SANDY

The Sandy Grange grand harvest picnic Oct. 9 was a success in every way. People for miles about came to Sandy and the day was a most pleasant one. The streets of Sandy were crowded with teams and autos as never seen before. The program was rendered in Junker's hall and the Grange dinner was given in the Odd Fellows hall, provided by the ladies of the Grange and was a most sumptuous feast. The program started at 1 p. m. Mrs. H. Perret and Ed F. Bruns of Sandy Grange prepared the following program:

Open song by Sandy Glee Club, "The Harvest Song."

Recitation by George Maroney.

Song by Mary and Katie Junker.

Recitation by A. C. Milliron.

Song by Sandy Glee Club, "Where the Wild Winds Sweep."

Recitation by Mrs. Chas. Bean.

Recitation by John Maroney.

Song by Sandy Glee Club, "The Star of Twilight."

Recitation by Francis Edwards.

Reading by Ollie Cox.

F. E. McGuin, chairman of the day, introduced County Judge Grant B. Dimnick, Oregon's next governor, who was received with tremendous applause. He spoke on taxation.

Hon. E. Hooper, the famous Salem speaker, was the next on the program and he delivered one of his characteristic orations that was frequently applauded.

J. D. Lee of Portland spoke on good roads.

The next speaker was Frank Riley of Portland, secretary of the Portland Auto Club. In his pleasant way he held his audience in good humor and created enthusiasm for good roads. The building of a grand highway from Portland to Sandy and on to Mt. Hood, when completed will be the grand scenic road in the west. Citizens of Portland have already started a fund and with the aid of Clackamas county, about $5000 should be raised for a starter. This improvement will mean a great deal as the road from Portland to Mt. Hood is one of the most important highways in the state.

After the program the horse race took place between Mike McCormish (Tomy) and Anderson's mare. The race was an exciting one.

At 8 p. m. the dance started, music furnished by St. Johns band.

Thus closed Sandy Grange's first Harvest Picnic and already plans are made for a grand Harvest Festival next year when everybody will again be invited to Sandy, "The land of big red apples and pretty girls."

A free musical was given by the choir in the M. E. church Tuesday evening.

Joseph Winning is erecting a house on his farm.

Everyone is preparing to attend the Grange fair.

Mrs. L. M. Little, who has been with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Douglass of this place, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mrs. A. C. Baumbach went to Mitchell, Iowa, to visit her parents to be gone about two months.

Sunday school, which is held in the Methodist church, has changed from 2 p. m. to 10 a. m.

John Nelson's house is nearly completed.
