GRESHAM LOCALS

Roy White has begun a course in the Behnke-Walker business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Oliphant have as a guest Mr. Oliphant's brother, Melvin, from Dayton.

On January 4th the case of the State against Chas. Rowley of Troutdale for trespass was decided in the defendant's favor in the Justice Court before Ben Rollings. The complaint was sworn to by L. N. Buxton. The charge was that of trespassing on the Troutdale Gun Club reserve. A jury trial was had. The charge was not clearly proven and the jury's verdict was "not guilty."

It is expected that work will begin on the new pipe line this spring. Mayor Simon is urging that the work be begun at once as there is now no good reason for delay. It is estimated to take about two years to complete the new line which will be double the size of the first and will cost about $1,500,000.

Mr. Lansdown, who spent last summer here but went to Kansas last fall, arrived here on New Year's day. He will probably make this his home.

Lumber is on the ground for church sheds on the M. E. church property. Twelve stalls will be made and the work will be done at once.

Clifford T. Cheek, a teamster for J. F. Wing, while delivering a load of lumber at the M. E. personage on Wednesday, had part of the load slide off, striking his leg in such a way as to cause a fracture of the right tibia near the ankle. Dr. Bittner was called at once, the patient was cared for at the personage and later taken home and is doing nicely. Mr. Cheek has a wife and two children. His home is near the Wing sawmill. Mr. Cheek showed remarkable grit during the operation of setting his leg.

J. S. Holland, about 40 years old, died at a woodcamp south of Gresham last Sunday. No relatives were found. He was from Michigan, had lived in Iowa and near The Dalles, this state. He was buried on Wednesday by R. R. Carlson, undertaker, in the Gresham cemetery.

Otto Wabbes has gone to Kalamath Falls as an electrician.

Mrs. Fitzer Hamilton moved this week to Kalamath Falls where Mr. Hamilton is in the meat business.

The Gresham Haberdashery, Edw. Aylsworth, proprietor, is having a phone installed.

Miss Frances Tucker of Walla Walla, Wash., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hartley.

Mrs. S. S. Thompson has as a guest her brother, A. E. Hartley of eastern Oregon.

The Gresham Concert Band is now practicing every Thursday night. The masquerade given by the band was a good success.

James Sterling from Cleveland, Ohio, has purchased of Mrs. Lucy S. Osborne, through the First State bank, 10 acres of her home place at $500 per acre. Mr. Sterling and family will occupy the place at once.

Will Hockinson had the misfortune to burn up about 500 pounds of hams and bacon in his smokehouse on New Year's day.

E. Townsend and family have moved into the Lindsey cottage on Roberts Avenue vacated by Fitzer Hamilton. Mrs. Townsend has a brother, Jacob Tillbach from Idaho, visiting her.

Mrs. V. A. Ammerman of Portland visited with her sister, Mrs. Fritz Stocker, last week.

Mrs. Cora Carrell and children of Powell Valley visited her mother, Mrs. Fritz Stocker last week.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Oliphant met at her home on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 29, nineteen being present. The forepart of the afternoon was spent in playing games and having a good time. Later they organized a class which was called "The Sunshine Class." Officers were also elected as follows: President, Isabel Metzger; Vice-President, Nellie Farris; Secretary, Mary Paronangan; Treasurer, Velmor Metzger. Meetings will be held every month, either at the homes of the girls or at the home of their teacher.

Rev. J. Abbott, Sunday School Missionary for the Oregon Conference, will talk on Sunday school work at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. All interested in Sunday school work are invited.

Ward has been received that Rev. Mr. Van Marter is having a very successful meeting at McMinnville. He expects to come here following his meeting there and is expected to begin special meetings in the Methodist church about January 10th. Mr. Van Marter is the Oregon Conference evangelist and comes well recommended.

Miss Hope Anderson has been quite sick with the grip and complications. She is improving.

Earl Thompson returned on Wednesday evening to his school work at Oakland, Cal., where he is taking a course in the Polytechnic school. He expects to become an electrical engineer.

The Gresham Lodge of Modern Woodmen installed officers on Tuesday evening. The officers elect are, R. R. Carlson, V. G.; Bert Townsend, W. A.; Fred Fieldhouse, Banker; Bert Metzger, Clerk; Emmil Kardell, Escort; E. Schwedler, Sentinel; H. G. Multhoff, Chief Forester. The new lodge is doing nicely. New members are coming in and prospects are for a strong lodge. There are already about thirty members and several others in prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leighton of La Grande are visiting Mrs. Leighton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gould.

It is predicted a cold wave is spreading westward and will reach Oregon early next week.

The case against Fred T. Merrill, charged with selling liquor to minors, was decided against the State. A jury quickly rendered a verdict of "not guilty."

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr spent New Years in the city with friends.

Miss Grace McKenzie visited Chas. Powell and wife over New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Royal of Forest Grove visited his daughter, Mrs. O. W. Tarr last week. Mr. Royal was a pioneer in this locality.

J. S. Hamilton of Portland, a Civil War veteran, will give his famous lecture, "Seven Days and Seven Nights in the Saddle," Friday night, Jan. 14, in the M. E. church under the auspices of the Epworth League. Admission, adults, 25 cents; children 15 cents; under 10, free. The lecture is very interesting and thrilling. All should hear him.

Bert Ingalls went hunting last week. All he got for his pains was the pleasure of drinking Folger's Golden Gate Coffee which he took with him.

MELROSE
The Ladies of the Helping Hand of Melrose gave a New Year's party in the schoolhouse Dec. 31. Supper was served at 10 p. m. to about 80, the proceeds of which will be used to furnish the now vacant room with seats and lights, and the room for the present will be used for public entertainments.

After supper an impromptu program of music, recitations, etc., was rendered. Mr. Menzie and Miss Gould of Portland taking a prominent part.

After ringing out 1909 and welcoming 1910 the party broke up, every one declaring it to be an enjoyable affair.

THE WONDERFUL "ALADDIN" LAMP

"The greatest Triumph of Modern Science"
"The Most Wonderful Discovery Ever Made by Man."

Absolutely safe, odorless, noiseless, simple and without a question the best artificial light in existence. Far superior to electricity, gas or gasoline. The "Aladdin" generates a gas from common kerosene (coal oil), producing a pure, soft, white light, excited by sunlight only, at a cost of 1-3 cent per hour. The "Aladdin" is pronounced by oculists to be the best artificial light known. The "Aladdin" has no equal. Beware of imitations. See that you get the "Aladdin" and no other. Our trademark, "Aladdin" on every burner.

POWELL VALLEY

The Sunday school entertainment on Dec. 31 in the Lutheran church was largely attended. The church was tastefully decorated. Over 40 children go to the Sunday school and took part in the program and it was a pleasure to listen to the little singers and speakers. A book and a bag of candy was presented to each one of the happy children.

Last Sunday night the Young Peoples Society had their New Year's entertainment which was considered a success in every way. The attendance was very large and the program was one of the best ever given here, consisting of song, instrumental music, reading, speeches. Every number was interesting and well rendered.

The Ladies Mission Society met at the home of A. C. Seward, about 50 being present. Rev. Nordling delivered a sermon after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Emily Johnson, who has been very ill lately, is improving.

O. Thoren moved his family from Portland this week to their farm near Boring.

Andrew Steffanson and family of Portland and F. A. Steffanson and family were guests of their brother, S. M. Steffanson last Sunday.
