

A FEW CENTS INSURES YOUR STOCK

Prevention is better than cure. A few cents worth of Hygeno—that time tried, dead-sure, dip and disinfectant, not only insures your stock against all contagious diseases, but promptly rids them of all insect pests. Read what T. B. Pearson, Thornton, Indiana, Secretary-Treasurer, American Bureau Jersey Swine Breeders' Association says: "Hygeno is a money-saver and a money-maker—it saves loss from diseases and helps stock to bring great profit. At dealers, if yours can't supply you, send to us. Write for our valuable free book—'How to Raise Healthy Stock.' The Hygeno Disinfectant Co., 2001 Ave., Cleveland, O."

C. E. Cree has been elected councilman to fill the unexpired term of J. H. Schram who resigned on account of moving out of town.

Napoleon Davis has been selected as attorney for the town.

F. T. Axtell has recovered from his recent illness.

Arata Brothers are making a number of improvements on their farm.

A. W. Zimmerman is having his residence repaired and painted.

E. P. Smith's sons from Gresham had their buggy and harness badly broken up here Tuesday night while attending a lecture given by Rev. Sam Bettis in the M. E. Church. The horse became frightened at a passing train.

The Ladies society of the Smith Memorial church held their annual election of officers and served a ten-cent tea on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. O. H. Jenkins has returned from a short visit with her son Elmer and wife in Portland.

The Harvey family of Troutdale have rented and will occupy the T. J. Crute cottage.

W. J. Jungnickle has moved his family to their lately acquired home at Hubbard.

MELROSE

Among recent improvements we note that C. E. Fritz is building a large dairy barn and J. R. Cavanaugh is finishing a neat cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Tombling have moved to Amboy, Wash., to reside. Mr. Tombling has opened a meat market there.

The literary club gave a hard times social at Melrose farm last Friday evening. Music, games and an old fashioned candy pull were features of the pleasant evening.

Mrs. James Burns, Sr., returned from a week's visit with friends in Portland and Government Island.

Mrs. B. W. Grant and son Donald of Portland visited at Glenahler farm, while Mr. Grant was completing the work at Danmeier cottage at Gresham.

H. L. Louthit recently bought 20 acres of H. Filkins where he will reside after March 15.

Before leaving the Chapman place, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Douthet were given a pleasant surprise by their young married friends. Four tables of progressive pedro were played, followed by a splendid luncheon daintily served.

Entertainment at Fairview

An entertainment will be given by the Fairview Grange, Saturday evening, March 19, at the schoolhouse. Some very excellent outside talent has been secured. Come one and all. Admission 10c and 25c.

Many thoughtful people are subscribing for The Herald. $1.

TROUTDALE

Troutdale, March 9.—A number of men are at work on the county farm, clearing the grounds and getting them ready for buildings.

Mrs. David Wyatt, of Salem, was a guest of Mrs. L. Brink the first part of the week.

Mrs. R. E. Morse of The Dalles, with her small daughter, are guests of Mrs. L. Allard.

F. E. Harlow and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Scharf, Mrs. V. Stevens and son and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eaton were all Portland visitors Sunday.

F. D. Hubbard and family expect to leave the latter part of this week for their new home near Portland.

E. Mickley, H. Scharf, D. B. Griffith and Chester Stevens are among those who will go to begin their duties at the new packing plant next week. Their families will remain here until school closes.

H. Eckman and wife will move to Kenton. Mrs. Eckman is at present with her people at McMinnville.

Mrs. A. B. Kendall is spending some time with relatives in Portland.

Misses Georgia, Edith and Mabel Reynolds were out from Portland to spend Sunday with their parents.

Mr. Jones and family left last week for their new home near Oregon City.

Chas. Lewis is having the lots lying between his place and the carline cleared, which adds much to the looks of the place.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow entertained the Five Hundred club at her home on Saturday afternoon.

D. F. Buxton is still quite ill.

MARMOT

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Aschoff visited friends and relatives in Troutdale for a few days the past week.

Miss Eda Helms, who has been employed in Portland for some time, is visiting her parents here.

Mr. Donahue of Portland was a business caller recently.

Geo. Bechill has been spending a few days on his father's ranch.

The Misses Lura Haggerty and Minna and Mary Helms of Bull Run spent Sunday at the Helms home.

A most enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Helm last Saturday evening for their daughter, Miss Eda. The young people enjoyed dancing, music and cards until the wee sma' hours and say that few parties have been more successfully carried out.

POWELL VALLEY

The young ladies' Dorcas society will meet at the home of C. P. Johnson, Saturday, March 12, at 2 p. m.

