AT LENTS For Dry Goods, Groceries, and Light Hardware. Foster Road and Main St.

MOUNT SCOTT

Mrs. William Holt of Wilhoit Springs is visiting her sister, Mrs. Trust.

E. L. Rayburn has been kept at home for a few days with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wickam are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

E. P. Smith, who located last year on route 1, Gresham, has purchased property a half mile north of Lents on Main street.

Ray Fairbanks spent the latter part of the week with home folks. Ray is attending school at Corvallis.

Talk of a new three-story brick $25,000 brick on the site of the Hedge building, now occupied by the hotel and bank.

M. A. Rodgers and wife are the proud parents of a fine girl baby born Thursday.

Miss Gladys McSloy has completed her course as a nurse and is at her home in Lents now.

MONTAVILLA

A new business house has been opened on the Base Line road. Messrs. Morton and Murphy of Russellville have opened an egg and milk depot which seems to be well patronized.

Montavilla is daily receiving new additions to its bill boards, which, while a disfigurement, conceal some very unsightly spots.

One of the best attended meetings of the Montavilla Home Training association held this year was the one at the schoolhouse last Friday afternoon. No formal address was given, but instead there was a very interesting program by the school children.

Another large real estate transfer of Montavilla property took place last week. The Thomas farm on the Base Line road was sold to W. L. Hawkins for the sum of $82,000.

W. E. Lewis is erecting a two-story brick building on the corner of East 7th and Stark streets. The building will cost about $9000 and when completed will probably be used as a theater.

News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. L. Smith on Tuesday morning. She was Miss Marie Faber of this suburb. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her parents and sister, Miss G. Faber, a husband and twin babies, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

The recent contest conducted by the Rose Association was the means of providing a great many lawn with choice new rose bushes. Miss Mabel Hill won the first prize of $4. The other prizes were not awarded as there were no contestants for them.

Easter services will be held in all the churches on next Sunday. In the M. E. church an Easter program will be rendered in the evening, while at the Ascension, Grace Baptist and Presbyterian churches appropriate sermons will be delivered.

W. J. Hooker is still in the Good Samaritan hospital very ill.

Mr. Redmond has gone to the Hot Springs for the benefit of his health.

Among those of our citizens who have recently purchased lots in Goodhue Park, the former Sullivan tract, are Leander Lewis, who will erect a business building, and F. R. Burdette who expects to build a residence.

Mrs. Saylor Smith gave a card party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, cousins who have just arrived from the East. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop have disposed of their interests at Woodstock, Ill., and expect to remain in Oregon. They go to Medford for a visit with relatives. They are very favorably impressed with Portland and vicinity and will probably purchase a home near the city.

Never before has such clubbing combinations been offered as The Herald is offering. How is this: The Herald for one year, Farm Journal five years and Horse Secrets for $1.00.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Ed Smith is building an addition to his house on Main street.

Fred Howitt spent a few hours in Gresham Thursday afternoon.

Will Hockinson will occupy Miss Rowley's house on Roberts avenue.

A number of Hood River people have been looking at Gresham property this week.

E. Barnett, whose family has occupied the Culy cottage on Powell street will soon move to Sandy.

Fred Fieldhouse, Emil G. Karkell and others will make a trip to Cascade Locks on Sunday by way of the North Bank road.

Wm. Kerr and wife of Hood River are visiting with S. S. Thompson and desire to purchase a small tract near Gresham.

H. G. Harmon was in early this week and spoke for The Herald for two years in advance. This sort of faith in the home paper is encouraging.

John and Jas. Preston of Duluth, after a trip through the south and California, spent Thursday in Gresham, looking over property in company with Fred Fieldhouse.

A leak in the pipeline in the west part of town caused considerable trouble this week. It was finally stopped with the assistance of a number of men in charge of Mr. Maupin.

Wallula Heights is reaching for more light. A delegation visited Portland on Friday for the purpose of getting agreeable terms with the P. R. L. & P. Co. for wiring and electricity.

Jas. Steel, state bank examiner, and Mr. Bennett, his assistant, paid the First State Bank a visit a few days ago. The bank was commended for the fine lot of small loans it carries.

C. J. Swanson, lately from No. Dakota, who has been looking for a location, has made two trips up the Willamette Valley but says that he can find nothing that looks as good as the country surrounding Gresham.

Geo. Kenney is supervising the filling of the gravel pit on Powell Valley road west of Linnemann. This will be a valuable improvement as by caving in the roadway was in a dangerous condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shelley of Marmot made a call at The Herald office on Thursday morning. Mrs. Shelley is an old acquaintance of Mr. Darnall, having been associated with him in school work several years ago.

An interesting Easter program will be given during the Sunday school hour on Sunday morning at the M. E. church. All scholars and teachers are invited to come fifteen minutes before 10 and bring flowers. At 11 o'clock the pastor will preach an Easter sermon.

The G. H. S. ball team went over to Troutdale on Friday for a practice game and won from the Troutdale huskies 6 to 2. The team showed up well considering the amount of practice. The first inning was pitched by Thompson who allowed two runs. Rauw then went in and allowed two runs in five innings. Lynch finished the last two innings. Three substitutes were tried out and all showed up well.

The First State Bank sold last week the A. E. Craft place about three miles southwest of Gresham. The farm consists of 114 acres and was bought by W. F. Garrison and G. M. Laughlin of Salina, Kan. Mr. Garrison has already taken possession and will immediately erect buildings fronting on the Foster road near the schoolhouse. Mr. Laughlin will occupy the present buildings on the place. The farm is one of the best in Clackamas county and Kansas thrift was not long in finding it out.

Fred Lantz has made the Odd Fellows hall a very beautiful and attractive place by tinting the walls and painting the woodwork.

Special meetings are in progress at the Free Methodist church. The stirring sermons by Evangelist Dewey should be heard by every one.

Gresham Odd Fellows are preparing to have the biggest time of the year on Saturday evening, the occasion being the date of a visit from a team from Orient Lodge of Portland, and the initiation of several candidates from this place and Rockwood. A big attendance is expected and a banquet is in the program.

A Strong Argument.

Superlative quality of material and making of the P. & O. Buggies, Old Hickory Wagons, Superior Disc Drills, P. & O. Plows, Cultivators, Oliver Chilled Plows, Superior Disc Harrow on wheels, means satisfaction and economy to the user. Call for the above or anything in the implement, wagon and buggy line, at HESSEL'S, Gresham, and get satisfaction.
