TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Ore., Nov. 11—Roy Surber is the proud father of a girl born Nov. 9. Mrs. J. A. Larsson has been visiting friends at Washougal.

Dr. Henneteger returned to town last Sunday with a team of wild broncos and has been having troubles of his own since. When he attempted to lead the team into the barn, they made strong objections and started toward their former home, dragging the doctor with them. With the aid of the neighbors the horses were corralled in a potato field. The Doctor was unhurt bodily but his dignity was much ruffled.

Mrs. B. Edmonson spent Sunday with friends in Gresham.

C. P. Brooks lost a work horse Sunday. The animal bled to death while being operated on for cancer.

W. W. Northway lost a horse valued at $800, last week through sickness.

Mrs. Ellen Wright is visiting her son in Portland this week.

Henry Richardson received a bad fracture of the knee by falling from a pile of lumber at the packing-plant test Saturday.

Troutdale employees of the Union Meat Co. have become interested in real estate on the peninsula and several have purchased property there.

Mrs. Fannie Gray returned to her home in Cottage Grove on Monday, after a long visit with her cousin, Mrs. F. Allard.

The Ladies Aid Society meets every week with Mrs. F. Mority and are getting ready to hold a sale before Christmas. Mrs. Tom Lane and Mrs. A. B. Kendall joined the society last week.

Fred Zimmerman has moved his family from the Stillson farm to his home. Reports are circulated that Troutdale is to have a newspaper.

CHERRYVILLE

Oliver Wiley has moved his family out from Portland.

Mrs. Dave Douglas decorated some graves Friday.

Robert Stone of Portland is visiting his mother and brothers.

Work is being rushed on the M. E. church in order to give a dinner and dedicate the building on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Biedenstein visited Mrs. J. Wald of Salmon this week.

George Odell has returned from an all summer's trip with railroad surveyors in Idaho.

Thanksgiving will be a red-letter day at Cherryville this year. In addition to the dedication of the M. E. church, there will be a shooting match for geese, ducks and chickens and then a dance in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. L. Maybee visited F. Stone and his mother last week. He is 78 years old; hale and hearty.

Archie Mitchell, the gate-keeper on the Mt. Hood toll-road, with his sister, is moving out as travel ceases about the 15th of November on account of snow.

POWELL VALLEY

The Lutheran congregation are building an addition to their church which will give more room and add to the appearance of the building.

W. Bottelson is the proud owner of a new buggy.

P. Nelson and daughter of Seldon, Kans., have returned home to sell their property and may return later to live in Oregon.

CORBETT

F. C. Reed was in Portland Sunday.

Miss Christine Elling was the guest of Anna Benfield last week.

Miss Bertha Henry visited Mrs. Clara Smith last Sunday.

Columbia grange met in regular session November 7 with a small attendance. Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck of Gresham and Miss A. Stites of Eagle Creek grange.

MELROSE

We deeply regret the removal of Rev. W. E. Stewart from this field. His services were greatly appreciated, and pastor and people were making plans for a good winter's work. It is hoped he will see his way clear to return.

Mrs. Pixley of Jackson, Mich., who is visiting friends here, spent a delightful day at Council Crest Monday, in company with Mesdames Hensley, Strebin and Duke.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Baker spent a couple of days in Portland this week.

J. R. Cavanaugh is having a new well drilled.

Mrs. Charles Simmons and family of Orient were the guests of Mrs. Duke on Sunday.

The first C. E. social of the winter was held at Glendale Farm, Friday. The fine weather brought out a large crowd who were entertained by several new and amusing games. After the refreshments were served, Mrs. Parsons sang an old-fashioned song and Miss Judy delighted all with one of her inimitable recitations.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview, Ore., Nov. 11—At the Tuesday evening meeting of the city council H. N. Maxey was elected mayor to fill the unexpired term of G. E. Shaver; and J. O. Davis was appointed marshal in place of J. A. Carthon, resigned. Both Mr. Shaver and Mr. Carthon have moved away from town.

Cedar street will be the best thoroughfare in town when the improvements now under way are completed. A force of men and teams have been busy for the past three weeks grading and graveling the street. Culverts and twelve foot sidewalks are being put in.

Louis Kommers and wife entertained the former's sister, Mrs. Sam Short and two children and Mrs. McCracken, all of Forest Grove, over Sunday.

Miss Thompson of Portland, was a Sunday guest of Miss Cotta Heslin.

The Fairview grange will give a basket social and dance soon.

G. E. Shaver is moving to his farm at Spencer and Mr. McReynolds will move into the Shaver house.

Mrs. Henry Schaefer is entertaining Mrs. Helen Fisher of Portland.

Mrs. J. N. Brown and children of Portland, spent Sunday with Mrs. Delp. Mrs. Peter Peterson of Montavilla was a guest of her son, Ralph Copeland over Sunday.

H. Martin and family of Gresham, spent Sunday with Mrs. Martman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goudy.

Miss Nellie has been visiting her father, R. Hunter.

Rev. and Mrs. Scott of Portland visit-friends here the past week.

H. C. Campbell is having a large barn built on his place.

Claud Maxey has moved into Grant Sham's house.

Mrs. A. Andrews has returned from a six weeks visit at her old home in Missouri. Like most Oregonians who go to the eastern states to visit, she returned better satisfied than ever with Oregon.

Mrs. Walter Taylor of Portland, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Shepherd. Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellison and children have been spending a few days with relatives in Hood River.

E. A. Gessel and family of Sycamore, Mr. Thompson of The Dalles, and Frank McReynolds of Portland, were Sunday guests of G. E. Shaver.

Considerable work is being done on Fairview road. The portion between D. S. Dunbar's and S. P. Heslin's places has been widened and the east end of Main street has been graded. A new cord of gravel has been put on the road all the way from Sandy road to the hill south of town.

Mrs. May O'Shea has purchased from her mother, Mrs. A. J. Hoyt, a house and two lots in the southwest part of town. She is improving the place.

Fairview has a new barber, Mr. Hockins. This is a convenience that proper appreciation will support.

ROCKWOOD

It has been stated that J. Richmond has sold his store to a party from Portland, but the latest information is to the effect that the proposed deal has been called off.

F. Benett has moved into the house recently purchased by Mr. Cutler from D. L. Herring.

Don't forget the masquerade dance to be given by Rockwood grange Thanksgiving eve.

There will be a dance given by the Maccabees at their hall on Saturday evening the 14th.

LATOURELL

J. C. Deam has dug six acres of Burbank potatoes that average 300 bushels to the acre. What's the matter with Latourelle?

Road supervisor Barr expects to finish rock-ing the Latourelle hill road this week. The rock-crusher will then be closed down and the 9-ton traction engine used as a road roller.

Considerable railroad work is being done here.

School is progressing nicely under the tutelage of Miss Smith.

O. Bodeen is harvesting potatoes.

The local creamery is doing a good business this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Tessman are now occupying their new house. Mr. Carr built it. Miss Nellie Gould is very seriously ill.

Prosperity has been rife in all parts of Oregon, and all the election had to do with it one way or the other was to give some men an excuse to wait. Now that even that is useless, people are closing great contracts and building activity will be more marked than at any time in the history of the state.
