BRANCH LIBRARY WELL PATRONIZED

The report of the Gresham branch of the Free county library for October shows attendance, adults, 886; juvenile, 380; total, 1266. Circulation, fiction, 240; non-fiction, 154; total, 394. The current literature, including monthly magazines and weeklies, of which there is a good variety, is very well used. Altogether the reading-room is a very inviting and cosy place these fall evenings. Sabin Alexander has donated to the reading-room the winter's supply of wood.

The Hallowe'en social given for the benefit of the branch library was a splendid success. The net proceeds were nearly $40. The directors wish to heartily thank all those who helped in the arrangements and the public for its generous patronage. It has been decided to make the Hallowe'n social an annual event.
