Enlargement of Cotton Residence

One of the largest improvements now being made in the county is being made on the Cotton farm near Gresham. H. E. Davis has been busy since last October preparing and building to the house that already graced the hill an additional suite of rooms, for the convenience of Mr. Cotton and his family, who will occupy them as soon as completed.

The addition includes all the features of a new home, parlors, dining-room, kitchen, bedrooms, bath, and other conveniences that have escaped our memory. An upper window opens out on the roof where a little observatory will be built. From this point one of the finest views of the valley and the country to the east will be afforded that can be found anywhere. All the inside finish is of the latest pattern, the rooms are large and supplied with closets and shelving and every device to add to the comfort of the owner. When completed it will be lighted with electricity, piped with water from their own plant, and and altogether will be the most complete and largest building in eastern Multnomah.

Taxpayer Praises the Schools

Gresham, March 24, 1910.—To the Editor Beaver State Herald: Dear Sir: It gives me much pleasure to bear testimony to the fact that during the past year the members of the board of directors of School District No. 28, on the Section Line road, they have performed their duty well in every particular where their services were needed, and they all work in harmony and for the best interest of the district, which meets with the approval and approbation of the citizens of the entire community.

I find the schools are well equipped with writing material, also supplied with competent teachers, all for the better education of its pupils at the present time. No ill feeling is known. The Buckley school was paid for and some furnishings supplied, and the Lynch school was repaired and painted. The schools are second to none for the size of the district, and may the good work keep on.

A TAXPAYER.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Rose Caroline Dickenson, who after 24 years of suffering fell asleep in Jesus at her home near St. John's, Oregon, March 19, 1910.

She was born at Rockwood, Oregon, April 24, 1885, and lived there till four years ago when she moved to St. John's, Oregon, with her mother and brothers. During her twenty-four years of suffering she bore her pain as uncomplainingly as is possible for mortal and she is now at rest and is waiting at the right hand of God for her loved ones to come.

Mourn not, loving mother,
For her sufferings are o'er
And she's resting, safe in Jesus,
On that happy, golden shore,
Weep not, brothers, cousins,
Though she's on earth no more,
Let us strive to meet her
Where we sin and sigh no more.

Talk things over with the hired man; it will help both him and you.

Many of the troubles that you see coming down the road toward your farm pass right by without stopping.

CLIMB UP

Several months ago we were asked by an office of a corporation to name a young man that was taking care of his money. We did so. That man has a good position now.

The officer explained to us that he hired a good many men and that it made no difference what class of work they were doing the man that took care of his money was worth more than the one that did not. That in times of depression when it was necessary to reduce the force the man who had taken good care of his money was retained while the man who had been careless but really needed the money was the man they were obliged to let go.

The Bank Book has obtained and held positions for many men. It is well to get acquainted with a bank.

ROCKWOOD

John Brown made a business trip out through Clackamas county on Friday and Saturday. He reports conditions generally as very favorable.

Wm. Childer's has found a buyer for his five acre tract for $500 an acre.

Miss Sodie Stanley is still quite sick.

The children of the M. E. Sunday school will give an entertainment on Friday evening under the direction of officers and teachers.

The little son of Jas. Schram is very sick.

Mrs. Christina Johnson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Powers, for a short time.

Geo. Brown will leave for eastern Oregon soon.

The dance here last Saturday night was well attended. Neil Taylor, formerly of Rockwood, now of Estacada, was down greeting old friends.

B. F. Powers is expecting his brother, George, to arrive from South Dakota soon.

While out riding Sunday afternoon, Earl Middleton and Miss M. Prettyman had their buggy badly smashed by an auto. Both occupants were thrown out but escaped with slight bruises.

Considerable clearing is being done in this vicinity.

CEDARVILLE

D. McMillan has sold his place for four thousand dollars. He intends to move to Russellville or vicinity.

A. Cornutt is enjoying himself in southern Oregon where he intends to spend the summer.

Young Mr. Steele is setting out his place in young trees.

George Bornstedt, Jr., has been quite sick at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ruegg.

The Wegman's intend to spend the summer here.

People here are gratified to see the old gravel pit, bought by the county years ago of Mrs. E. Giese, is being filled up. These old gravel pits are homely spots.

KELSO

M. C. Donahue has bought John Anderson's mill.

Mrs. Hulda Rath of George was a guest of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Sindall, Easter Sunday.

Henry Ridderbusch, working in the woods at Jonsrud's mill, met with a severe accident on Monday. The ax he was using glanced and struck him in the instep, cutting a deep gash. He will be laid up for some time.

WELCHES

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bartman returned to Welches after their wedding in Oregon City, March 22. Mrs. Bartman was Mrs. Eleanor Gillett. Mr. B. now has the unfailing smile.

Frisby Maulding is spending a few days with his father, J. W. Maulding.

Mrs. Chapman is spending a few days at La Casa Monte. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman expect to make this part of the state their home in the near future.

Shattuck sells the best $1.50 hat for men ever shown.

Farmers' Institute at Gresham

The coming Farmers' Institute offers the best thing of an educational nature that has come to Gresham for a long time. The session will extend over three days and will begin each morning and close at the end of an evening session.

Besides the regular institute work, several of the local Granges will demonstrate the degree work and thus make the session of direct value to grangers.

We have included a full program in this issue and it will be seen at once that we are to be served with an intellectual treat that has rarely had its equal. Let every farmer in the country so arrange his dates that he may be able to take in the entire proceedings.

