REV. VAN MARTER AWAKENS INTEREST

Large Crowds Turn Out to Hear Red Hot Sermons By the Evangelist.

The past week has been one of splendid meetings at the Methodist church. Rev. Van Marder has preached some red hot sermons which are awakening quite an interest, and while there have been but few pleasant evenings, the church is filled every night. Many are attending the afternoon meetings and the children's meetings every day after school are steadily growing. Last Sunday was a record day, starting with 109 at Sunday school. The day was almost a continuous meeting and the morning sermon was one long to be remembered.

Tonight the subject will be "Infidelity and its Causes." Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 a special meeting for women will be held, subject, "Girl, Maiden, Wife, Mother."

For Sunday the program is full of good things. Sunday school at 10, preaching at 11, Pentecostal service at 2:30, Epworth league at 6:30 and revival meeting, with singing, at 7:30. The evangelist's subject for Sunday morning is "The Inner Man and His Puzzle," for evening, "Is There a Hell, if so What is It Like?"

Never before has such clubbing combinations been offered as The Herald is offering. How is this? The Herald for one year, Farm Journal five years and Horse Secrets for $1.90.

FAIR DIRECTORS HOLD A MEETING

Fair Will Probably be Held at Earlier Date This Year To Avoid Cold Nights

The special meeting of the fair directors held Monday, took up the consideration of the premium list and date of the fair. The fair this year will probably be held from September 29 to October 2. This will continue the occasion over Sunday, having a good lecture. This will bring the fair two weeks earlier than last year, but it is hoped to escape the cold nights that were so unpleasant at a later date last year.

The secretary requested that he be allowed to publish a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the past year for the benefit of stockholders and others interested in the fair. This statement varies somewhat from an approximate one given in brief some time ago, but is believed to be practically correct. There are a few small outstanding accounts that have come in since January 1, that are not included. Three unpaid accounts will be noticed. These were left unpaid that a sufficient cash reserve might be maintained to meet certain obligations given to purchasers of stock. There is enough cash on hand to cover all indebtedness.

Horticulture Taken up at Grange Meet

Gresham Grange met Saturday afternoon, February 12. Eight candidates were given the first and second degree. Lecturer's hour opened with a violin solo by Mr. Fieldhouse. Worthy Overseer Mrs. Praelius of Milwaukie Grange gave a talk and a standing invitation to visit her Grange. Miss Fox spoke on library work and its needs. E. P. Smith read a paper on orchard and nursery work and gave illustrations as to the method of pruning and planting trees, which was interesting and instructive. Two new names were read and the meeting closed with a song by the Grange.

Joseph Russell Badly Injured

Sandy, Ore., Feb. 14.—Joseph Russell was accidentally struck in the head with an ax, used by Homer Williams, at the Johnson sawmill. The ax penetrated the skull exposing the brain and part of one ear was cut off. Although in this condition, he has not lost consciousness since the accident. Medical aid was quickly summoned and it is thought the patient will recover.

WELCHES

It has been snowing here for 24 hours straight but there is only about six inches of snow for it is melting fast.

Miss Dunham has returned from Portland and Oregon City and will immediately take up the routine school work.

Mr. Chapman is staying at Welches hotel. He has taken up a homestead northeast of Tollgate and intends making improvements as soon as the weather will permit.

Game wardens have been in this vicinity for the past week searching for evidence against a number of people who it is claimed killed an elk out of season. The wardens were armed with numerous search-warrants, and, although every cabin, building and outbuilding in this vicinity was entered and searched no conclusive evidence was found.

Mrs. Ed Roberts is spending a few days at Gresham the guest of friends and relatives.

Mr. Chester Shields, a popular young man of Portland, who has been a guest at the Howard home for some time, is recognized as chief among local comedians.

CHERRYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oaks are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son.

Mrs. Rugh spent Wednesday at the Cooper ranch.

Messlames Ware, DeGolia and Cooper made a horseback trip to Sandy last Tuesday.

Mrs. D. W. Douglas spent the week at Sandy visiting her sister Mrs. Ed. Revenue.

Mrs. Rugh gave a party for her Sunday school class last Saturday. The children were entertained with games and singing and at 2 o'clock were served with delightful refreshments. The occasion was a pleasant one and will long be remembered by the participants.

It is nearly time to begin spraying. It is to be hoped that this reminder will catch the eye of everyone who has a fruit tree in the West Hood district. Non-resident owners are urged to look over their property, cut down worthless trees and spray the rest. It is of great importance to newcomers who are putting out young trees not to have them exposed to the pests that linger in old orchards.

Miss Lucile Ewing is spending a few days in Cherryville the guest of Miss Constance.

POWELL VALLEY

A surprise was given last Saturday afternoon in the Mission church in honor of Jonas Nilson and E. Setterstrom, both prominent leaders of the Mission church. It was largely attended and a good time is reported.

The young ladies Dorcas society met with a good attendance last Saturday at the home of Mrs. John Lovgren. Rev. Nordling and S. M. Steffanson made speeches. Dainty refreshments were served.

Several people from here are in Portland this week attending the annual Columbia conference which closes Saturday night.

INTERESTING MEETING OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

Proposition on to Establish a Pasteurizing Plant Here--A Committee Appointed

An interesting meeting of the Gresham Commercial club was held last Tuesday evening. The announcement of action upon important matters pertaining to the town and community brought out a good attendance.

The annexation to Multnomah county of that portion of Clackamas county lying north of the Clackamas river was a subject that found a willing and hearty support. It was well considered in its relation to taxes, good roads, business, etc., and some who had opposed the plan in the past said they were ready to support it now. When put to a vote of the meeting, the motion that the club go on record as favoring the proposition, carried unanimously.

Gresham is in sore need of a better depot accommodation. It was stated the O. W. P. was soon to begin enlarging the present depot which is no ornament to the town. Gresham should have a new depot of an attractive design, in keeping with the growth and progress of the town. The town is not an experiment, neither is the railroad. Why should not this pretty, growing suburb of Portland have an attractive depot? Dr. A. Thompson, Chas. Cleveland T. R. Howitt were appointed a committee to take up the matter with the electric company.

The most important topic of the evening was a consideration of Mr. Spahn's plan for a milk depot and pasteurizing plant for Gresham. Mr. Spahn has been working this up for some time and came prepared to state what could be done and what was wanted. In substance his plan is to establish a choice dairy herd, with a modern barn with all sanitary conditions met. This product would be supplemented by milk gathered from farmers near the town. Part of the milk would be pasteurized and sold, two deliveries a day being made to a branch depot at Portland.

Mr. Spahn asked the town to furnish a suitable building for the pasteurizing plant, which he would lease for a number of years.

The president appointed E. Schwedler, Dan Metzger and T. R. Howitt as a committee to make some investigation and report at the next meeting to be held next Tuesday night.

Gresham Woman Wins Prize

The last meeting of the Montesano chamber of commerce was devoted to the selecting of a slogan for the town of Montesano.

The one selected, "Meet Success at Montesano" was sent in by Mrs. Belt of Gresham, who thus wins the first prize.

This is the first step in the publicity campaign just begun by the busy little city on Grays harbor, and for which a considerable amount of money has been raised.

House With a Double Piazza.

Design 927, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Although this house is of the square type, it has a distinction quite its own, mainly on account of the large piazza, built on two sides of the house. There is a splendid interior arrangement, comprising eight rooms, a bath, a small den or sewing room, as well as a large pantry and entry. There is a side entrance into the dining room. The first story is finished in red oak or birch and the second story in pine to paint. There are birch floors throughout. Size twenty-six feet wide by thirty-four feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $1,000.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 927 for $25.
