in his launch last Sunday.

Lewis Benfield is suffering from a sprained ankle.

Rev. Soule preached a fine sermon at the school house Sunday afternoon.

George Dressell is in the city this week on jury duty.

T. L. Evans was a passenger for Portland Sunday evening.

Miss May Walker arrived from The Dalles Thursday and will be employed in the Evans store.

Mrs. Saunders has been on the sick list for several days this week.

Fred Benfield surprised the school children by treating them to candy at the close of school Friday afternoon.

Our school gave a Parents Day program Friday afternoon. The parents and a few friends of the pupils received written invitations. At two-thirty the house was darkened and then lit with jack-o'-lanterns and a program consisting of songs, recitations and dialogues rendered which did credit to both pupils and teacher.

R. P. Rassmussen, the president of the board commended all concerned for the fine program and the excellent school work being done. The following are on the roll of honor for the first month: Herman Leader, Iva Reed, Emma Spybrock, Esther Kincaid, Helene, Alice and Edith Walker and Bennie Saunders.

Read the want ads on last page.