LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The Royal Rustlers club of the M. E. Sunday school will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Lloyd Metzger.

The subject tonight at the M. E. church is the "Modern Dance," tomorrow night "Hereditry." Interesting services will be held Sunday. Evangelist Van Marter will preach at 11 a. m. on "The Man Who Followed Afar," and at 7:30 on "The Great Judgment Day." There will be a meeting at 2:30 for men only. The Sunday school hour at 10 will be one of unusual interest to which all are invited. Good singing at all services.

A meeting of the prohibitionists will be held in Carlson's chapel tonight at 7 o'clock for the purpose of forming a local organization. If you are interested be sure to be there promptly. E. G. Eaton, county chairman, is in town and will be present to further the plans.

Mrs. Grace Cork returned early this week from a brief visit near Hillsboro and is spending a few days with friends in Gresham.

Rev. Sam Bettis and wife of Fairview were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr Thursday, while attending special meetings.

Mrs. H. P. Brightbill of Oregon City spent a few days this week with Mrs. J. N. Farris.

J. N. Farris returned last Friday from the Yakima country and has been laid up several days with rheumatism.

Mr. Butler of Fairview was in the city last Saturday and attended the meeting of the Ross Post G. A. R. of which organization he is a member.

Claude Stapleton was out from Portland Sunday and spent a few hours the guest of Jos. Pateneande.

Mrs. Laura Barnes came down from Boring this week and informs her friends that she has sold her property at that place and intends to move here, occupying her Hood avenue property.

W. Ellison of Fairview was a business visitor here Monday.

R. S. Ludlow, the Cleone nurseryman, made a business trip to this city Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Bradford, who has lived in Gresham for some time and who recently lost her husband, has decided to return to her old home in Parsons, Kan. She is selling most of her household effects and expects to leave in a short time.

The M. A. Ross Post G. A. R. held a regular meeting in the Grange hall last Saturday.

It is probable that Sunday will be the last day of the special meetings held at the Methodist church by Rev. Van Marter. The meetings have been well attended and there have been many conversions, while the whole christian community has been strengthened. Of course, the plain preaching has stirred up some opposition but there has been perfect harmony and unity on the part of all churches.

Fred W. Fehlbomme might have forgotten that February 22 was his birthday, had it not been that his relatives of the families of Arthur Fieldhouse, Mrs. Gullickson, Mrs. Wilkie came in and made the evening a surprise in several ways.

Mrs. Pitts is reported as being very ill.

Mrs. Grace Metzger has quit her school at Quincy and will be at home this spring.

Mrs. Grace Metzger will open up a new and complete line of Millinery this spring. Watch for the announcement of opening.

COTTRELL

Mr. Phipps bought a fine team of horses, a harness and wagon in Portland last week. He is having a large tract of land cleared preparatory to setting out a large orchard.

The 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Haveston, while playing with other children, was accidentally struck in the eye with a piece of steel. Dr. Davis of Sandy was called and it was found that the wound was not dangerous.

Paul Dunn, Ben Kiegel and Joe Albel loaded a car with potatoes last week.

Mrs. C. H. Edwards is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Dixon, at Portland this week.

At the meeting of the Odd Fellows Saturday evening it was voted that a Rebecca lodge would be organized in a short time.

The Catholic church has built a shed across the lot to stand horses in.

More snow and cold weather is the lot of our town.

Sandy has so many fire scares that a fire department is needed in case of a real fire.

William Stewart and sons J. L. and W. J. of Hood River have become interested in the land of this vicinity and are looking for farms upon which to raise fruit.

A Strong Argument.

Superlative quality of material and making of the P. & O. Buggies, Old Hickory Wagons, Superior Disc Drills, P. & O. Plows, Cultivators, Oliver Chilled Plows, Superior Disc Harrow on wheels, means satisfaction and economy to the user. Call for the above or anything in the implement, wagon and buggy line, at HESSELS, Gresham, and get satisfaction.

Why do we go to Mr. Hessel's store at Gresham? Why, because what we buy at his store is always good. He sells only reliable goods.

THE EMPIRE LINE

Another year has gone, and the beginning of 1910 shows the Empire to be in the lead as usual. The sale of Empire Cream Separators for 1909 was greater than ever, which fact is convincing proof of its merit and universal use.

We wish to thank all users of Empire machines for their very liberal patronage and beg to assure you as well as any others that we will continue to do the very best we can to please you and look after our machines and your needs.

It has been the policy of the Empire Cream Separator Company to make the best machine possible, one that would do close work, be easy to turn and clean, as well as simple and durable, and thousands of users can testify how well they have succeeded in this.

Our new catalogue will soon be ready for mailing and we have a few calendars left that we will be glad to mail to anyone filling in the coupon below. We wish all milkers of cows a Happy and Prosperous New Year.
