GRESHAM LOCALS

The January number of the Pacific Grange Bulletin is just off the Herald press. This is an especially fine number and is being mailed to over twelve thousand Grange homes in Oregon and Washington.

Clearance sales are the order of the day and Gresham merchants are not to be outdone by the city stores either in "styles or prices."

E. E. Chipman lost a valuable horse a few days ago. We are told he died of a broken heart because his services were not appreciated, his owner, a mail carrier, now having an auto.

Miss Ruby Emery has been home for a few days while recovering from tonsillitis.

Considerable progress has been made on the horse sheds on the M. E. church property, though the weather has been very unfavorable. It is expected they will have been completed by the time the revival services begin, which are contemplated in the near future.

Our enterprising farmer near town, D. F. Talbot, has started a milk route.

Miss Hope Anderson is recovering from an attack of the grip.

The city has been improving its fire department the last week. A complete lining has been given the hose cart room with a view of protecting it from another freeze. At the last fire there came near being a necessity for building a fire to thaw out the engine so the apparatus could be used.

Wm. Hockinson has developed into quite a trader. The last move is to dispose of his team, getting another one instead, and enough other stuff as a bonus to start a second-hand store.

Tom Howitt has gone to Heppner to look up some livestock deals.

The band gave a sandwich banquet Thursday evening. A full attendance was on hand and a fine time reported. Eighteen members now belong to the association. A great deal of interest is being shown in band matters recently, all of which goes to speak for some fine music next season.

Thomas Bros. are giving the city building an overhauling. The inside will be fixed up and repainted and the foundation made more secure which will make the building appear somewhat safer.

W. E. Wood is selling stock in a new company which he is forming and which he proposes to have in operation before another season. The new organization will require about $100 capital to begin with. They will manufacture alpenstocks for the Troutdale trade.

Business above and below was delayed by a car getting off the track Friday morning at Sycamore. The mail was delayed about three hours and other traffic accordingly.

People of a sentimental temperament should be on the lookout. Another wedding is about to be announced in the town—reports say there should be several.

The lecture, "Three Years in the Saddle," to be given by Sargt. Jessie Hamilton on the evening of Jan. 14 at the M. E. church, has been well advertised and should bring out a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling and family, recently from Ohio, have arrived to occupy the Osborn home, which they recently bought.

Lewis Shattuck is installing a new device which deserves the attention of his customers. Trade has been good but it will be better when this is in working order.

THE WONDERFUL "ALADDIN" LAMP

"The Greatest Triumph of Modern Science"
"The Most Wonderful Discovery Ever Made by Man."

Absolutely safe, odorless, noiseless, simple and without a question the best artificial light in existence. Far superior to electricity, gas or gasoline. The "Aladdin" generates a gas from common kerosene (coal oil), producing a pure, soft, white light, excelled by sunlight only, at a cost of 1-3 cent per hour. The "Aladdin" is pronounced by oculists to be the best artificial light known. The "Aladdin" has no equal. Beware of imitations. See that you get the "Aladdin" and no other. Our trademark, "Aladdin" on every burner.
