Freak Runaway.

What is considered an unusual runaway and a miraculous escape, happened to Aaron Knighton's team a few days ago, near the Gresham depot. The team was hitched to a wagon on which were a few sacks of potatoes, when a special car came along and frightened them. They reared and bolted down the track headed west, "bitting the ties" at a terrific speed. In some unexplainable manner they crossed the forty foot trestle, tore on down the track and over a five-foot cattle guard that is three feet deep and on down the track till they reached a shed opposite Sierets, here they came to a halt.

No damage was done the wagon, except a broken tongue and the horses were not even scratched, but were wild with fright.

Persons who saw the runaway say that as the team neared the trestle everyone expected to see them hurled to death twenty-five feet below. The ties are ten inches apart and it is a wonder how the animals kept a footing.

WAYS TO LOSE MONEY

DO YOU KNOW that all papers in the so-called fire-proof safes in the San Francisco fire were destroyed while those held in BANK VAULTS were perfectly preserved?

Thousands of Dollars were lost that would not have been had papers had proper protection.

Fire comes when least expected and when there is no time to look after valuable papers.

Valuable Papers

of all kinds should have proper protection against fire at all times and there is no better way to keep them from being mislaid and in an orderly condition than to have a

WEDDING BELLS GAILY RING IN GRESHAM

Earl Townsend and Miss Mamie
Doane United in Marriage
Last Sunday.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in the presence of a few intimate friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Doane last Sunday at 5 p. m., when their eldest daughter, Mamie L. was united in marriage to Mr. V. E. Townsend, formerly of McMinnville.

The room was decorated for the occasion with Oregon grape and white carnations. Rev. H. L. St. Clair officiated.

After the ceremony the young people were the recipients of hearty congratulations and then all repaired to the dining room, where a bounteous wedding feast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left for a short stay at McMinnville on the seven o'clock car, amid a shower of rice.

The bride, formerly of Paola, Kansas, is well known in Gresham, having lived here the past three years. The groom is an estimable young man, employed at the IXL barber shop and has gained a host of friends in his seven months residence in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend will be at home to their many friends after December 1, in their cottage in Thompson's addition. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends for a bright and happy future.

Grand Ball - Metzger's Hall

Thanksgiving night will be celebrated by the Gresham-baseball team by a grand ball. Music will be furnished by Snashall's orchestra. Capable floor managers will attend. A series of dances is being arranged that will be announced later.

Death of Mrs. Alice Snashall.

Notice of the death of Mrs. Alice G. Snashall, whose husband, Rev. A. Snashall, is a cousin of H. W. Snashall of Pleasant Valley, was received this week by her friends and relatives in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Snashall lived in Portland in the eighties, going later to New York. She was residing in Los Angeles at the time of her death. She will be remembered by all who knew her as a woman of warm heart, courageous and affectionate.

President Roosevelt's Last Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Once again the season is at hand, when, according to the ancient custom of our people, it becomes the duty of the President to appoint a day of prayer and of thanksgiving to God. Year by year this Nation grows in strength and worldly power. During the century and a quarter that has elapsed since our entry into the circle of independent people we have grown and prospered in material things to a degree never known before and not known in any other country. The thirteen colonies which struggled along the seacoast of the Atlantic were hemmed in, but a few miles west of tidewater, by the Indian haunted wilderness, have been transformed into the mightiest republic which the world has ever seen. Its domains stretch across the continent from one to the other of the two greatest oceans and it exercises dominion alike in the Arctic and tropic realms. The growth in wealth, in population has surpassed even the growth in territory. Nowhere else in the world is the average of individual comfort and material well-being as high as in our fortunate land.

For the very reason that in material well-being we have thus abounded, we owe it to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things. With a Nation, as with the individuals who make up a nation, material well-being is an indispensable foundation. But the foundation avails nothing by itself. That life is wasted, and worse than wasted, which is spent in piling, heap on heap, those things which minister merely to the pleasure of the body and to the power that rests only on wealth. Upon material well-being as a foundation must be raised the structure of the lofty life of the spirit, if this Nation is properly to fulfill its great mission and to accomplish all that we so ardently hope and desire. The things of the body are good; the things of the intellect better; but best of all are the things of the soul; for in the Nation, as in the individual, in the long run it is character that counts. Let us therefore, as a people, set our faces resolutely against evil, and with broad charity, with kindness and good will toward all men, but with unflinching determination to smite down wrong, strive with all the strength that is given us for righteousness in public and in private life.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do set apart Thursday, the 20th of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, and on that day I recommend the people shall cease from their daily work, and in their homes or in their churches meet devoutly to thank the Almighty for the many and great blessings they have received in the past, and pray that they may be given strength so to order their lives as to deserve a continuance of these blessings in the future.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DON'T THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and eight, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and thirty-third.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Rev. Paroungian is having a cement block foundation constructed for his new residence.

