W. E. ELLISON NEXT MAYOR OF FAIRVIEW

Only One Ticket In the Field Which Meets With No Opposition.

Fairview, Dec. 9.—The city election on Tuesday afternoon passed off very quietly. It was held in the Cree building and on account of the funeral of Louis Cree the polls were not opened until 2:30. For mayor, recorder, treasurer and marshal only one candidate was in the field. Eight councilmen were up for election of which six were elected. The following officers were elected: Mayor, W. Ellison; Recorder, A. L. Stone; Treasurer, A. T. Axtell; Marshal, J. O. Davis; Councilmen, E. A. Whitney, A. M. Anderson, H. N. Maxey, William Byers, William Butler and O. J. Jenkins. W. Ellison was a councilman last year. A. T. Axtell was re-elected treasurer. Wm. Butler was recorder, J. O. Davis finished J. A. Carthon's term as marshal. H. N. Maxey has served the past month as mayor to complete G. E. Shaver's term. E. A. Whitney served as councilman last year, the remaining four will serve the city for the first time.

Funeral of Jacob Schmidt

The funeral of Jacob Schmidt was held from St. Joseph church on the Powell Valley road, Sunday, December 6, 1908 at 10:30 a. m., where solemn high mass was sung under the direction of Mrs. M. Kronenberg, which was very well rendered. The funeral cortege was met at Jenne station by members of the Gravelle Verein, a singing society of Portland, of which Mr. Schmidt was founder. They preceded the cortege to the church and after services they marched to the cemetery where they sang a few songs as a last tribute to their beloved brother.

Their friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow, for they have lost a loving father and husband and a true friend.

MAN KILLED WHILE FALLING TIMBER HERE

Jumps From Springboard and is Struck by Falling Tree and Instantly Killed.

While engaged in falling timber at Kern & Viestog's camp, one and three-fourths miles southeast of Gresham, a young man by the name of Frank Moke met instantaneous death by a falling tree. Accompanied by Charles Wall, he was engaged in falling the tree from a springboard and as the top of the tree began to lean Moke jumped from the board, just as the tree fell with a crash. In falling, the tree struck another tree and bounded back with tremendous force, striking Moke full in the chest and pinning him against the stump. Before help could be summoned he was dead. The accident occurred about 5 p. m. Wednesday. The body was removed to Carlson & Henderson's undertaking parlors, from which place the funeral will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. He was a middle aged man of about 36 years and a member of the order of Eagles at Pendleton. No trace of his relatives has been found.

Fairview Artisans Elect Officers.

The United Artisans of Fairview met in regular session Saturday evening and elected the following officers:

Stensland; Treas., L. Kummer; P. M. A., W. W. Ashcraft; Field Commanders, F. Crane, Paul Peterson; Warden, Paul Duda.

They will give a grand masquerade ball New Year's eve with Richard's orchestra of Portland. A chicken supper will also be served.

Grand Masquerade Ball.

Grand Masquerade Ball at Johnson's Skating Rink, Gresham, Oregon, on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, 1908. Four grand prizes will be awarded. Good orchestra music. Best of management. Everybody cordially invited.

GRESHAM'S RETIRING AND INCOMING MAYORS

Major J. M. Short

Mayor-Elect F. B. Stuart

STUART WINS FOR MAYOR IN GRESHAM

Roberts Re-elected Recorder—Gullikson for Marshal—Large Vote Cast.

The municipal election for the town of Gresham was held Tuesday and aroused considerable interest and resulted in a number of surprises. Two tickets were in the field, the Citizen's and Taxpayer's tickets, and with one exception, the election of Arthur Fieldhouse as councilman, was carried by the Taxpayer's ticket.

The polling place was open from 1 to 7 p. m. and the ballots counted by 9:30. A complete count gave F. B. Stuart 68 votes for mayor and E. C. Lindsey 49. D. M. Roberts won for re-election as recorder with 68 votes against 47 for his opponent, Geo. Metzger. H. Gullikson was re-elected marshal with 76 votes and Frank Westell 36. For councilmen T. R. Howitt, Arthur Fieldhouse, Bert Thomas and P. Michel were elected. John Metzger, the only candidate for treasurer, received 98 votes.

The following vote was cast for councilmen: For one year, T. R. Howitt 69, Gust Larson 43; For two years, A. Fieldhouse 83, Bert Thomas 71, P. Michel 66, A. Hevel 50, F. Gibbs 50, J. N. Bramhall 14.

