THIRTY YEARS A GRESHAM RESIDENT

Mrs. Julia Regner Dies Monday From Stroke of Paralysis—Funeral Wednesday.

Mrs. Julia Regner, for nearly thirty years a respected and useful resident of this community, passed to her heavenly reward Monday, February 28. January 24 she received a stroke of paralysis rendering her helpless, since which time she slowly declined until her death. Her husband and two living children were present during most of her sickness and at her death.

Mrs. Regner, whose maiden name was Louzell, was born in 1839 at St. Marys, Canada. She was married to Joseph D. Regner at Barre, Vermont in 1858. There were born to them four sons and two daughters. Those living are, Mrs. Hattie J. Cottrell of San Francisco, and Arthur W. Regner of Seattle. In 1870 the family moved to Iowa and in 1876 to Portland. Mr. Regner located a home-stand near Gresham in 1876 and this has been their home ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Regner have been identified with the town of Gresham for many years. Here they have had their residence and have made investments in property and buildings and have been substantial citizens. Deceased was a member of the Linneman Memorial Methodist church of this city and has been active in all of its work for years.

The funeral services were held Wednesday forenoon at the Methodist church, the service being preached by Dr. A. Thompson, for several years her pastor, and the interment took place at Logo Fir cemetery, Portland. There was a large attendance of friends and neighbors who mourn her departure and join in loving sympathy with the bereaved family.

Dance at Rockwood

Rockwood grange will give another of those popular dances Saturday evening March 5. Richards' orchestra will be there as usual and the supper will be one of the best. Everybody invited. Arrangements have been made with the young men's club of Pleasant home for the production of "Thompkins' Hired Man," on Saturday evening, March 12 at Rockwood grange hall. See handbills for further announcements of this interesting drama. 8-2

A Strong Argument.

Superlative quality of material and making of the P. & O. Buggies, Old Hickory Wagons, Superior Disc Drills, P. & O. Plows, Cultivators, Oliver Chilled Plows, Superior Disc Harrow on wheels, means satisfaction and economy to the user. Call for the above or anything in the implement, wagon and buggy line, at HENSEL'S, Gresham, and get satisfaction.

Successful Series of Meetings

The revival meetings at the M. E. church closed last Wednesday night with a well-attended service after full four weeks of continuous meetings. Although the large audience voted unanimously for the meetings to continue, Evangelist Van Marter and wife felt it imperative to get a few days rest before they begin meetings at Forest Grove next Sunday night. Mr. Van Marter promised to be present here next Sunday to preach the final sermon to the friends and those who became interested in the meetings.

Although the weather was most unfavorable during the entire time, yet night after night the church was filled with attentive audiences, and many will date a new and happier life from these meetings. Mr. and Mrs. Van Marter will be warmly welcomed whenever they visit Gresham. Mr. Van Marter has purchased some lots and intends to build a residence and make Gresham his headquarters and summer home, his work taking him to various parts of the state during most of the year.

A Piano Recital

A piano recital was given Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. E. Toepelman by her pupils. Those taking part were: Bessie Howett, Lucile Gedamke, Viola Dinger, Mural Heslin, Susie Stanley, Hester Thorpe, Rosa Luscher, Lily Luscher, Isabelle Metzger, Ethel Merrill, Jennie Metzger.

There will be a box social at the Cedar schoolhouse Saturday, March 12. Come and fish for a box, pie-eating contest and other amusements. Boxes 50c, children's 25c. Coffee 5c.

The finest line of spring oxfords, ladies' and gents', ever shown in the city may be seen at the leading clothing house in Gresham. Call around and see Ed Aylsworth and he will show you the goods. Those calling will be given a chance to watch the air-ship as it passes Gresham the first of the week.

A Horticultural Board

There has been some talk recently in this city by some of the leading citizens of establishing a horticultural board here for the benefit of Gresham and surrounding country. This move, if carried out, will prove of great importance. It should meet with general approval by the people as an organization of this kind working in conjunction with the state horticultural association would materially aid every fruit raiser in this vicinity.

