Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

The white-feathered broilers always have the more attractive appearance in market, as the pin-feathers do not show as they do on dark-plumaged birds.

Deal pretty sparingly with red pepper as a spice for poultry. It is sharp stuff. Better warm your chicks up some other way.

TROUTDALE

Troutdale, Feb. 2—The Troutdale Union Sunday School is being reorganized. Mrs. F. E. Zimmerman, P. M. Nash, and F. Portello were appointed as a committee to prepare for the reorganization, which will take place on Feb. 13. State Sunday School Organizer Chas. A. Phepps will be present to conduct the meeting.

There is a strong probability that the P. R. L. and P. Co. will extend their line down into town. They are now putting in a switch that will provide for local wood haulers and other freight. The people of the town have been wanting an extension of the line down town and the present indications are that it will be done before long. Such an extension would be of benefit to the company as well as the town. Much more freight would be hauled over the electric line if it could be put on the car nearer town, and the same with incoming freight.

Mrs. Harry Wallace entertained the Five Hundred Club at her home Friday afternoon. The occasion was also the first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace's marriage. The decorations were in pale pink carnations and ferns, and dainty refreshments were served.

On Friday evening a number of young people gathered at the home of Charles Hummel and gave the girls a surprise farewell party.

Grandma Harding is very ill at her home here with pneumonia. She is also suffering with a broken bone in her arm, caused from a fall a few days ago.

Mrs. Wm. Eaton and sister, Willetta Warnoth, have been spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. Hummel and family expect to leave next Saturday for their new home near Grants Pass.

Jay Moore was out from Portland to spend Sunday with his mother, Mrs. A. T. Telier.

The Portland Railway Light & Power Company are having the bank graded for some distance from the depot preparatory to putting in sidetracks.

Lee Merrill of Gresham is now agent for the P. R. L. & P. Co. here.

Mrs. D. B. Griffiths will entertain the Five Hundred Club at her home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Hoover of Portland has been visiting her daughter.

Dr. Chas. Phipps, the State Sunday school organizer, will be in Troutdale on Sunday, Feb. 13, when special exercises will be held. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

If you want to buy stump powder that will give you no danger handling, no headaches, no thawing, see T. R. Howitt; he handles Trojan powder. (if

Housecleaning.

Approaches now the moment. Rubbed and almost solemn. When man puts by his pride And with some high resolving Gets on the water wagon To take an airy ride.

Hereafter from the flagon And eke from the decanter No longer he will sip. Nor shall the drink seductive That gets him into trouble Be lifted to his lip.

The pleasant evening smoker Will find relief in this. Its light no longer bright. Its fumes will cease pervading The office and the parlor From morning until night.

That isn't half the story. For man lays out a program That, can be put it through. Will keep him busy working And leave no time for mischief In this year, bright and new.

He knows that it is easy To put resolves in his mind, Or make them in his mind, But putting them in action Is quite a different matter. As he will later find.

In years that have departed The thing he has attempted With no success to brag on. But now he is determined That he will ride soberly Upon the water wagon.

Such splendid optimism Is really sweet to look on. But facts are hard to climb. But let us hope sincerely That he will make the riffs By making good this time.

When Tommy Was on the Job.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating."

"It is the other way about when Tommy is around."

"How is that?"

"The proof of the eating is in the absence of the pudding."

To Keep From Rusting.

"Somebody ought to call the police."

"What for?"

"There is a fight going on in that house."

"Oh, no. That is where Sluggs, the umpire, lives, and his wife is just keeping him in training."

Some Changes. It isn't what it used to be. In distant lands across the sea. Those times will nevermore return. The Yuletide log no more we burn. We're thankful now to get some coat To make hot air come up a pole. There is no chimney broad and wide Down which St. Nicholas can slide. We do not miss it, though, because The postman is our Santa Claus.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview, Feb. 2—The Grangers have moved their furniture into rooms on the upper floor of the schoolhouse and have changed their day of meeting from Wednesday to Saturday.

J. S. Hall is disposing of his livestock and has rented his farm preparatory to spending a summer in the East. W. Ellison has purchased a herd of 30 fine Jersey cows from Mr. Hall for $1500, which he expects to ship to Rupert, Ind., in March.

DOVER

Mrs. J. W. Exon returned last Saturday from a ten days trip to Oswego.

Mrs. Geo. Kitzmiller is on the sick list.

A. E. Miller has gone to work in the logging camp at Deer Island.

Mrs. J. W. Miller and son, David, and Walter Kitzmiller, spent Sunday at J. W. Exon's.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves at the pie social.

The people at Dover got a good view of the comet Friday evening.

Mr. Ellis, who lives at Eagle Creek Falls, has two sick horses.

We will soon have a telephone in Dover.
