W. B. Cooke and family spent the holidays with friends in Portland.

Several of Marmot's young people attended the dance in Sandy New Year's night.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Marmot school on Wednesday evening, Dec. 22, was a success. The schoolhouse was decorated profusely with Oregon grape, cedar and winter fern and formed an attractive setting for the gaily decorated Christmas tree. The pupils had prepared an excellent program and carried it out with great credit to themselves. Just as the program was finished Santa Claus appeared and distributed the gifts from the tree with a lavish hand.

School opened Monday after a weeks vacation.

LUSTEDS

Theodore Neibauer, while returning home from Markell's store last Friday evening, had a narrow escape. The night being very dark and there being no railing around the fill near Mr. Hemmer's, the cart slipped over taking the horse with it. Mr. Neibauer jumped, saving his life. The horse was so entangled it was necessary to cut the cart to pieces to free the horse and there is little hope of the horse recovering.

Mark Heacock and wife visited his mother and sister several days last week.

School is in session again after a weeks vacation.

Mr. Curtis of Michigan is visiting Theodore Neibauer.

Mrs. G. Blackburn came home to spend New Year's day. She is taking care of her niece, Mrs. Jim Hays, who has been sick for some time.

A number of relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andre spent Christmas with them.
