EDITORIAL COMMENT

BEAUTIFYING our homes is a subject that deserves early consideration. There are a good many ways to go about it, too. Most people proceed by destroying all that nature has provided and then undertaking to replace it more artistically. The public acting together do the same foolish thing frequently and as an instance of such conceited depravity we recall the effort of the park superintendent of the city of Portland, to cause the removal of the trees in Columbia Park that he might have room for some of his favorite geggaws. Such presumption should justify an exhibition of divine wrath if anything would. We recall acres of homes where every natural growth has been uprooted and now the owner stands unsheltered from the summer sun, the winter rain or the chilling blast. Our natural evergreens are especially adapted to protection of man and beast. The farm yard hedged about by lowbranching evergreens enjoys an exquisite exclusiveness that no high fence or wall of masonry can give. The cooling foliage ensures soothing hours of rest in summer, conserves the earth's warmth in winter and excludes many a chilling gale. The same holds true for public buildings, especially those used for our public schools. No school building should be erected in our part of the state without selecting a site where the shadows fall from goodly number of native trees, fir, cedar, maple or oak and yet if we happened to have them some unappreciative substitute for an artist would want to remove them. Just as was suggested at a recent school meeting in our town. Gresham has one of a few beautiful school grounds in the country. Down at Harmony there is another one. District 48 has a fine ground. Pleasant Valley is as good as any and Gresham, at present, has every reason to pride herself on her fine grounds, but just remove those fine trees that form such a complete setting for the building and we will have—a bald-headed man in the front row—a lasting evidence of a lack of taste on the part of well-meaning citizens.

are talking Gresham. Now let us not disappoint them. Let us make it a success in every particular. Work is going on fine in all the committees and there is no reason to suppose that it will not be an entire success.

The 9th session of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress will meet at Burns, Harney county, July 1 and 2. Some of the ablest speakers in the state are to participate. There will be music and feasting and let us hope there will be some consideration of the needs and interests of the state, for the present and future generations. You are invited.

Party in Honor of Miriam Brown.

A pleasant party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown at Rockwood on June 18th, the occasion being Miss Miriam's 14th birthday, also in honor of her graduation from the Eighth grade. The house and lawn were decorated, the evening was spent in games and music and a dainty lunch was served on the lawn. Several pretty presents were received. Over thirty of the young friends of Miss Miriam were present to help in making the occasion pleasant for her.

Some Well Seasoned "Don'ts."

The Oregon Conservation Association is issuing a number of suggestive pamphlets bearing on forest protection. We are impressed with some of the figures it presents. Twenty million dollars worth of lumber is being cut each year and about thirteen million dollars is destroyed by fire. Of the twenty million about fourteen million goes for wages and local expenses. A glance will show that we burn up by forest fires an amount almost equal to the part divided among the laborers of the state. Hence the following words of caution, issued by the Association, are very practical:

- Don't toss away burning matches or tobacco.
- Don't make a camp fire in leaves, rotten wood, or against logs, where it may spread or you can't be sure it is put out.
- Always clear all inflammable matter away from around your fire.
- Never leave a fire until it is out.
- Don't burn your slushing in the close season without a permit from a fire warden.
- Don't operate an engine without a spark arrester in the close season.
- Put out any fire you find if you can.
- If you can't, notify a fire warden or other public officer or the land owner.
- Remember that any little fire may become a big one if left alone.
- All these rules but the first and last are law, and violation is punishable.
- Next to water, earth is the best thing to put out fire with. The best tools for fire-fighting are the shovel, ax and mattock.
- For addresses of fire wardens in your vicinity, write the Secretary of the State Board of Forestry.

The program at the Fair grounds will begin at 11 a. m. The band will play several numbers, a large chorus in charge of Prof. J. W. Huff, will sing national songs and solos will be rendered by good singers. Hon. Thomas N. Strong will deliver the patriotic address.

During the noon hour the band will give a concert in the grove. Ample provision is being made for lunches and refreshments on the grounds. The stands will be in charge of Marshall Bros. of Russellville.

The following is a partial list of attractions for the afternoon and evening:

SECTION LINE

L. Sorenson, owner of the old Brower place, is building a new addition to his house and otherwise improving the place. His parents and sisters will soon arrive from Wisconsin and will make this their home.

Mrs. J. Dollowich is on the sick list this week.

Garnet McCartney was happily surprised last Saturday at his cozy home by a number of friends and neighbors. Music, dancing and games, followed by a delicious luncheon, made the evening one to be long remembered.

"Fritz," the handsome Shepherd dog belonging to E. E. Arnsperg, was run over and killed by a racing car on the Base Line road on the 11th inst. Quite a number of dogs shared the same fate. Some time a reckoning must come and the sooner the better. Our highways were not intended for racing tracks for death dealing vehicles. All sound minded people will work against this outrage and put it where it belongs.

The annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse on Monday, resulting in the election of Wm. Hornacker for director and Robert Holman of Taylorville for clerk. The latter has held many positions of trust in Portland in past years and will give faithful service in return for this compliment by his friends.

Visitors at Buckley Grove the past week were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knapp and children, Miss Florence and Master Albion, Mrs. Ella Knapp and Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wigman and Miss Margaret Wigman of Hudson, Michigan.

Miss M. Minsinger of Portland is a guest of the McCartneys.

The Purchasing Power of Pennies

The present tendency is to think in 100 cents. To lose sight of the 100 CENTS that go to make up the dollar. To forget the purchasing power that is put up in pennies, nickels and dimes.

Our "17-cents-a-day" selling plan turns this power to worthy purpose.

The Oliver Typewriter Company feels safe in putting its plan into effect because it backs on a BUSINESS MONOPOLY.

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

Our confidence in you is born of our satisfactory dealings with thousands.

So we offer the Oliver Typewriter for a small cash payment and trust you for all the rest.

This is not a mere "savings" plan. It's a plain, straight forward, business getting proposition. It broadens the market for Oliver Typewriters by interesting those who have never thought of buying machines. It sends Oliver's by the hundreds into HOMES as well as OFFICES.

It opens up new money-making opportunities to ambitious people everywhere. And we are just as glad to sell a machine for 17 cents a day as to have the cash with the order.

If you want to know more about the Oliver—ASK THE OLIVER. There are a quarter of a million of them—each an Oliver enthusiast.
