GRESHAM LOCALS

Horace Z. Light, of New York, is now employed in R. R. Carlson's furniture and undertaking establishment. Mr. Light comes highly recommended as a funeral director.

Besides being comparatively covered with work Wednesday, Mr. Darnall, secretary of the Grange fair, printer and editor, was called to testify before the grand jury in reference to the Merrill license matter. H. L. St. Clair also had to appear on the same matter. It seems that an investigation is being conducted in reference to Mr. Merrill's affidavit about the publication of his license petition.

James Bell, a substantial citizen of Boring, visited The Herald office Thursday and extended his subscription on the paper. Mr. Bell is a constant reader of The Herald and Oregonian and thereby keeps posted on both local and general news.

A dozen ladies of the Ladies Aid Society met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. St. Clair for the annual election of officers. The business session was followed by a lunch and social time. The officers elected were, Mrs. M. R. Paroungian, president; Mrs. B. W. Emery, vice-president; Mrs. J. G. Metzger, secretary; Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter, treasurer. Grandpa Cathey is on his way home after an extended visit with relatives in Illinois.

Will Price, Miss Katherine Potts and Mr. and Mrs. Ropp all of Pekin, Ill., visited Mrs. Carrie Hansen on Tuesday.

E. F. Misner and Miss Ada Preston were married last Monday in Portland. Miss Preston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Preston of Springdale and the groom is well and favorable known in Gresham.

R. C. Jennings, Geo. Lusted and H. L. St. Clair are serving as jurors this week, also J. H. Schram of Fairview and Mr. Surber of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cathey started yesterday for southern Oregon where they will visit relatives at Riddles and Mr. Cathey will go hunting for big game. They will be gone about a month.

Mrs. S. C. Jones has gone to Seattle to visit a brother, Will Cathey, and see the fair.

Want to Buy or Sell.

If you want to buy or sell farm, hog, dairy or chicken ranch, orchard or timber; one acre or thousands, it will pay to consult Hartman & Thompson, Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Ore. Edwin Hooker, manager Farm Department. (43)

John Taylor drove in from the East Side yesterday. He says all his neighbors are drinking Folger's Golden Gate Coffee and he took two 5-lb. tins home with him.

Gresham Feed Mill.

Rolling done Tuesdays and Fridays, commencing Tuesday, Sept. 7, each week. New rollers; first-class work guaranteed. D. M. Shattuck, Prop. (tf)

LATOURELL

O. Bo'ner, who took a trip to Tacoma and Seattle, has returned.

Mr. Stanley of Portland was here last week.

T. James has returned from Sandy.

L. Lund of Portland sold half of his place on the north side of the road to an automobile club.

W. F. Burkholder sold his place to a Portland man.

H. Schultz is about to sell his place.

Mr. Farrel had a buyer to look a his place last week.

You can get all kinds of mill feed at the mill at Fairview.

For good work go to the Gresham Feed Mill; new rollers; open Tuesdays and Fridays. (tf)

MT. SCOTT DRUG CO.
LENTS, OREGON

MOUNT SCOTT

Mr. and Mrs. Schenerman, who have been visiting with their two sons, returned to their home in Indiana last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Radke are both suffering from typhoid fever.

Mr. Hammel, formerly of Lents but now of California, came up to visit his sister, Mrs. Radke. He was compelled to return sooner than he had planned, owing to sickness in the family. He likes Oregon better than California and as soon as he can dispose of his property will return to this section.

The Rebekahs will hold a short business session Friday night after which they will have an entertainment.

Mrs. Pixley, who attended the funeral of her brother, Mr. Tyler, is visiting with her niece, Mrs. Henderson.

The committee of the Lents Grange is preparing a good program for the Gresham fair Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Kennett Ave. have gone to Ashland for the winter where he is employed.

Miss Alice Dougherty, one of Lents' former teachers, was here Tuesday evening.

Mr. Buckingham and family left last Thursday for California for the benefit of Mrs. Buckingham's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton returned from Seattle on Saturday night.

The Grange hall is being given a coat of plaster on the outside and the hall directors are laying a new board sidewalk in front of the hall. As fast as money can be raised all needed improvements will be made.

The Lents Grange met Saturday and Master Darnall being absent Mr. Miller filled the chair. A goodly number were present and a class of 10 was initiated in the first and second degree.

A new departure was made this week in paying the teachers. Mr. Thomas, the school clerk, called at the school-house and paid each teacher by check. Before the teachers were paid at the city hall.

Floyd Marshall and wife are preparing to move into their new building.

The Katsky Bros. are building a new warehouse across from the Grange hall.

CHERRYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rugh visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cooper on Sunday.

Frank Sorios is reshingling the Miller house, the old roof having lasted 27 years.

Win. S. Renyan went to Sandy last Friday.

J. Maronay is hauling prunes to the Bull Run fruit dryer.

THAT WATCH OF YOURS

has needs just as much as you have. You need cleaning and fixing up once in a while, and so does your watch. About once a year the proposition of cleaning and oiling that watch comes up. It's then that you want to think of me. The treatment accorded a watch is just the same whether it is the best or the poorest make—that is, the best attention is given it. FLORA is an expert in handling watches. Let him fix up your timepiece.
