A number from here attended church on Lents Sunday evening.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other.

Mrs. F. F. Starcher of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as an adult. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

PLEASANT VALLEY

W. A. Noble of Reservoir Park, has moved to the Valley and is employed at the sawmill.

The location of Wilson station is to be changed to conform with the road which is at present several hundred feet to the west. A building similar to others on the line will be erected and lights furnished. This will make Wilson an important station as the new road to be built this spring will have much patronage.

The path on the Foster road is being slowly but surely put into shape. Rain has somewhat hindered work, but by Saturday the board walk will be done and there is talk of holding an Easter promenade to exhibit its good features.

Mr. and Mrs. Vale, parents of Mrs. Noah Kesterson are living on the Seyler tract.

A. W. Robertson is making good progress in fencing his place.

Tom Snashall is still quite low, but hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The Push Club listened to an interesting address on "What to Push and How to Push It," by Hon. J. D. Lee on Wednesday evening. Mr. Lee is particularly interested in good roads and gave the Club much encouragement in their efforts in this direction.

It is gratifying to note the salubrious effect which a little agitation and energy expended on a good cause has had on surrounding communities. Several districts long silenced by lethargy and lack of leadership have this week put on record their needs in the matter of roads.

Vote for the man who looks after your interests in the best shape.

E. A. Gessell has sold his farm to a Mr. Shelton from Washington county.

A committee from the Push Club was before the Clackamas County Court in regard to road matters Wednesday.

J. C. Harrison has sold his place for $3000 to T. E. Baldwin who moved onto the place Thursday. The community loses a good citizen in Mr. Harrison.

Mrs. J. D. Lee and Mrs. Tryphosa Abrams of Lincoln, visited with Mrs. G. N. Sager Thursday.

PLEASANT HOME

Miss Hattie Townsend, who has been in Portland a few months, spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. E. E. Quay.

Miss Lydia Bramhall spent Saturday and Sunday at home. She is one of the contestants in the spelling contest for a trip to the Seattle Fair.

Miss Lizzie Hunter was out from Portland to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cannon.

Harry Meserve was assisting his sister Mrs. Douglas on Sunday.

Mr. Harrison is much missed at the church meetings as he was an active member.

About twenty young folks gathered at the home of Mr. Layman and tendered Miss Minnie a surprise party. A lunch was served and all had an enjoyable time.

Epworth League held a business meeting Friday evening.

Walter Murry spent a few days in Portland with his uncle.

Kenneth Lunderback was seen here the first of the week.

NOTICE

Owing to the above change, the Rural Free Delivery Carriers leave the office to serve their routes at 8:30 a. m. I. McColi P. M.

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Childers left on Monday morning for a few weeks stay in eastern Oregon with hopes of benefiting Mr. Childer's health.

George Stockton is much improved. The revival meetings are well attended and much interest is manifested.

George Crane is in the hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Max Ruehle accidentally fell down stairs last week and hurt herself quite badly.

BORING

Becks have been released from quarantine after several weeks of sickness.

Mr. Palmer has secured right-of-way from Mr. Root and has a large force of men making a plank road to his timber. He purchased the Anderson & Strucker and the Hickey timber. He expects to start the mill this month.

Robt. Tassel is moving to Lebanon.

Three large transformers have arrived at the power house.

Chas. Cox is driving the Sandy stage.

J. A. Imel has bought two lots adjoining his place, from S. E. Card.

Several carloads of ties are shipped from here each week by various mills.

Mrs. Bruner, of Linnemann, visited with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Zenger on Wednesday of last week.

Busy Session of Council

ent provisions for fire protection be enacted and especially should this be done in regard to the new buildings now being built.

Crosswalks will be built on Main street at the Carlson building, on Powell street at M. E. church and near the schoolhouse. They are being put in this week.

Numerous bills were passed upon and ordered paid and adjournment followed. The present council, under Mayor F. B. Stuart, is doing good work and with the help and support of all citizens will undoubtedly do much for the good of the town. Attend the meetings the first Tuesday in each month. They would appreciate it, also suggestions or proposals for their consideration. Don't stand back and kick because they don't attend to matters they have no knowledge of. Call their attention to them and help them all you can.

CEDARVILLE

W. G. Cathey is home from southern Oregon.

We hear talk of a grocery store being started at this place. It is needed.

The switch here is in very bad condition and should have a coating of gravel. Shippers have to go to Jenne to load cars.

Mr. Bort, who bought a piece of the Percy Giese place, is making several improvements.

Mr. Wegman is having his place set out in young fruit trees.

The hot-beds are started for early vegetables. This has been a very hard season on rosebushes. They are badly injured both in the city and country.

Mrs. Winnie Bowman, formerly of this place, but now from California, is visiting at her father's, Rev. Cathey.

We hear that Ernest Giese's place has been surveyed and divided among the widow and children, so perhaps there will be some more houses soon.

Mrs. Balwin, daughter of Mr. McMillan, who went to Alaska for her health, is much better.

POWELL VALLEY

The Ladies Missionary Society met with a fair attendance last Saturday at the home of Mrs. C. P. Johnson.

Chas. Norblom wears a smile that won't come off. The stork left a big ten pound boy at his home on Feb. 25.

P. Wilson and S. Steffanson have sold their farms east of Gresham for $5800 and $3500 respectively.

Rev. J. E. Nordling is home from Vancouver, B. C., where he attended the conference meeting. He was much pleased with the cleanliness and order maintained in King Edward's land.

Rev. E. Scherstrom of Portland and Rev. Chas. Asplund of Bellingham, Wash., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad.

Rev. J. Johnson of Damascus, preached at Resares Sunday afternoon.

Little Arvid Peterson had a narrow escape last week while playing on a wagon and holding a rusty pocket-knife in his hand. He slipped and fell to the ground, the knife cutting him severely over the ribs. He is out of danger now.

Mrs. Palmblad has a new 1900 gravity washer. She hasn't believed in washing machines before, but now she wouldn't be without one for money. It saves time and labor. It's just fine.

CORBETT

Mrs. J. Blackhall and daughter of Portland, visited her daughter, Mrs. Floyd E. Reed, Monday and Tuesday.

Several of the young people enjoyed a social hop at the new hall Friday night.

Ralph Rogers, who is attending school at Manor, Wash., visited his parents for a few days.
