GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. McCarter, proprietor of the new blacksmith shop, has bought the old dairy building. He will improve it and probably make it his home. His sons, Sherman and Cyrus, have arrived from Washington this week.

Henry Knighton was seriously injured this week while working in the woods south of town. The snow caved away, causing a log to roll down on him, breaking a leg. He is resting easily at home, where he will be confined for several weeks.

The new board cross walks being put in this week are just the thing. Better than cement for they will not break up, cheaper, and easier to be removed when worn out.

Two representatives of Bonneville's Western Monthly gathered in a nice bunch of subscriptions this week in our town. This new magazine is rapidly growing in popularity and is doing a great work in advertising western opportunities.

The funeral this week of Samuel B.
Edwards terminates the career of another one of Oregon's pioneers. He died on Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Williams, and was buried on Thursday at the Douglas cemetery. Mr. Edwards had reached the mature age of 77 years, 1 month and 21 days. The funeral was conducted by R. R. Carlson. Mr. Edwards was well known throughout the locality and besides leaving many relatives to mourn his death, will be remembered by a large number of friends.

The Gresham rink has been bought and will be under the management of Cecil Metzger from this date.

The Gresham band passed thro' a sort of second reorganization on Thursday night, and as a result will continue to serve the town with good music.

Miss Velma Metzger was given a surprise on Wednesday evening, the event being her sixteenth birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, the affair was a complete surprise, enjoyed by all present.

Miss Ruby Emery entertained friends from Portland on Tuesday evening.

Wm. Dolphin has gone to work with a surveying crew in Washington.

W. J. Wirtz spent Monday evening with his family in Gresham.

The Christmas program and exercises of the M. E. Sunday school are well under way and will be given in the church Friday night, Dec. 24, commencing at 7 o'clock. All are invited. A committee will receive and distribute any presents.

Rev. M. B. Paronagian lectures this evening at McMinnville. He will occupy his pulpit on Sunday morning. Rev.
S. F. Pitts will preach in the evening.

Rev. J. Heacock of Portland, district missionary of Northwestern Oregon for the Baptist church, will preach at the Bethel Baptist church in Gresham next Sunday evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited.

The County Clerk of this county has notified this office that the valuation of taxable property in the town of Gresham for 1909 is $226,875. This is a pretty good showing for a town of this size, having no great factories to assist in the raising of valuations.

Mary Johnson, an accomplished Swedish servant girl, is looking for a position. She wants a home where Folger's Golden Gate Coffee is used.

FOR RENT—Half-acre of ground; 5-room house, with well and barn. E.
Schwidler, Gresham. (tf)

STRAYED—Brown Swiss heifer, 18 months old; finder report to Otto Eferle, Gresham, R. 2, Phone 438. (53)

MOUNT SCOTT

Mrs. Wilson's house, located on 10th Avenue, burned on Tuesday night.

Harry Eaton has returned after a six months' stay in Eastern Oregon. He may stay around Lents until spring.

Fred Powers and Miss Stewart of Gates were married Thursday. The Powers family contemplates leaving Lents in a few weeks.

Mr. Tobin has sold three of his lots north of the schoolhouse to Warren Kilborn, recently of Idaho.

Lents waterworks are installing a new pump that will throw 650 gallons of water per minute. This means better service for Lents and residence in this suburb should receive many additions. The new pump cost $750 and is an evidence of the progressiveness of the new owner, Mr. Rodgers, who is rapidly displacing the clattertrap makeshifts of his predecessor.

"When you hear a man sneering at the local papers you can safely bet he don't spend his time making them better," says an exchange. "They who don't see a benefit arising to a town from its newspapers, havn't as much sense as an oyster and are of about as much value to a town as a ten year old delinquent."—Yamhill Record.