Flying Machines at Portland

There will be a big Aviation Meet at Portland March 5, 6 and 7, which will be the first chance that has been given the people of this part of the country to see this actual marvel. People who talked of flying machines five years ago were considered dreamers, but it is guaranteed by the business men of Portland who are back of the flying machine meet that unless there is genuine cross-country and high altitude flights ticket money will be refunded. Chas. K. Hamilton, the daring aviator who, operating a Curtiss biplane, holds the world's records for high speed with a mile in 1:37, the world's slow speed which is more difficult, with a mile in 4 minutes, will try to take the high altitude record at the Portland meet. Because of the stillness of the air currents around Portland, he believes he can do this.

Among those who will have flying machines to take part in the contest are several Portland business men who have made recent purchases, and it is certain that the dates of the meet will contain many interesting features of what has been accomplished within the last few years in the manufacture of flying machines.

An Egg Symposium

A good many poultry raisers have contributed to the symposium that has been conducted by "Commercial Poultry." Each has his own ideas and his own methods. A brief resume includes the following practical rules for getting eggs in winter. Have good hens and stick to one pure breed. Do not mix breeds. Have the poultry house warm, light, dry, well ventilated and free from drafts.

Keep the houses clean and provide a dust bath. Keep the lice away. Do not startle or excite your fowls.

As to feeding the following directions are in general advised by all contributors:

"A variety of food, and especially that rich in albumen must be given. This ingredient is best supplied through some kind of meat food. Green cut bone with adhering meat and gristle, is one of the best forms of animal food, but it is difficult for a great many poultrymen to obtain. Therefore the majority of us must look to some of the commercial products now on the market to supply this want.

"I know of no other system of feeding which will more encourage winter egg production than the following: In the morning, as soon as the fowls are off the roosts, they should be given a light feed of warm mash, consisting of (three parts ground oats, two parts corn meal, one part wheat bran, one part wheat middlings, and one part animal meat. No more of this should be given than will be eaten quickly. Then scatter a few handfuls of oats, wheat and millet seed in the litter. This will keep them busy, and the exercise will assist in maintaining animal heat. At noon give a light feed of wheat in litter. At night give wheat and corn that has been warmed and all they will eat.

Supply plenty of green food, such as cabbage, roots, or other vegetables. Good grit should be kept constantly before them and water, slightly warmed, should be given twice a day.

Make your hens think it is summer; then they will lay as if it were.

SECTION LINE

The mother of John Moll, residing at 605 Karl street, Portland, was taken suddenly ill at her home February 19. Her physicians advised an immediate operation which was performed at the St. Vincent hospital. The case is very critical owing to the patient's age but she is doing nicely, exceeding even the hopes of the doctors in attendance.

Wilbur Thomas' health has been somewhat improved during the past winter.

E. E. Arnsperger was on the sick list last week caused from an attack of the grip.

The Misses Louise Wickline and Esther Minsinger of Portland were the guests of the McCartys for the week-end.

F. Jaeger returned home after a five months' trip to California where he has mining interests. He likes Oregon best.

F. Banett and wife entertained a number of guests in their temporary home—the former Carpenter place—several days the past week.

John Lynch is on the sick list.

NEW SIDEWALKS FOR GRESHAM

The Council Begins to Work On a Much Needed Improvement.

The Gresham town council had a busy session last Tuesday evening and undertook certain improvements which if backed up by the people will greatly add to the up-building of the town. Never has there been such a call for sidewalks as during this winter. The gravel walks, which probably were never meant to be more than temporary, have proven very inadequate. People have waded through the mud until in their desperation they have cried out for—Relief! And now they're about to get it.

Some will say, the winter is nearly over, and the walks are not needed. It is the usual experience, however, that considerable time is consumed in bringing about these improvements, and the council is wise in taking up this matter now so that the experience of this winter will not be repeated.

The council ordered the street committee, consisting of Councilmen Howitt, Kenney and Thomas, to make a thorough survey of the town and present to the council at the adjourned meeting next Tuesday night a recommendation as to where walks should be built and whether or not a certain district should be restricted to cement walks.

It is the intention of the council to pass the amendment to the sidewalk ordinance at the adjourned meeting, then order the walks, and give the opportunity for remonstrance against the location or kind of walks ordered. The proposed amendment to the ordinance will be the passing forever of gravel walks.

All councilmen were present with the exception of one, and the discussions were lively, showing that the council means business.

