MOUNT SCOTT

Finley McGrew is the proud father of a fine baby girl.

Work on the grange hall has been resumed.

Anna Roth, daughter of John and Mathilda Roth, who formerly lived north of Lents, died January 24 at their home near Clackamas. The funeral was held Wednesday. Mr. Roth is a brother of Peter Roth of Gates Crossing.

The Mount Scott Drug Company of Lents is moving its stock of goods into the new brick building erected by O. R. Addison. This marks an important step in the history of Lents. Mr. Addison was the first real estate man to locate here and successfully interest people in the locality. To him more than to anyone else is due the development of Lents. He has opened up several tracts, dividing them into lots and disposing of them at good profit. Unlike some successful speculators, he remains on the ground to further develop the community. The new two-story brick building is the first in the Mount Scott district. Already he has had several offers to lease it but the Mt. Scott Drug Company got the first chance and they are getting ready to meet their customers in the new location.

This drug store was started in Lents four years ago. Mr. Arthur Geisler has been the active manager since its establishment and from being only a small partner in the concern he has, by careful economy, good service, and courteous treatment, steadily developed his trade and increased his interests until he now controls the business, owning practically the whole thing and has a trade with people from Arleta to Gresham, Damascus and well to the north. Arthur is persistent as well as industrious and reliable. He has been a steady advertiser and extended his acquaintance throughout eastern Multnomah. His reputation for good value and careful prescription work is first-class. There is every reason to suppose that with the extended room and advantage for display offered by the new location that their trade will grow in all lines and that the foundation laid for a permanent business will here sustain the reputation it has gained.

What we need at Lents is improved cae service and better postal arrangements. This thing of having to bustle our mail to a seven o'clock car in the morning, only to see it go clear out to Estacada and come back past us two hours later, is not only nonesense but it is an injury to the town. Those two hours would mean unmentionable advantage to business men and people in general if they could send letters in on the return mail. But no, we have strictly two mails a day and a big lot of foolishness about that.

Mrs. Bryant is visiting his son, W. C. Bryant at Moro, Oregon.

Mrs. Bert McDowell has been quite ill for several days.

Much building is being done in the Mount Scott View Addition.

Mr. Brown, an old soldier, died at his home in Woodmere on Tuesday. The funeral will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday.

Mr. Lindgren of Sellwood, is about to sell his place to Mr. Wing for $2500. If the deal goes through he will build a nice house for a home.

The Lents band now meets at Woodmere hall Tuesday and Friday evenings. They were unable to secure a hall at Lents in which to practice.

Mrs. Jeffrey is having shingles put all over her house. Since the cold weather many of our people have decided that we need warmer houses.

Mrs. Coon of Grass Valley, Oregon, is visiting with Mrs. Hogue. She has secured lots on Fifth ave and intends to build soon.

Little Clifford Buckingham has been quite sick, threatened with appendicitis. Miss Inez Williams spent Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. Rayburn.

Little Bertha Hauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hauser of Gilbert street, was operated on Friday at the Good Samaritan Hospital by Drs. Geisler and Pelgram. So far the operation has been successful as she is doing nicely.

Dr. Moore's family, who have spent more than a year in Southern California for the benefit of Theresa's health, report that she is not improving. The family has the sympathy of many friends.

The Young Men's Society have charge of the services at the Evangelical church Feb 7 and the Young Ladies Society the following Sunday.

MONTAVILLA

Mr. and Mrs. White are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home.

Mid-term examinations are being held at the schools this week.

The street car service has been decidedly meagre of late. It seems that the company have been unable to restore things to their normal condition since the storm.

Mrs. Henry Hecht has been ill for several days.

It is now Chinese New Year. A time when it is expected that all debts are paid and all unpleasantnesses cleared up and each Chinaman is supposed to start a new page. We might profit by their custom.

The Methodist church is now lighted by electricity.

Mrs. Chas. Carlson was buried in Multnomah Cemetery Wednesday.

Fred Sheldon is back at his old post again after a five week's illness.

Joyce Clark was killed in his own yard Sunday afternoon by a kick from a horse. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Perkins of Broad street.

The Comradery Club met at Mr. Bartlett's residence on Friday evening. The boys are now making arrangements to organize a base-ball team.

