

MOUNT SCOTT

Mrs. Max Meyers and Sons have returned from Corvallis where the boys have been attending school.

Messrs. Oak and Scott are new arrivals in town, coming from Ontario, Canada. They will work on the new schoolhouse.

This week saw the climax of affairs between our market men. Love & Housely have sold out and Duke Bros. and Mortrade have aired their differences in court, much to the latter's advantage. Business will now move in more quiet channels for a time.

Voters in the Lents precinct will register at the Mt. Scott Real Estate office.

The New Method laundry opened up for business last Monday. It is well equipped and under the management of an experienced man and will be a great help to the town.

From the carloads of new furniture arriving in town it is evident that a lot of new people are coming in and that many new improvements are being made in the homes.

Lents still is in need of a new freight station. Scarcely a day passes that several pieces of freight are not left exposed to the weather and chance of being carried away. It does seem that the town is somewhat neglected by railway officials.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnall and daughter Stella, of Buffalo, Kans., arrived Saturday for a visit with relatives in Oregon and Washington.

Ralph Hoagley has been removed from the hospital to Fred Butterfield's. Ralph is recovering from an attack of typhoid.

Lents public schools won the A. B. Manley cup for having the greatest number of pupils in the parade Friday last. Two hundred and nineteen pupils or 37 per cent. of the attendance was in line. Montavilla came next with 198.