Doctor Leaves Sandy under Suspicion

The village of Sandy is being shaken from end to end by a very unusual excitement. For several months the town has enjoyed the distinction of having a real live doctor. He started in by painting the town red, that is, by painting his nose red and of course everything else looked red to him, having to see through the reflections cast from that rosy luminary. But the town would not stand for it, so the doctor sobered up and has been on exemplary conduct (for him) until the last week.

About last Tuesday evening the doctor forgot himself so far as to take advantage of his professional title to perform an operation that shocked the town. To show him how wide awake the citizens were, a crowd was quickly organized and the doctor got a charivari.

The atmospheric conditions next day seemed to have suggested trouble to him. He quietly packed his case Thursday morning, took the walk for Eagle Creek to see a patient and has not returned. Sandy is looking for another doctor, a good live, clean, sober, clean-mouthed, respectable, trustworthy man with whom it will be safe to trust a child without an armed parent in the background.

The doctor probably went when he could since it is suggested another day's delay might have brought on a case of confinement that would not have been profitable to that individual's bank account.

LUSTEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolfhagen who have been staying with Ralph Neibauer for the past two months, started Saturday for eastern Oregon where he is engaged as wool tier for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Somerseld of Illinois have arrived at the home of Ed Sester. They have bought a farm here and expect to make this their home.

Miss Jessie Dennis, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Oregon and Washington for the past six months, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamilton last week, and started on Thursday for her home at Albion, Neb.

Mrs. Arnold Ruegg gave tea last Thursday to the Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church. There was a good attendance.

A Strong Argument.

Superlative quality of material and making of the P. & O. Buggies, Old Hickory Wagons, Superior Disc Drills, P- & O. Plows, Cultivators, Oliver Chilled Plows, Superior Disc Harrow on wheels, means satisfaction and economy to the user. Call for the above or anything in the implement, wagon and buggy line, at HESSEL'S, Gresham, and get satisfaction.

Gresham Odd Fellows Celebrate

Gresham Odd Fellows celebrated in fine style last Saturday evening. Considerable preparation had been made and the many visitors will recall the visit for a long time as one of the best things within their memories. Invitations had been sent to several of the neighboring lodges and good-sized delegations were present from Rockwood, Fairview, Boring, Sandy and a few from Lents. Orient lodge of Portland sent about 40 and degree teams came with them. The first degree was put on in fine form, five candidates being shown the mysteries of the degree. After this feature of the program was over the guests were invited down to the dining hall and served coffee, cake and other luxuries. 12:30 was well past before the evening's festivities were over and the happy crowd homeward bound.

CHERRYVILLE

Geo. Flynn is visiting at the home of Mrs. Douglass.

Mrs. Marston is on the sick list.

The Easter services at the church were well attended. The church was tastefully decorated with ferns, daffodils, lilies and narcissus. This was in charge of the Misses Friel. Miss Ewing and Mrs. Couper had drilled the children in a program of appropriate music, songs and recitations, which were well rendered. The opening number, in which the children, dressed in white, entered the church, singing and carrying long sword ferns arched above their heads, was especially appropriate and beautiful.

L. J. Kanney has returned from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. Chas. Rugh and little daughter, of Portland, are guests of Mrs. W. O. Rugh.

Dewey Barchorr is visiting L. F. Pridemore.

The contest of Mr. Edgerton and Mr. Pridemore on their homesteads is set for April 26.

A basket social will be given by the school at the schoolhouse on Saturday evening, April 9. The proceeds are to be used in buying books for the school library.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Eby recently passed their 50th wedding anniversary. Their family numbers seven children, 26 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. The fact that they are some distance from their old home made it impossible for them to have a formal celebration, but the day was remembered by a large number of friends and relatives who sent gifts and a large number of postcard greetings.

Chickens that lay around almost any where sometimes are merely emulating their betters.

Metzger--Exley Nuptials

Wednesday evening, March 30, will be memorable in the family of Henry Metzger for the marriage of their daughter, Florence Pearl, to Jos. Exley, of Portland. About 65 of the relatives and friends were present at the wedding which was held at the bride's home, Rev. Alex. Beers, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony, and Wm. Metzger, a brother, presenting the bride. A splendid banquet was served after which the young couple left for Portland by auto. Many valuable presents were given and the good wishes of a large circle of relatives and friends were showered upon them.

You want the Normal School question separated from politics. That is what the Initiative Bill does for Monmouth. This is your opportunity to keep it always separate. The State educates her lawyers, farmers, doctors, pharmacists, etc., why not her teachers. We must have schools. The better trained the teacher, the better school and more intelligent service the child gets. Vote, yes, for Monmouth. 15

Stumping Powder

Dupont's low freezing improved stumping powder needs no introduction to powder users. 108 years on the market. It will not freeze, will not cause headache, but it will blow stumps. Beware of cheap imitations that may be offered at higher prices by unscrupulous dealers. Our buying in carload lots enables us to name you the right price. We are not curbstone dealers, but selling the best powder, caps and fuse we can buy, is part of our business.

Don't think the old orchard is past hope. If to thick, thin out the trees. Clean out all bad limbs, spray and cultivate. Feed plenty of stable manure and, my word for it, in nine cases out of ten, the old orchard will pay for itself ten times over. Take care of it, be good to it, it pays.
