LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Gardening is the order of the day in Gresham. Nearly everyone has put in early garden, many have planted early potatoes. New lawns have been seeded and a general tendency is shown to beautify the home grounds.

The people are getting insistent to have the streets, alleys and open places in the town cleaned up and a general beautifying campaign begun. The ladies are at the bottom of the movement and have suggested the Saturday before Easter as a tag day or clean up day. One thing is certain, you'll hear from the women and had better get busy. They even threaten to demand the clearing away of lumber piles, rubbish, etc., from the streets and various obstructions from the sidewalks.

Mr. and Mrs. Daves from Wisconsin are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kane.

Archie Cornutt leaves today for Riddle, Ore., where he expects to make his home.

Wm. Ginder, who has a barber shop on Hawthorne avenue, visited the home folks one day this week.

The Herald for one year, and Farm Journal five years and Horse Secrets for only $1.90. Horse Secrets alone is worth a dollar to any man.

Never before has such clubbing combinations been offered as The Herald is offering. How is this: The Herald for one year, Farm Journal five years and Horse Secrets for $1.90.

Why He Cried. The sympathetic neighbor asked: "Is your little brother ill this morning, Johnnie? I heard him crying in the most heartrending manner."

"No; not exactly," Johnnie explained, "but Willie pulled down a jug of molasses on himself in the pantry, and mother has been trying to comb his hair."—Exchange.

Livingstone. Of Dr. Livingstone it was said by Stanley that the missionary lived for years among the most cruel and ignorant savages in the world, but he never fired a shot in anger, never "clubbed or clouted or barked or blasted."

His manner was that of a "cool, wise old man who felt offended and looked grave."

Circumstances Reversed. Unkempt Smith—Mister, would you kindly help a poor man as is all in, down and out? Jocular Citizen—Why, certainly. Just climb the fire escape on that skyscraper across the street and walk in on the top floor. Then you will be all out, up and in.—Judge's Library.

It's Good Point. "But," asked the long haired young man, "is there nothing at all about poetry that you like?"

"Yes," replied Crabbe. "Whenever I see a poem it makes me feel good to realize that there's no law to compel me to read it."—Catholic Standard and Times.

No grip is so hard to shake off as that of early convictions.—Maurice Thompson.