A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson on their return from Aberdeen, Wash. When they reached their home they found it lighted up and all of their friends in the neighborhood gathered there to give them a hearty welcome. A splendid luncheon was spread in the dining-room and a good time was had.

Rev. B. Thoreen of Portland preached in the Swedish Mission church last Sunday.

A. Peterson and family who have been staying in California for three years have returned to their home here where they will soon build a modern residence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bottelson entertained number of friends and relatives at dinner Sunday.

Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had not been given him this remedy." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

A Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected in less than one week's time and in many cases within three days. Sold by Gresham Drug Co.

CORBETT

The Columbia river is booming these days.

The Wind River Lumber company had about five hundred logs swept away by the high waters and for several days last week the river here was filled with logs and drift. The Reed boys caught about two hundred logs and turned them over to the Wind River Lumber company.

Mr. Fleury of Portland was looking after property interests here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor went to Portland on Monday.

The Seventh Day Adventists are clearing ground preparatory to building a church.

At the meeting of Columbia Grange P. of H. No. 267, Saturday, March 5, James Pounder was elected master in place of Roy Mershon resigned. Mrs. C. E. Smith refused to be installed as lecturer and Mrs. Woodward was elected to fill the vacancy. There was a good attendance. Messrs. Rasmussen, Geo. Knierim and F. N. Lasley were elected as delegates to the county convention at Gresham, March 12.

Miss Lilly Rasmussen returned from Portland Saturday.

F. E. Reed moved his family out from Portland on Friday, and will occupy the rooms fitted up over the warehouse.

Mrs. Sarah Kincaid went to Astoria to visit her daughter.

Wilbur Evans has rented the Chas. Smith farm and has taken possession.

GATES CROSSING.

Mr. Savage sold his property here last week to a Mr. Myers from Portland.

Guy Cole is able to be out once more after quite a severe sickness.

Mr. Oldenburg and his sons Louis and Frank have returned from eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Morris of Portland visited Mrs. C. H. Benedict this week.

Mrs. J. T. Delk of Wichita was here on Thursday calling on friends.

Resolution.

Whereas, The great and supreme Ruler of the universe has in his infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed fellow laborers, Otto McFarland; and Whereas, the long and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this society makes it eminently fitting that we record our appreciation of him; therefore,

Resolved, That wisdom and ability which he has exercised in the aid of our organization by service, contributions and council, will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this organization, and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled for the good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record of this organization, a copy printed in the local paper and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

E. C. OTT, Chairman,
F. E. HARLOW,
PAT MCGURRIN,
Committee.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

POINTER ON ADVERTISING.

Merchant Devises Clever Card System Which Brings Local Trade.

A merchant of Oklahoma has put into operation a clever advertising scheme for building up home trade which he reports a valuable one, and, according to him, without any drawbacks. It is as follows:

He prepares a large number of cards, which are numbered consecutively. A set of these he gives to each customer who desires them. These ten cards the customer is supposed to distribute, and the persons who receive them are to return them to the store. If they do so and purchase $5 worth of goods at the time of returning them the party first receiving the cards is entitled to receive $5 worth of goods free of charge.

The merchant claims for the scheme that he secures a valuable and accurate mailing list; he gets advertising matter distributed free of charge; he gets strong recommendation for his store at the hands of his customers, even though it be for self interest alone; he runs no risks, for the cards must be returned and placed on file after purchases before the gift is made; an endless chain feature is established thus which perpetuates itself for a considerable time, for when one customer sees another getting something for nothing through those efforts he is inclined to try for himself.

In reply to the wonder expressed that he could afford to give $5 away out of the profits on $50 worth of business he replies that he has not found it necessary to do so very often. Comparatively few customers are able to find ten others who will buy $5 worth of merchandise and present the card. But almost everybody will distribute them, and the returns are considerable. If but one comes and buys it is a good and legitimate gain for the merchant. If four come, it is good; if nine come, so much the better, and if ten come, then he is willing to pay that much for the sake of the gain. He figures that, instead of having to pay $5 for every $50 taken in he pays but about 50 cents. He regards this as reasonable enough.

Writing For Money.
Fond Father—Yes, my boy at the varsity has written several articles for the magazines.
Friend—But he's not a professional writer, surely?
"What do you mean by 'professional'?"
"Why, he doesn't write for money?"
"Doesn't he?" You ought to see some of his letters to me!"—Exchange.

Possibly True.
Mamma (to a friend who is lurching with her)—I don't know why it is, but I always eat more when we have company than when we're alone. Tommy (helping himself to the third piece of cake)—I know why it is; 'cause we have better things to eat.—Brooklyn Life.
