Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best on the Market.
 "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find it to be the best on the market," says E. W. Tardy, editor of the Sentinel, Gainesboro, Tenn. "Our baby had several colds the past winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always gave it relief at once and cured it in a short time. I always recommend it when opportunity presents itself."
 For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

TROUTDALE
 Troutdale, Or., June 9.—The remains of James Wilcoxson were interred in Douglas cemetery last Sunday. Rev. J.
 H. Wood having charge of the funeral services. Mr. Wilcoxson passed away at the county hospital last Friday with blood poison due to the amputation of a toe which was diseased from the use of a corn salve. Deceased is one of Trout-dale's oldest residents and assisted in the erection of the packing plant here.
 He had no relatives living except possibly a sister, whom he has lost trace of.
 He was a Civil war veteran.
 Mrs. Anna Graham and Chas. Welter were married in Portland on Monday.
 Mrs. Graham has resided here several years. Mr. Welter was a former resident of this place but has spent the past few months in Oakland, Cal. They will Poultry Secrets Disclosed!

 THERE are secrets in the poultry business, as in any other; the best methods and newest discoveries seldom reach the amateur poultry raiser and the general public for years after they are originated. A new method of absolutely insuring the fertility of setting eggs, for example, has Enormous Cash Value and its discoverer is not to be blamed for keeping it to himself. Now, for the first time, the secrets of many of the most successful poultrymen are made public. No confidence has been violated; every secret has been Obtained in an Honorable Way (1) by outright purchase; (2) by free permission given the author, Michael K.
 Boyer; (3) by collecting old, valuable, but little known methods; (4) by Mr.
 Boyer's own experience covering 30 busy years. Since this book was first advertised four or five months ago, it has been necessary to print eight editions, and many new and valuable secrets have been added to the original book.
Read What Purchasers Say I received Farm Journal and "Poultry Secrets" and am very much pleased with both. The secrets are worth their weight in gold. Why I paid $1 for the printed one method. You certainly give a fellow over his money's worth.
 ANDREW F. O. BURLAY, Union, N. Y.
 Received your book of "Poultry Secrets." It is an exceptionally instructive work, and worth $10 to any progressive poultryman. I would not care to take that for my copy if I could not get another.
 ROBT. F. KINGLAND, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
 As for "Poultry Secrets," I will say I have believed on this subject ever the greater portion of this state for the past fifteen years and have almost every book that is published on this subject in my library, and I consider this book of yours the most valuable I know of for the general public.
 L. A. RICHARDSON, Marion, Ill.
 Your book "Poultry Secrets" received, also the February and March numbers of the Farm Journal. Extremely satisfied with all three.
 Look more than for money's worth on any one page of either publication.
 F. L. VANDERBILT, Houston, Texas.
AND MANY OTHERS, NOT ENUMERATED HERE
 It would be absurd to expect every bit of this information to be unknown to everyone; we make no such claim. But to the great majority of poultrymen it will be absolutely new, and of great value.
ABOUT FARM JOURNAL—Farm Journal has for thirty years made a specialty of poultry; this department is fully edited and more valuable than many specialized poultry papers. This is only one section, however, of a remarkably extensive magazine—a monthly with 400,000 subscribers. Not a literary, technical farm paper, badly printed on cheap paper, full of mistakes and trashy advertisements, but a magazine for the home—farms, village or country—well printed and illustrated, clean, clever, up-to-date, and always cheerful. Invaluable practical, equally at home on a thousand acre farm or on a suburban back garden; and in a dozen ways UNLIKE ANY OTHER PAPER.
OUR OFFER: { One Copy Poultry Secrets } All 3 for $1.50 { Farm Journal - 3 Years } { Beaver State Herald - 1 Yr. }
 (We Cannot sell "Poultry Secrets" by itself—only in this Combination.)

 Wood's ingenious method for saving the weak incubator chicks.
 L. K. Fitch's System of In-breeding without the least loss of vitality.
 Selecting the laying hens—the central thought of the so-called Hogan, Putner and Palmer Systems.
 The Peto System, a brief outline telling what it is and for what it is valuable.
 Several new food formulas, none of them the same as expensive "patented" foods.
 The "15-cents-a-bushel" method of producing green feed.
 Groat's Corn Feeding System; and other new rules for feeding corn and grain.
 Trousdale's Secret of obtaining high market prices for poultry stock.
 The Angell method, admirably adapted to the small flock in village or suburb.
 Grundy's method of obtaining bulky food at a cost of 10 cents a bushel.

 Of Interest to Farmers and Mechanics Farmers and mechanics frequently meet with slight accidents and injuries which cause them much annoyance and loss of time. A cut or bruise may be cured in about one-third the time usually required by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as soon as the injury is received. This liniment is also valuable for sprains, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. There is no danger of blood poisoning resulting from an injury when Chamberlain's Liniment is applied before the parts become inflamed and swollen. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

Superior to Others
 Gresham, Oregon, Feb. 12, 1909.
 M. L. & S. Co., Portland, Oregon.
 Gentlemen: In regard to your Champion Mowers, they have given me every satisfaction. No matter if the grass be heavy or light, I consider them superior to any other machine made for the same purpose. I bought one seven years ago, and I cut all of my own hay, besides a good deal outside, and I sold it last summer for $20. Will buy another next summer of the same kind. They are strong and durable, and no repairs to speak of.
 Truly yours,
 L. A. JOHNSON.

 Gentlemen: I have your favor of the 16th inst. and in reply I am pleased to say that the Champion Mower I purchased from you several years ago has given me perfect satisfaction, operating in the heaviest and hardest cutting grass with perfect ease and without any tendency to clog. It is of very light draft, and the repairs have been limited to the knife only. Yours truly, CHRIS TELLEPERN.
