MOUNT SCOTT

J. E. Carter suffered a dangerous injury Sunday. While examining the gasoline arrangement on his peanut roaster it exploded and the flames singed his hair, eyebrows and mustache and blistered his entire face so severely that the skin threatens to drop off.

The funerals on Sunday of Isaac Clark and Albert Chandler at the M. E. church was one of the most notable funerals ever held in Lents. Over 30 old soldiers were present and the attendance was unusually large.

Mrs. Frank Snuffins is enjoying a visit from her sister.

The wedding of Miss Nellie Forrester to Irwin Cone was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening. Rev. Mr. Moore officiating. The groom was attended by J. W. Forrester as best man and Miss Bernice Cone, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Cone left the same evening for Vancouver, B. C. They will be at home after February 1st at Firland Station.

Hans Wahlberg had the misfortune to break his arm last week.

Samuel Watts, brother-in-law of M. A. Rodgers, has come to make his home in Lents.

R. B. Lee has returned from his trip to Medford. We haven't seen the bear skins he brought back.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson of Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better and on the fifth day, Oct. 23, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

For Sale.

Two bedroom suits complete, two iron beds and springs, one single room bed and springs, three heating stoves, dining room table, nice stands, lot of chairs and rockers, baby's high chair, also small chair and baby buggy; plows, cultivators, etc., all in good condition and can be seen at any time. H. M. Barrett, Carpenter place, corner Section Line and Beams roads.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The Gresham Rebekah lodge held an interesting meeting Wednesday night, Jan. 26. The main business of the evening was the installing of officers by D. D. P. Mrs. Mattie Sheret. The officers installed were, Mrs. Fannie Davis, P. N. G.; Mrs. Callie M. Kenney, N. G.; Miss Gladys Smith, V. G.; George Keller, Secy.; Mrs. J. S. Carlson, Treas. After the installation ceremony the surprise committee, Mrs. Eliza E. Metzger, Mrs. Lida Palmquist and John Burbo, invited the members to the diningroom where a dainty luncheon was spread.

The following are the officers in Gresham Grange No. 270 for the following year: W. B. Parsons, Master; Mrs. Merrill, Overseer; Mrs. Bachmeyer, Lecturer; Mrs. J. Roberts, Chaplain; J. Roberts, Treasurer; Mrs. F. C. Hodge, Secy.; Mr. Carlson, Gatekeeper; Mrs. Stanley, Ceres; Mrs. Schwedeier, Pomona; Mrs. Carlson, Flora; Mrs. E. E. Welling, L. A. Steward. Twelve new members are to be taken in at the next meeting.

Mrs. Alva Hevel entertained a number of her friends Saturday afternoon. Five Hundred was played, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. E. E. Welling won highest score. Those present were, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Miss Hundley, Mrs. F. Hodge, Mrs. Merrill, Miss Berline Merrill, Mrs. Geo. Kinney, Mrs. A. Meyers, Mrs. Chas. Gedembke, Mrs. E. E. Welling, Mrs. J. Metzger, Mrs. R. Gibbs, Mrs. L. Kidder, Mrs. W. Hockinson, Mrs. R. R. Carlson, Mrs. L. Manning, Miss L. Parnoley, Mrs. Leslie.

Women of Woodcraft had installation of officers Tuesday as follows: Mrs. Carrie Powell, G. N.; Mrs. Westell, Clerk; Mrs. Nellie Metzger, Banker; Mrs. Rose Metzger, Attendant. Light lunch was served.

Rev. C. M. Van Marter, evangelist, will begin services in the Methodist church next Thursday night. He comes from McMinnville where he has just closed a very successful meeting. Mrs. Van Marter will be with him to assist in the music. All people are invited to attend the meetings.

Rev. James Moore, district superintendent, will preach at the Memorial Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited to attend this and the other services of the day.

Mrs. F. C. Hodge entertained the Five Hundred Club last Friday evening. Those present were, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Miss Hundley, Miss Smith, Messrs W. J. Ott, Joe Patenaude, Joe Osborn, John Burbo, and Geo. Keller. George Keller and Miss Smith won the prizes.

