Mrs. Ball is visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Mrs. L. P. Hart entertained many of the ladies of this vicinity and gave a delicious dinner.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customers so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

When you wish to sell your grain call up the Sun-Dial ranch mill at Fairview. They will pay you the market price in cash. Gresham exchange 21-X, Troutdale exchange 98.

TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Sept. 22.—The county bridge across Sandy here is being re-decked.

Twelve new street lights have been put up about town on the principal corners and are a great help.

The Portland Railway depot is being inclosed and several carloads of gravel have been put on the grounds around the terminals, making a great improvement. The open depot facing the east would have been of little value when the east winds blow in the winter.

Miss Carrie Thomas of Hood River has taken up her residence here and is assisting Mrs. F. D. Hubbard in the Union Meat Company boarding house.

F. H. Rex is building a very attractive bungalow on his property on the hill.

Albert Fox has returned from Seattle where he spent the past few months.

Mrs. Fred Larson entertained the Ladies Aid Society at her home on last Wednesday afternoon.

A Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

MONTAVILLA

We are sure to have better milk now that the Journal has been doing such good work.

The Livestock show is being well attended. Thursday was the big day for horseracing.

Broad street is being graded. We understand the work is to be finished by Jan. 1st.

It is always serene and lovely in Oregon; a pretty good place to live, anyhow.

Montavilla Rose Association is planning to give a novel entertainment in the near future. So get ready for a good laugh.

Don't be a knocker. Help the other fellow to carry his load and thus make your own lighter.

Why not buy Woodward hall for a fire station? Better think it over, Mr. Simon.

And now a brick block is talked of at the corner of 80th and East Stark.

The Grange fair at Gresham will be held October 13-17. Let everybody plan to be there, and be sure to take your gal along.

J. L. Bartlett of Gaston is the guest of his brother.

Let it be said of Montavilla people: "They are so pleasant to strangers." Do your part.

Mrs. E. L. Tweet is still seriously ill at her home on East Stark street.

Dr. LeFevre and family have been enjoying a vacation, but are once again at home.

The O. R. & N. trains will stop for you coming in or going out at the Montavilla siding. This is a trial for sixty days and if there is enough business it means a station for us. Let each resident give this their attention.

The Montavilla Rose Association meet regularly every other Friday evening at Oddfellows hall. The next meeting is Sept. 24.

Let us all be ready to welcome President Taft. Thousands of school children will congregate on the Plaza.

Gladys Jones, a girl 11 years of age, won a sewing machine at the fair at Scio for the best sewing done by a girl under 14 years of age.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by Gresham Drug Co. Samples free.
