MOUNT SCOTT

Little Ruth Reynolds has the scarlet fever. Mr. Reynolds and Wesley are staying with Grandma Reynolds. Ruth and her mother are quarantined.

Mr. Sharum and wife of Idaho were guests of Mr. Deaten and wife the first of the week.

Mr. Calvin is building a new house on his lot in Eugene Park.

Mrs. Caldwell is visiting her sister in Seattle.

Tuesday evening of this week witnessed the return of the Odd Fellows lodge to Lents after a year's absence during which time the meetings have been held at Nashville station. A fine lot of members showed their interest in the return and there were also a number of visiting brothers, some of whom expect to present their cards for admission at a near future date. After the business and initiatory exercises were over the lodge found itself the subject of a surprise by the wives and friends of the members who had come in with a big spread and were ready to have the brothers come out and share it. After the lunch various persons were called upon to speak and several acquitted themselves nobly. The latter part of the evening was given over to visiting and dancing by those who wished to enjoy themselves in that way. Altogether there were over 85 persons present and the event can be recorded as one of the best in the history of Mt. Scott 188. Bert Lowe was elected to fill the unexpired term of the secretary who resigned and Mr. Shepard the vacancy in the position of trustee. One of the important business actions was to authorize the trustees to invest $700 in a lot just across the street from the Grange hall.

Don't forget the big oyster supper and dance at the Grange hall on Saturday evening.

Arthur Geisler of the Mt. Scott Drug Store showed his business tact recently by sending to every teacher in the locality a full list of all the articles he can furnish both pupil and teacher.

The Rebekahs have announced an entertainment for the evening of October 15th.

PLEASANT HOME

The many friends of Mrs. Harriet Ball, of Cottrell and Pleasant Home, took her by surprise Friday. Each contributed something to the delightful dinner which was served at noon. The remainder of the day was pleasantly spent in sewing and conversation and a musical treat. At the time of departure all wished Mrs. Ball—goodspeed in her journey to Nebraska and Michigan where she soon goes to visit with friends at her old home places. The many excellent qualities of the Middle West which she will see need not lessen her love for her Oregon home where she will receive a welcome returning.