F. C. Hodge has the grip but is improving.

Laura Davis was quite sick but is able to be out again.

Theodore Brogger and family are moving in their new house. They have one of the best and most convenient houses to be found.

F. E. Butler and son have bought a 200-acre dairy ranch at Knappa and are selling out here preparatory to moving to their new location. The father has been on the new place for a few weeks. The family came from Los Angeles a few years ago and have been on the old Marquardt place south of Gresham.

Baseball directors are beginning to do aerobic stunts in their annual scrumpage for suitable pennant-winning timber. From what we can learn it promises to be a dull go in Gresham this season in the baseball line. This should not be so. Let the local fans as well as business men see to it that Gresham will be there with the big nit when the robbers sing for spring.

Quite a few of our local sports went to Portland today to see James Jeffries, the undefeated world's fistie champion, and the hope of the Caucasian race on Independence day. The Jeffries-Gotch aggregation appears at the Exposition hall tonight and those who attend will have an opportunity to size up the pride of the ring and get his measurement for the coming fall with the big "Smoke."

Mrs. Harry Stone of Portland called on former neighbors and friends in Gresham on Tuesday.

Rev. Jas. Moore reports a splendid revival in progress at Rockwood under direction of Rev. Sam Bettis.

A Baptist church has been organized by Rev. J. O. Coalman at Pleasant Valley with 25 members. Six were baptized Sunday afternoon and others later. Mr. Coleman will hold services at Gresham as soon as arrangements can be made.

Sig Knighton is putting up a building just west of Rollins' confectionery store which he will use as a barber shop.

Miss Mary Isom, librarian of the Portland Public Library, was in town yesterday looking after the interest of the library.

J. W. Shattuck is slowly improving from quite a severe sickness.

The movement started by Mr. Spain to establish a high-grade dairy in the vicinity of Gresham is a very worthy one. We are not familiar with all the details of the plan so will not go further than to recommend it at this time. Another week we hope to become so acquainted with plans as to explain at length. Anyway, a good modern dairy with but tuberculin tested cows, clean and hygienic surroundings, in a community where feed can be as advantageously produced as here, would be bound to win.

Mrs. Sig Knighton's mother, Mrs. Johnson, has been very sick at the home of her daughter here.

Don't forget the Library Tea tonight.

SANDY

Sandy, Jan. 24—Mrs. E. M. Wonderly of Rainier returned to her home Sunday after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Douglass. Mrs. Douglass accompanied her to Portland where she visited her daughter, Irene.

Max Davis was in Gresham one day last week.

James Taylor passed through here a few days ago.

Bert Highton is building a house at Firwood.

James Allison's buggy upset when he was turning the corner at the Douglas Store, throwing Mrs. Henney and son, George, and himself out. Fortunately none of them were hurt.

Fred Proctor was in Portland one day last week.

Dora Highton has recovered from a very severe sick spell.

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Lane have returned from Barton where they were with their daughter, Mrs. Bertha Garrett, who has been very sick with blood poison. We are glad to report that she is much better.

Mr. Leaf, who has been sick, is improved.

A very pleasant evening was spent in the parlors of the Hotel Sandy on Saturday evening, Jan. 22, with Mrs. I. D. Crow as hostess. Among her guests entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Bornstedt, Mr. and Mrs. Donahue, Frank Metcalf and Mr. Sharp with his ever pleasant smile. The evening entertainment consisted of cards, dancing and music by the orchestra which was furnished by Clarence Cassidy, Jack Cole and Gus Dakrus. A gentleman from Gresham took charge of the dancing and with his gracious manners, and ability for understanding the bashful and stranger, assisting them in securing partners, helped to make the evening an enjoyable one. Mrs. Crow as a hostess needs no praise for her kindness and hospitality will long be remembered by those present. The refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Don't forget the annexation meeting at Oak Grove on Thursday evening, Jan. 3. Transfer at Golf Links.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be treated entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.