The council ordered the removal of the electric light from the alley on Fifth street, and placing the same on Powell street opposite the schoolhouse.

The ordinance authorizing sale of bonds for sewer purposes will come up at an early date, and also one providing for water bonds. When this is done the council can go to the Portland water board and show that the town is ready for water.

Wonderful Memories.

We are told that Pascal never forgot anything he had seen, heard or thought. Avicenna could repeat by rote the entire Koran when he was ten years old, and Francis Suarez had the whole of St. Augustine in his memory. In three weeks Scaliger, the famous scholar, committed to memory every line of the "Iliad" and the "Odyssey." Another scholar, Justus Lipsius, offered to repeat the "Histories" of Tacitus without a mistake on forfeit of his life.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mark Baxter is spending a week with relatives down on the Cowlitz.

George Bamford is moving back to his farm after a year's absence. Bruce Combs has gone to Eastern Oregon to spend the spring and summer among the farmers.

Grange met in an all-day session last Saturday. Three delegates were elected to attend the county grange convention, and W. N. Moore was chosen as a member on a committee to arrange for a program for the farmers' institute to be held in Gresham April 14, 15 and 16.

T. R. Berry left Tuesday for Willowa county, where he is interested in the development of a water power and lighting plant. Mr. Berry will be absent about ten days.

C. St. and son Gustaf are making preparations to go to Alaska for the summer. They intend to start for Seattle in a few days.

Ed. S. Kelly sold 30 acres of land to A. R. Miller of Portland.

Will Richey was in Portland on business last Wednesday.

G. N. Sager is back from the Sixprong country.

S. E. Charleson, a prominent real estate man of Portland, was a visitor here last week.

Frank Croncher is visiting relatives in Southern Oregon for a few weeks.

Death of Wm. G. MacKerrow

William Gordon MacKerrow, whose death occurred last Monday, was for nearly 20 years a well-known and respected resident of Orient. His death followed an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Wood at the Methodist church, Gresham, Wednesday afternoon and the burial was in the Gresham cemetery.

Deceased was born September 18, 1838 at Glasgow, Scotland. June 23, 1869, he married Frances Wiley at Robcaygeon, Canada. In 1891 the family moved to Oregon and settled near Orient. Mr. MacKerrow leaves a widow, six daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loved husband and father.

The children are: Mrs. Esther Manary of Portland, Mrs. Grace Stott of Gresham, Mrs. Beatrice Bixon of Portland, Mrs. Mary Edwards of Cottrell, and Miss Frances, Robert and Miss Anna.

Everyone joins in sympathy for the bereaved family.

SANDY

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Lane are visiting their daughter Mrs. Garrett of Barton.

The revival meetings which are being held by Rev. Ellis, assisted by Rev. Ed Smith of Lents, are being well attended. With this week the work will probably close.

Mrs. Gray has recovered from a severe illness. Mrs. E. Donahue of Boring was the guest of Mrs. Joe Donahue the first of the week.

Mrs. Hennessy is on the sick list. We are glad to report the rapid improvement of "Red" Russell and hope he will be able to return home in a few days.

Elijah Coleman acted as guide to a party of the Portland Ski club on a several days trip to Welches and Government camp. Geo Weber of Portland was a visitor here last Friday.

Mrs. Pitts Succumbs After Long Illness

One of the saddest losses that has fallen to the people of this locality for a long time, occurred Wednesday of this week by the death of Mrs. Silas Pitts, wife of Rev. Silas Pitts, a leading minister of the Free Methodist faith of this part of the state. Mrs. Pitts has been quite ill for several weeks, due to a complication of diseases, sometimes rallying, again given up as beyond all hope and again reviving. But the maladies were too deep seated and the best care possible could do little more than retard the approaching end, which came at last on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Laura Pitts was born in Plymouth, Iowa, 37 years ago. She united with the church when a child. She was married to Rev. Pitts when 16 years of age. The family moved to Oregon six years ago, locating in this county. Five children are left to share the sorrow of the father.

The funeral was held at Gresham Friday afternoon, Rev. Coffey delivering the address. Interment was made in the Gresham cemetery.

Rev. Pitts may feel assured that a very large circle of acquaintances extend to him their most profound sympathy in his sad bereavement.
