LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Ed Roberts is down from Welches visiting home folks.

Miss Daisy Smith has been quite sick with the grip but is now improving.

Miss Norma Handley entertained the Five Hundred club at the home of Mrs. H. E. Davis. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Townsend, Mrs. Dinger, Mrs. Ed Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis, Mr. Owens, Misses Lottie Davis, Bernice Gullickson and Norma Handley, Messrs. Loyd Schram, Chester Roberts, Con Siebert, John Burba and John Kellar, Con Seibert and Mrs. F. C. Hodge won the prizes.

If any of you are in need of some change, drop in and see our genial friend Emil Kardell of the First State bank, who no doubt will have stacks of cash coming his way at some very early date. Mr. Kardell has just been informed of a (would-be) friend who is in prison in Spain for having robbed a Russian bank of about $500,000 or so. This friend offers Mr. Kardell a clear $100,000 if he will make an effort by cable that will end in getting said friend out of the close quarters he now occupies. There is a young lady who is inconvenienced by her father's confinement and the effort to interest Mr. Kardell is largely in her behalf. Of course Mr. Kardell is an easy mark and such an appeal to one of a sympathetic disposition will likely (not) find its reward. Really this is not all a joke. But Mr. Kardell is too wise to waste time on such rare opportunities. We will give the proposition its full next week.

Mrs. Amber Leland of Portland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Shultz. The people who have been attending the afternoon meetings at the M. E. church report that Mr. Van Marter is a wonderful power in giving instructions how to live a christian life. Never have we listened to such exhortations.

John Conley is entertaining his brother, Mr. Conley from Eugene.

Mrs. J. D. Regner is again very ill, suffering another paralytic stroke. Her son Arthur of Seattle arrived home last evening and his wife is expected today.

The ladies of the locality have organized a home missionary society with Mrs. Backmeyer as president and Mrs. Tarr as secretary. They are ready to receive contributions for charitable purposes and any such may be conveniently left with the president.

Service at the Baptist church, Gresham, first and third Sundays of each month, morning and evening. J. O. Coleman, pastor.

The Columbia conference of Lutheran ministers and delegates from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia will dedicate a monument at the tomb of Dr. A. W. Williamson at Gresham, February 21 at 11 a. m.

Wm. Danielson will hold a sale next Monday at his place north of Orient hall, Pleasant Home. A list of his stock and implements will be found in his ad.

Harry King of Grass Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Voss Barnes of Montavilla, spent Sunday with Mrs. Browning.

M. F. Holiday of South Dakota, with his wife and daughter, is visiting with John Robinson and family.

Mr. Linney and other officials of the Mt. Hood line passed through here Friday morning inspecting the upper portion of their system of prospects.

Rev. Sam'l Bettis, now of Fairview, spent a few hours in Gresham Friday morning.

Mrs. Pitts is still very ill, but is reported as some better.

R. R. Carlson has been improving his furniture store property by finishing the upper story.

Merchants of the town are getting in their spring supply of goods in carload lots nowadays.

THE EMPIRE LINE

Another year has gone, and the beginning of 1910 shows the Empire to be in the lead as usual. The sale of Empire Cream Separators for 1909 was greater than ever, which fact is convincing proof of its merit and universal use.

We wish to thank all users of Empire machines for their very liberal patronage and beg to assure you as well as any others that we will continue to do the very best we can to please you and look after our machines and your needs.

It has been the policy of the Empire Cream Separator Company to make the best machine possible, one that would do close work, be easy to turn and clean, as well as simple and durable, and thousands of users can testify how well they have succeeded in this.

Our new catalogue will soon be ready for mailing and we have a few calendars left that we will be glad to mail to anyone filling in the coupon below. We wish all milkers of cows a Happy and Prosperous New Year.
