Decoration Day Observed.

In observance of a beautiful custom lesigned to show appreciation and revrence for those who participated in the great conflict some forty odd years ago. Automobile Club of Portland Decoration Day was fittingly observed by the citiziens of Gresham. Although the weather was inclement a large number gathered at the Methodist church at 11 a. m. and enjoyed the splendid addresses of Rev. Parounagian and Dr. The most important day in the Rose Thompson, who spoke words of praise automobile races that will reach into preservation of the Nation and those this end of the county.
