LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Carl Shattuck has sold his house and lots in Regner's Addition.

D. S. Johnson has moved into his bungalow on Roberts avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crenshaw are rejoicing over the birth of a baby boy.

Ben Mathews is in eastern Oregon where he is thinking of going into business.

Vernie Lantz, recently from Molalla, is helping his uncle, F. M. Lantz, in painting.

Mrs. Thos. Ginder, who has been very sick for the past week, is now considerably better.

Miss Ella Merrill is employed at Daventport-Thompson's commission house on Front street.

Chas. Oliphant has bought the H. L. Ball place and will move to the same in the near future.

Chas. Bauer has just sold a ten-acre farm on the Section Line west of Gresham for $600 an acre.

Thompson & Fleming, who are to run a transfer and livery business, have put on a large covered van for transfer work.

John S. Burns of Beaver Creek locality was doing business in Gresham one day this week and spoke for The Herald for a year.

J. N. Faris has moved to his farm a half mile north of town. The family will live in tents while their house is being built.

Mrs. Hoss is steadily gaining in strength and is able to sit up some. She will probably be able to leave the hospital soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Larson went last Saturday to Battleground, Wash., to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Larson's brother, Peter Onsdorf.

D. M. Roberts has returned from his trip into central Oregon. He, with S. E. Roberts and W. N. Brown, will act as locators for The Spanton Company of Portland.

W. P. St. Clair of Crystal Lake, Ill., has been the guest of his nephew, H. L. St. Clair, this week. He is touring the Coast from Los Angeles to Seattle and, while enjoying the warmer climate farther south, thinks there is no location more promising of future development than this.

The funeral of Wm. New will be held in Portland, Saturday, April 9th. Mr. New was one of the pioneers in the country east of Gresham. He leaves a wife, three sons and three daughters. His death must have occurred some time ago. He left home in Portland in February and the body was found this week near the Columbia Slough. No cause can be given for his death or disappearance.

Gresham Grange will meet on Saturday. A special paper will be presented by Dr. Belt on Preventable Diseases, and Extermination of the Fly. H. E. Davis will discuss The Cow from the Dairyman's Standpoint. Mrs. J. W. Shattuck will present a paper on Dooryards, and Mrs. Ed Sleret will tell about the Leak in the Kitchen Pocket Book.

D. J. Culy possesses a sample of youthful precocity that should be worth the attention of everyone interested in the poultry business. One of his spring hatch, a cross between Buff Rock and Buff Leghorn, at 12 days old announced his ambition by crowing, not only once but several times, and this on successive days. Mr. Culy does not wish to be wholly responsible for this remarkable story so he states that he can furnish witnesses to the fact, if there are any doubters. He has been breeding this strain for several seasons and the early maturity of the stock is one of its remarkable features.

That merchant, who is determined that his advertising shall be the best in town, is "in the race," whether he realizes his ambition or not.

New line of stationery just in.

Salt as a Medicine.
I have in the past seven or eight years found the advantage of putting a little salt in all the water I drink. I also put a little salt, with sugar and milk, in every cup of tea, coffee or cocoa I use.

I have been a resident in the tropics for over forty years and except for a sprained ankle have not had occasion to call in a doctor or to take any medicine in the last thirty years. I believe every one's health in the tropics would be very much better if he used more salt. I find the benefit of drinking a tumbler of cold water with a little salt in it every morning on rising at about 5 o'clock, before my bath or cup of cocoa, which I usually take between 5:30 and 6.

If people could be induced to try the easy and cheap method of taking a little common salt with the water they drink they would in the generality of cases find that they would seldom require other medicine.—F. N. Burn in Chambers' Journal.

Poisonous Gas Geysers.

In the midst of the great faunal wilderness near Nairobi, Africa, is a big blowhole in the earth issuing poisonous gases. Surrounding this hole for many yards are piled bones of dead animals poisoned by this gas geyser. Dogs dragged by ropes over the hole were killed in less than a minute. The gas has been found to be hydrochloric, coming from some volcanic depth. The death trap has been fenced and billed with warnings.—New York Press.

Sprinkling a Trestle.

A wooden trestle on the Klamath Lake railroad, in Oregon, is protected from fire in the dry season by a system of sprinklers which keep it continually wet. A pipe runs the entire length of the trestle between the tracks, and at short distances are holes through which the water is sprayed over the structure.—Popular Mechanics.

No Use.

"You say Jones is down and out? Why, it was only a little while ago that he told me he had the key of success."

"He did, but the poor fellow wasn't able to find the keyhole."—Exchange.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 15th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson of Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better and on the fifth day, Oct. 23, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the safest, surest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

The store that does not advertise probably hasn't anything to advertise that would stand the "advertising test" as to values, etc.

Shattuck sells lime and sulphur spray.