The new electric street lights prove a great boon on dark rainy nights like these.

There will be no school next week on account of the annual county teachers' institute and Thanksgiving.

F. W. Fieldhouse, the Gresham jeweler, has stocked his store with an elegant line of jewelry, etc., such as you'd expect to find only in the largest cities. Mr. Fieldhouse is very accommodating and progressive and has built up a very good business here.

The safe-crackers who looted Shattuck's store have failed to inform us of their whereabouts. Neither have they returned the money.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. F. Danton of Portland attended the Townsend-Doane wedding Sunday.

Little Georgina Hamlin who is suffering from typhoid-pneumonia, is slowly improving.

Miss Florence Stafford has taken Miss Alder's place as hello girl at the central office.

Dovie Doane is rapidly recovering from the typhoid fever.

The Gresham band has several reasons to rejoice this week. Word comes from Kansas that Dr. Ott, the leader, is attracting the smiles of a new eight-pound son. We can just imagine his extreme ecstasy. Right next to this comes the news that Dan Talbot has the pleasure of announcing the arrival of a daughter. We have no further hand particulars to offer. All parties interested in the new arrivals are reported as doing nicely. Dan says that the daughter weighs 10½ pounds.

Mrs. L. Winters is rallying after a severe illness of several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Combs of Pleasant Valley spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of C. W. Doane.

R. B. Jones of Boring, was in Gresham Saturday on business.

C. H. Lane, traveling agent for Watkins Medical Company was in town on Thursday. He reports conditions very favorable throughout his territory.

Rev. M. B. Paroungian will preach a Thanksgiving sermon Sunday morning at the Methodist church. Everyone is invited to join in this service as an expression of thankfulness. The pastor will preach also in the evening.

While coming to Gresham Friday night, H. S. Harvey collided with an automobile in charge of John Gibson on the Powell Valley road near Linnemann.

FAIRVIEW OUT WITH A FULL CITY TICKET

Coming Election Will Be First
Regular Election for Busy Little City.

At a meeting held in Fairview last Monday evening the following city officers were nominated: mayor, W. Ellison; recorder, A. L. Stone; treasurer, A. T. Axtell; marshal, J. O. Davis; councilmen, E. A. Whitney, William Byers, H. N. Maxey, O. J. Jenkins, K. W. Wilcox, William Butler, J. H. Schram and A. M. Anderson. Of this number only Treasurer Axtell and Councilman Whitney served in the same capacity last year. W. Ellison was a councilman and Wm. Butler was recorder. Quite an interest is being manifested in this, the first regular town election.

Want Road and Ferry.

Fairview grange will probably take the initiative in an endeavor to secure a county road to the Columbia river and a ferry to La Camas. The people of Fairview are vitally interested in the matter and all others should be, as such a road and ferry would open up to the acquaintance of Esster Multnomah a neighborhood that is now as far away as Chicago. Mrs. Carrie Townsend, master of Fairview grange is trying to get the matter in proper shape for action.

The offer by McClure's of a Lincoln Portfolio is of exceptional interest. "He Knew Lincoln," is the title of a little book that tells a lot about Lincoln friendships. See offer on last page.

GRESHAM NOMINATES SECOND CITY TICKET

Much Interest Awakened in the City Election to be Held December 1.

The city ticket that we published last week will not go unchallenged. It came to us at a late hour that the name of E. C. Lindsey would appear for mayor and Alva Hevel, Frank Wostell and C. O. Merrill, were to be named for councilmen. These people are well known residents of the town, having lived here for years and need no introduction to the voters.

Everyone will now have an opportunity to satisfy himself in the selection of "city dads" at the coming election, for there seems to be enough good material. We hope there will be no cause for any exhibition of ill will in the contest, as both sides have the interest of the town in view and there is practically nothing to cause contention.

National Grange in Session

The National Grange is now in session at Washington, D. C. State Master Baxton and his wife are the Oregon representatives. No reports have yet been received from the session but great work is expected of the highest governing body of the order. Among the objects in view are renewed efforts to give us a parcels post, postal savings bank and national road legislation. The National Grange has "done things" in the past and will again.
