GRESHAM LOCALS

F. B. Stuart left last night for Seattle to attend the Fair and will later go to St. Paul, Minn., where he will remain probably for about six months. His many friends at Gresham and vicinity, where he has been in business for the past four years and also mayor of the city, confidently hope for his return to this section and wish him well wherever he may reside. Mrs. Stuart is in Seattle where she will remain until Mr. Stuart's return.

The fishing party headed by Bill Johnson returned yesterday fishless. Bill says the only fun they had was drinking Folger's Golden Gate Coffee.

Mrs. L. D. Howard went yesterday to visit her brother, Life Manning, at St. Helens. Mr. Howard started for the Flathead country to look after his claim.

Miss Beata Gullikson of Plattville, Wis., is visiting her brother, Henry Gullikson.

Mrs. E. J. Gradin is visiting in Seattle and other Washington points.

T. R. Howitt has sold his butcher business to Messrs. Hockinson and Schmokel who will continue the business as a market. These young men come to us with experience and should find the good trade they have bought a growing business. Call around and get acquainted.

Prof. Huff returned from Seattle last Thursday where he spent the week visiting friends and seeing the Fair. He is especially pleased with the Fair which he commends for its location and beauty of plan as well as for its exhibits. Mrs. Huff and daughter returned with him, having met him at Seattle on her return trip from Dakota where she has been visiting this summer.

Miss Ruby Cummings is on an outing at the beach.

Mrs. Andrew McMillan and baby expect to spend a week at the coast soon.

A fire, started on the five acres belonging to the Buckleys on the Taylorville road, became unmanageable and burned over a large spot of dried grass and fruit land. Already the curse of the heard law is felt as this grass, dangerous at this time of year, would otherwise have been grazed down by cattle now deprived of vacant land rights. People live and learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer of Montavilla were guests at Buckley Grove, Sunday.

Neighbor Cummins is giving his home a nice coat of paint, thereby adding a cozy look to their pleasant home.
