SANDY

Sandy, Dec. 14.—James R. Allison narrowly escaped death the first of the week. While firing the chimney he slipped from the roof and fell against the ladder to the ground. As his housekeeper, Mrs. Hennessey, had just left to take his sister to the depot, no one was there but little Georgie, who managed to get him to the doorstep before going for a doctor. No bones were broken but it is feared he is internally injured. He is resting easy at the present writing.

Chas. Gibbons and family have moved into half of the first floor of Mrs. Douglass' building. Sandy is in need of more houses.

Miss Hazel Wirtz of Gresham spent last week in Sandy.

William Keesterson was hurt by a falling limb while working in the woods on Tuesday. A large limb broke off and struck him on the head, cutting a large gash over his eyes.

It is hoped a large crowd will attend the Xmas entertainment to be given in the Methodist church Christmas eve. A good program is being prepared and the children are learning their parts well.

L. T. Pridemore and wife returned to Sandy after spending several months at Seattle. They have gone to their home in the mountains to spend the winter.

P. J. Seale and wife of Bull Run were callers in Sandy. They report that during the hard rain the water was very high at the headworks. Fifteen men are now employed cleaning out the screens and making repairs.

Mrs. M. Frankland, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mr. Wirtz accompanied his daughter, Hazel, to Gresham where she spent Sunday with the family.

Mrs. Douglass has rented five acres of her beaverdam land at Troutdale to a Jap who will raise onions and celery.

Max Davis made a trip to Gresham this week.

Musicales were held at the Sandy hotel and Mrs. Douglass' this week.

A splendid meeting of the grange was held Saturday and officers for the following year were elected.

Ill Health is More Expensive Than Any Cure.

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

Old Hickory, one and two horse light running wagons, Canton disk and spike-tooth harrows, sold at prices which are right. Call at Hessel's, Gresham, and get right and honest treatment.

For a Lame Back.

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

For that Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Gresham Drug Co., and see what a splendid medicine it is.

Miss Hazel Seifer and Ed Rich are to be married on Dec. 22, both parties of Boring.
