Clackamas County CLEANINGS

SANDY

Sandy, Nov. 1.—Mr. Hoffman's house is nearing completion.
The Odd Fellows are having good meetings.
If the attendance at school increases much more another teacher will be employed.
The young people met with Mrs. Douglas the first of the week to practice singing. It would be a good idea to organize a Glee Club as they are taking so much interest in singing.
Don't forget preaching every Sunday evening.

ORIENT.

Potato digging is the chief occupation in these parts when the sun shines.
Many pranks were played by Halloween jokers.
Mrs. R. I. Anderson visited at the home of H. C. Nelson last Sunday.

Miss Bickford visited the homefolks last week.
A very pleasant surprise occurred at the home of Mrs. J. N. Campbell last Thursday when a number of her friends gathered to celebrate her birthday. A sumptuous feast was served at 2 o'clock which had been prepared by the ladies present. Mrs. Campbell was presented with a lovely set of dishes.
The Cottrell Baptist Sunday school will give an entertainment Friday evening, Nov. 19; admission free but at the close of the program a free-will offering will be taken, the proceeds to go toward a new bell for the church.
B. S. Cline will begin work for the Johnson Lumber Company in a short time.
Our school is progressing nicely under the efficient management of Prof. W. C. Metzger. A number of ninth grade pupils are in attendance.
R. I. Anderson made a trip to Yamhill county Sunday.

Croup Cured and a Child's Life Saved.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, when only three years old was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use many years; thousands of mothers keep it at hand and it has never been known to fail. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

PLEASANT HOME

A pleasant little party was given Alma Roark last Sunday in honor of her birthday.
The Sunday school hour at the Chapel has been changed from 3 o'clock to 2:30 p. m. They expect a minister for next Sunday.
All report having a good time at the Halloween social given at the M. E. church last Saturday night. After a short program, apples, pumpkin pie and nuts were served.
Mr. Bishop, the new minister here, although young in the work, is an eloquent speaker.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond of Iowa are now visiting Mrs. A. F. Chase. They will spend the winter here.

Mrs. M. C. Cornett and daughter, Ivy, made a week-end visit at the home of C. M. Yell at The Dalles.
John Robbins and wife have moved into the Shay house on Cedar street. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins are lately from Idaho.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity."—Rev. J. D. Knapp, pastor M. E. church, Miles Grove, Pa. Sold by Gresham Drug Co.

LUSTEDS

CHERRYVILLE

Cherryville, Nov. 1.—School is closed this week on account of the Teachers Institute.
R. W. Henry of Pittsburg visited Cherryville last Thursday to look after a place that he owns near the schoolhouse. He had not been in this vicinity before in several years and expressed himself as pleased at the development of the country. He may return in the spring to reside permanently.
Much interest is being aroused in a concerted movement to spray and prune all orchards as well as to set out new trees. Non-resident owners are urged to look after their partly improved places. A few dollars spent in getting rid of worthless old fruit trees and pruning and spraying good ones will do wonders toward improving the country and encouraging those who are making an effort to raise good fruit. This is the coming fruit section of this part of the state. Public spirit must be exhibited then we will have better fences, better roads, better buildings and better fruit.
Mrs. J. T. Friel, assisted by Mrs. Kuhn, entertained a number of guests Saturday evening. Dancing was the amusement and those who braved the storm report a good time.

TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Ore., Nov. 4, 1909.—The Davenport Sawmill Company had a number of logs and ties swept out by the high water in Sandy river entailing quite a heavy loss. Much of the drift however, was caught at Vancouver and can be returned, but at considerable expense. Many of the ties are scattered along all the way down the river where they have become lodged. The past week's rain has swollen the river to three times its size and it is now a raging torrent of muddy water.
Electric wires through which light is conveyed to the P. R. L. & P. depot were cut and strewn on the ground and the electric bulbs all broken by some miscreant on Monday afternoon between 2:30 and 3 o'clock while the car was making the trip to Linneman. The company had just had the wiring completed and the lights ready for use. Claud Haslen has taken the agency for the railway company here, a ticket, express and freight office having been established.

C. M. Stillson has sold his farm of 95 acres to the Troutdale Cherry Association who lately came here from Minneapolis, consideration of $19500. The farm was purchased by Mr. Stillson six years ago for $7000 and no extensive improvements have been made on the place. The members of the association, who are purchasing other farms here including the Chapman and Tom Hensley farms, expect to plant cherry trees on the property and colonize it with Minnesota families.

The volunteer soliciting committee for the Douglas Cemetery, Clatsop fund has a sufficient amount subscribed to build an ample-sized cistern and would be glad to have all subscribers send or leave their subscriptions with Aaron Fox or any member of the committee, that the work might be begun at once.

Grandpa Bolton, of Estacada, visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coon last week. Mr. Bolton was a former Rockwood resident and has many friends in this part of the county.

WELCHES

Welches, Nov. 1.—W. J. Faubion was called to Camas, Wash., on account of the death of his father, W. H. Faubion, who was an old soldier and pioneer. He came to Oregon in 1867, settling on a farm near Oregon City. After spending a number of years there he moved to his farm near Boring, now called Haly Station. He then sold that farm and moved to Park Place with his wife and family on account of his wife's poor health, she dying shortly after they moved there 14 years ago. Mr. Faubion then moved to Grants Pass with his two youngest sons and lived there until two weeks ago when he came to his oldest daughter's home and died there Wednesday, Oct. 27, aged 66. He was buried the following Saturday in Clackamas cemetery. He leaves seven sons and two daughters and two sisters to mourn his loss.

THAT WATCH OF YOURS

has needs just as much as you have. You need cleaning and fixing up once in a while, and so does your watch. About once a year the proposition of cleaning and oiling that watch comes up. It's then that you want to think of me. The treatment accorded a watch is just the same whether it is the best or the poorest make—that is, the best attention is given it. FLORA is an expert in handling watches. Let him fix up your timepiece.