Mr. Stuart is the third mayor of Gresham and succeeds Dr. J. M. Short, the present mayor. He has been a citizen and business man of Gresham for about five years, being proprietor of the People's Cash Store. He has been a member of the city council, during which time he has given general satisfaction.

Many matters of vital public interest are awaiting the action of the new mayor and council and it is hoped will be taken up soon. Among them, the improvement of Roberts avenue, the grading of sidewalks to conform with the requirements of the city ordinances, better fire protection, the co-operation with business men in securing new industries for the town, the securing of water concessions from the Bullrun pipe line and the strict enforcement of ALL city ordinances.

SANDY DESTINED TO BE COMING CITY

Every Indication of Becoming Metropolis of Northeastern Clackamas.

"Sandy, the prosperous little town in northeastern Clackamas county, is enjoying a prosperous growth and forging to the front rapidly and surely," said a business man from that place, "and is destined to be the coming metropolis of that part of the county."

Sandy has gained much publicity and attention from outsiders on account of the quality of the fruit raised in the valley, especially apples. Sandy carried off a majority of prizes at the Grange Fair at Gresham this fall and their exhibit won widespread attention and favorable comments.

Then too, Sandy's business men are wide awake and progressive and always willing to promote the general welfare of their little city. At present Sandy has, 3 general merchandise stores, 1 harness shop, 1 drug store, 1 blacksmith shop, 1 hotel, 1 furniture store, 1 barber shop, 1 saloon, 2 public halls, 2 churches I. O. O. F. lodge, W. O. W. lodge, Artisan lodge, fruit grower's association, German-American society, postoffice, school and is connected with a mutual telephone system. She needs a bank and a good live young doctor. Anyone interested should investigate immediately.

Oregon Apples in New York.

There will be a display of Oregon apples at Macy's big department store in New York City, about the middle of December. If you have any friends there, write and tell them about it and thus do your part to arouse widespread interest in the exhibit.

Auction Sale at the Douglass Store.

The Douglass Store at Pleasant Home is selling out by auction today. It will continue until the entire stock is sold, regardless of loss. Mrs. Douglass feels she owes the sacrifice to her children whom she wishes to school at Corvallis.

JOHN McDONALD IS FOUND DEAD IN BARN

Had Been Dead Some Time—Was One of First Pioneers of Oregon.

John McDonald a resident of the Cottrell district was found dead in the hay loft of his barn early Monday morning by a neighbor, Gilbert Haugblan, who was to help the old gentleman do some butchering. After stopping at the house and receiving no answer, he proceeded to the barn where he supposed he would find the old man tending his chores. Upon examination he was horrified to find the lifeless body of McDonald where it had evidently been lying for some time.

To all appearances death was due to natural causes, probably heart failure, although he had been troubled with asthma for some time. He was last seen on Saturday when he was in seemingly good health.

Deceased was a native of Ireland and an early pioneer in these parts. He married two years ago and his wife survives him. At the time of his death she was stopping in Sellwood and was immediately notified on the discovery of his body. He was a member of the Catholic church and was highly respected by the entire community. The funeral services were held Wednesday. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery on the Powell Valley road south of Gresham.

Take the place and attitude which belong to you, and all men acquiesce. The world must be just. It leaves every man with profound unconcern to set his own rate.—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.

TROUTDALE ELECTION PASSES OFF QUIETLY

Harlow, Light and Nash Win for Councilmen—Weller for Recorder.

Troutdale, Ore., Dec. 9.—The annual Troutdale city election passed off with little excitement. The polls were open from one to seven o'clock and by eight o'clock all votes had been counted. The councilmen elected were, L. A. Harlow, who received 68 votes; Wm. Light 44 and L. B. Nash 44. The other four candidates for councilmen received the following votes: L. Helming 39, Wm. Latourelle 30, Frank Portello 36 and Chas. Williams 42.

Wm. Weller was elected recorder by a majority of one vote over Dan Mickley. Weller received 53 votes and Mickley 52.

Wm. Schmidt received 58 votes for marshal and I. N. Baxton 45, C. Hess 1 and Jene Larson 2.

Sad Death of Miss Van Curen

The funeral of Miss Loretta Van Curen, who died at her home in Portland December 3, was held in Gresham Saturday, December 5 at 3 o'clock. Deceased was well known here and at Eagle Creek, where she was born. She was 20 years and seven months of age and leaves a heart broken mother and two sisters, one of whom, Mrs. Emmett Donahue, resides at Boring. She had been afflicted with dropsy for some time which resulted in her sad death. She was possessed of a sweet and loving disposition and noble character and endeared herself to all during her short life. Many beautiful floral tributes from her sorrowing friends covered her last resting place.
