We heartily approve of changing Pioneer Day to the first day of the Rose Carnival. What could be a finer sight than our pioneers surrounded by roses? The Comradery Club witnessed the production of Ben-Hur on Wednesday evening. It was entertaining and help ful to them as they have taken up the study of that great book by Wallace.

Services were all resumed in the churches last Sabbath. They were omitted during the storm, as it was not possible to heat the buildings properly.

To keep Young.

Try to keep in touch with the best spirits of your time, with those who are raising the tone of the atmosphere in which you live. Keep it always in mind that it is through your own effort that your progress through life shall bring with if the fulfilment of the best promises. Youth has many advantages which we should all be glad to keep.

To keep young we should consider most the interest and willingness to receive impressions which are characteristic of young people.
