Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest.

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctor's fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by Gresham Drug Co. Samples free.

Hens feel the warm weather as much as other folks. Give them a shady place to sit down once in a while and rest.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Tibbets of Woodstock, Or., visited Mrs. T. Bell this week.

It is very much regretted that the grandstand at the ball park has not materialized. We hope Manager Pateneau will continue to agitate the proposition. It would soon pay for itself and ladies would feel more inclined to attend the games if they were assured accommodations like this.

Miss Belle Giese is very ill at her home near Cedarville.

Miss Hope Anderson is in Portland attending the Summer Normal.

The many friends of Miss Genevieve Metzger, who was severely hurt in a runaway last Saturday, are glad to learn she is improving as well as could be expected. The team belonging to D. W. Metzger, drawing a float in the parade last Saturday, became frightened when the harness broke and ran away, throwing out Misses Metzger, Grace Hessel, Hilda Gullickson and Elsie Metzger. The other young ladies escaped injury.

Miss Florence Cleveland, who recently returned from Stanford University, will spend part of her vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guttridge, of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean of Portland, visited Mrs. Vesta Raney on Saturday.

Chas. and George Raney were home from Bull Run on Saturday.

Rev. Smith, general secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in Oregon and Idaho, will lecture in the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. He will also deliver a lecture at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to men only. Mr. Smith is an able speaker and you should not fail to hear him.

The lecture by Rev. Mr. Smith next Sunday at 8 p. m. will be in the Grange hall. This arrangement was necessary as a stereopticon will be used which employs electricity in its operation. Everybody is invited.

On each Wednesday afternoon during this month Miss Culy, custodian of the Gresham Public Library, will read to the little folks. The following report was made for the month ending June 30: Circulation—Fiction, 308; non-fiction, 223; total, 531. Attendance—Adults, 894; juveniles, 960; total, 1854.

Prof. J. W. Huff has gone in with Covert & Stapleton in the practice of law. His office will be in the Chamber of Commerce building at Portland.

Mrs. E. J. Faris of Chicago is visiting her son, J. N. Faris. Miss Olive Whitney of Kearney, Nebraska, is also visiting the family.

Kirby Drennen, the redoubtable second baseman for the Gresham Giants, has been transferred to the Northwest League where he will umpire the remainder of the season. This leaves a gap in the ranks of this team which will require a mighty good man to fill. Drennen is a veteran on the diamond and held down the second sack to the entire satisfaction of Manager Pateneau.

There were no games last Sunday in the Interurban League.

The Giants play the Union Meats Sunday at Troutdale. There will be something doing in that neck 'o the woods on that occasion.

What came very near proving a serious accident happened on the William's hill east of town Monday evening. A party of young folks, who had been out camping near Bull Run, were returning to their homes in East Portland when their wagon, drawn by four horses, capsized and threw them out. Three of the occupants were considerably bruised up. They resumed their journey home after the injured had been attended by Dr. Short.

Rev. and Mrs. David Cathey and their daughter, Mary, are to occupy Grandpa Cathey's house during a month's outing. Mr. Cathey is pastor of the First Free Methodist church in Portland.

The rain this week has been of inestimable benefit to the growing crops of Oregon, and nowhere more beneficial than here in the Willamette Valley. Great state, this Oregon.

Miss Birdine Merrill Entertained.

Among recent social events was a five hundred party given by Miss Birdine Merrill at her home in honor of Mrs. H. C. Kerr of St. Paul, Minn., who is spending the summer with her parents, Mayor F. B. Stuart and wife, Mrs. Fred Olson of Portland, Mrs. Kerr and Miss Shinnery rendered vocal and instrumental selections. The house was beautifully decorated and delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Fred Olson, Mrs. McMath, Mrs. Shinnery and Miss Shinnery, all of Portland; Mrs. C. Merrill, Mrs. F. B. Stuart, Mrs. Chas. Gedamke, Mrs. Lewis Shattuck, Mrs. Alva Hevel, Mrs. Thomas Townsend, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Welling, Mrs. Marie Dinger, Mrs. E. Roberts, Mrs. H. C. Kerr, and Misses Daisy Smith, Effie Roberts, Norma Hunley and Miss Jordan, all of Gresham. Mrs. Kerr won the prize.

MONTAVILLA

A. M. Gray will make a trip to Bay Ocean, leaving here today and returning next Tuesday.

The new drug store on Hibbard street is open. Everything is in first class shape; be sure and call to see it as it is a fine addition to Montavilla. You will find a prescription clerk at your service and a courteous reception to the Shuff Drug Company.

Miss Mooseman is visiting near Mt. Hood.

An unusually interesting program has been prepared for Chautauqua which will open July 6th.

Montavilla people were invited to send roses to the visiting people at the Northern Baptist Convention last Tuesday evening.

A number of our young people are planning for a picnic on Monday, July 6th.

Just a Woman—There is gladness in her gladness, when she's glad; there is sadness in her sadness, when she's sad; but the gladness of her gladness nor the sadness of her sadness, is nothing to her madeness when she's mad.

Miss Ada Ryder has returned from California much benefitted from the trip.

Miss O. Oberg leaves for a sojourn in Seattle next Tuesday where she will take in the sights of the city as well as the Exposition.

The children's exercises were held Sunday evening at the M. E. church. It would seem that in our mad rush through life we do not have enough of such exercises for the children are truly happy on these occasions.

He—Why do you talk continually from morning until night?

She—It's the only time I have to talk. I sleep from night until morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes from Illinois are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Geo. H. Lewis. They are greatly pleased with Oregon and its many attractions.

John Martin has sold his home to eastern people. He will build another house at once, as he says Montavilla is all right. He has purchased a lot on Ebey street.

J. H. Shuffelbarger and family of Lewiston, Idaho, have taken up their residence on 70th St.

To the hired man: You can be a man whom the whole neighborhood will want. How? Just by being fair and square, earnest, honest, good natured and clean in all your life. No out-of-work times for such a man.

ORIENT.

Frank Stafferson had the misfortune of losing his house by fire last Saturday. They lost the greater part of everything. It is not known just how the fire started.

P. H. Rook and family and L. C. Walters and family spent last Sunday in the mountains.

There were many people from Orient and Cottrell who spent the Fourth of July at Sandy last Saturday.

The Pleasant Home boys came home from Sandy all smiles Saturday, the ball game being 8 to 3 in their favor.

Forest Hayworth is spending a few weeks at home.

Chas. Hunter was on the sick list this week.

B. S. Cline and C. H. Jackson spent a few days at home this week.

S. P. Hale is much improved and is able to be up.

Will Harris and wife called at the Kellogg home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell were guests of S. P. Pale and wife Sunday.

POWELL VALLEY

Carl Anderson left last week for Alaska.

Aug. Nordin and family of El Campo, Tex., is visiting at the home of C. P. Johnson and C. A. Lindgren. They will visit Seattle and Spokane before returning.

The young people's meeting in the Lutheran church last Sunday night was largely attended.

The home of Frank Stafferson was destroyed by fire last Saturday. Sparks from the chimney in kitchen set fire to the roof and the whole building burned to the ground in half an hour, hardly anything was saved. He carried a small insurance.

The Swedish school will close next Friday. It has been a success in every way.

Rev. H. Sandstedt returned this week to his home in Asaria, Kansas.

The hammers can be plainly heard around here as there is much improvement going on.

Rev. Minaker from Portland will preach in the Gospel tent at G. Anderson's grove Thursday and Friday, 8th and 9th, at 8 p. m. This will be in the English language and all are cordially invited, especially the young people. Sunday, 11th inst., there is service in the Swedish language at the same place at 3 p. m.