A beautiful cantata was rendered at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Montavilla was represented by a number of people. The cantata was rendered by a chorus of eighteen voices under the direction of Mrs. Hamilton. It was an exquisite production and Mrs. Donald MacKenzie's solos were especially fine.

"What would Jesus do?" This question is raising new interest. An inter-denominational campaign will soon be started in Portland. Wm. B. Wallace of Cleveland, Ohio, started the first campaign. It has been said that the life teachings and principles of Jesus Christ are the solution of every problem known to human experience.

GATES CROSSING

Rev. Ingalls, pastor of the Methodist church, expects to be absent from his work for a short time and his pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Green, lately from Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Swabel are living at home again. The mill in which he was employed shut down last week on account of the high water.

A message announcing the death of Mr. LaMear in Deadwood, S. D., was received by his friends a few days ago. No particulars as to the cause of his death have been received. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his death.

The editor of The Herald was calling in this neighborhood one day this week. We are pleased to learn that a steadily increasing number of people are coming to realize the value of a good newspaper in the county outside of Portland. We would not seek to detract from Portland indeed that city is without doubt destined to be at least the second city on the Pacific coast. But while this is an acknowledged fact, we should not allow Portland's greatness to overshadow the rest of the state or even the county. Each section must develop its own resources. Nothing tends more to this end than a well supported local newspaper.

A Mr. Johnson from Washington has just completed the purchase of a five-acre tract on the Foster road about one block west of the Gates road, from Chas. Benedict. Mr. Johnson expects to make this his future home and will move his family here as soon as he finds a house in which to live until he can build on his own ground.

SECTION LINE

Mrs. H. Warnecke left for The Dalles last Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Ketchum, whose husband is an extensive sheep raiser.

Frank Ream is ill with lagrippe.

R. Holman received a bad fall during the recent cold spell by slipping on the ice and sustaining unpleasant injuries to the back and side.

Johnnie Windsor, the foster son of the Arnspergers, while chopping wood on Saturday, cut his hand so severely as to render it useless.

Lionel Buckley was assistant mail-carrier during the snowdrift epoch. With fur gloves and leather chaps and mounted on his mare Queen he delivered much mail to neighbors and friends where our friend E. E. Chiptman could not have gone without much hardship which was much better endured by the boy carrier. The service has endeared Lionel to many by whom he is honored in esteem and unqualified respect.

Another very pleasant gathering of friends took place on Saturday evening, the surprise this time falling to the lot of neighbor Scholtz and family who entertained very handsomely. Games, music and dancing, followed by a bountiful luncheon were the most prominent features of the evening. About thirty were present and enjoyed the evening immensely, coming home in the very few snows' hours.

Our neighborhood is in a very social mood this winter with good musical talent plenty. Miss Ruby Cummings deserves pleasant mention as an excellent pianist and the Wilson boys as stringed instrument players.

CORBETT

N. P. Gleason of Rooster Rock was here on business this week.

Miss Eva Reed is visiting in the city. Mrs. J. Calvin of Rooster Rock visited Mrs. M. E. Reed Friday.

Miss Abbie Stites returned Saturday and our school reopened Monday after a four weeks vacation.

Fred C. Reed made a trip to Washougal in his launch Saturday.

Wednesday the ice began moving down the river and did much damage to fish wheels. The damage to Reed's wheel at this place was fully $2000.

Lee Evans visited the State Capitol this week.

Miss Emma Haukey returned from the Sanatorium Monday much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Reed were the guests of Mrs. Lucy Kincaid on Sunday.

UPPER CORBETT

Cecil Pounder has regained his health after a severe illness.

D. Davis has taken possession of the Littlepage place which he has rented for the coming year. We wish him success.

James Benfield is seen strolling up the road quite often.

If you can't get rid of your wife's kin who came for the holidays, just tell them there is another wind storm coming. That'll fetch'em.

Miss Margaret O'Regan was the guest of Miss Glenora Russell last week. Miss O'Regan is engaged as a teacher of music and French in San Francisco, for which place she left Saturday.

Messrs. Edwin and Elmer Leader spent Saturday and Sunday under the parental roof.

The storm is over and men are employed shoveling snow from the drifts.

Several people had more or less fruit and potatoes frozen during the late cold snap. Let us hope the tree and soil "varmints" shared the same fate.
