30 Head of Horses

Ed Smith will have in Gresham on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 22, 23 and 24, about 30 head of horses, broken and unbroken, weighing from 800 to 1200 pounds.

Mid-Summer Dance at Rockwood

Rockwood grange will give its usual mid-summer dance Saturday evening, July 23. Richard's orchestra will be there and with another of those famous grange suppers and popular prices there will be the customary large attendance and a good time for all.

The Hat Straw Crop.

The greater part of the straw employed for making summer hats comes from Italy. To obtain a suitable straw for this purpose the wheat is sown as thickly as possible in order that the growth of the plant may be impoverished as well as to produce a thin stalk.

The Languages of Paradise.

Every language has its admirers. In "Lucile" the author, Owen Meredith, maintained that when he heard French spoken as he approved he "found himself quietly falling in love."

Taste is Localized.

Taste is curiously localized in the mouth. Put a lump of sugar on the tip of your tongue and you will find it distinctly sweet. Then try it halfway back on the tongue and you will find it tasteless.

Wrestling For Rent.

In several cantons of Switzerland the custom prevails of holding wrestling matches and other exhibitions of physical strength at their choral, gymnastic and rifle festivals.

A Henpecked Astrologer.

Lilly, the astrologer and alchemist, could not see for himself sufficiently far into that future which he professed to be able to scan so clearly for others to guard him against making a fool of himself by marrying.

Matrimonial Dyspepsia.

"Well, how do you like married life?" inquired the friend. "Not at all," replied the man who had married money and was suffering for it.

His Deduction.

The Sunday school teacher had just explained to the juvenile class that the first parents were made from dust. "Now, Edgar," she said to a bright little fellow, "can you tell me who the first man was?"

As to Truth Telling.

There is an eastern saying which runs: "It is good to know the truth and to tell it. It may be better, knowing the truth, to talk of date stones."

As Bill Nye Saw It.

Bill Nye described a five shot Colt's revolver as "Professor Colt's five volume treatise on the ventilation of the human system."

His Suggestion.

Wigwag—I never knew such a fellow as B Jones. He is always looking for trouble. Henpecked—Then why doesn't he get married?—Boston Courier.

Ready For the Next One.

A generous and brave but very eccentric Virginia planter named Hill Carter, who had once been an officer in the United States navy, had a hand to hand battle at fistcuffs one day with his plantation overseer and came off second best.

Consul King David.

This amusing anecdote of Lamartine is related by the Baroness Bonde in her volume of letters. Shortly after the revolution of February he wrote on the blank leaves of his pocketbook the names of his proteges and sent the list to be provided with places immediately.

Language of Switzerland.

It is a curious fact that the people most celebrated for love of country should in a manner be without a language—that is, a mother tongue.

Her Fault.

The teacher in charge of the primary department at a school in West Philadelphia was talking the other day about her work and her pupils.

"They are dear youngsters," she said, "but they sometimes make curious remarks. Several times I have had occasion to reprove a little boy who isn't bad, but who is very mischievous and annoying. He is always getting into trouble and making a disturbance."

"One day he had been more than usually uproarious, and I was very tired. Instead of scolding or punishing him I began in rather an exasperated tone to talk to him.

"Tom," I said, "I'm afraid I'm never going to meet you in heaven." "He looked up with the most shocked face. 'Why, teacher,' he said, 'isn't that just too bad? What have you done?'"—Philadelphia Times.

A Modest Request.

An impeccably dressed gentleman the other day when walking along Piccadilly felt a movement in his pocket and, clapping his hand thereto, seized the wrist of the thief. He drew forth the erring member, and looking at it with supreme disgust, he released it, saying, with a grimace of disgust, "For heaven's sake, my good man, go and wash your hands before you put them in a gentleman's pocket again!"

Made Him Feel Old.

"What's the matter?" "Oh, nothing much." "But you look as if you had something serious on your mind."

"Well, if you insist on knowing, a boy who was named after me has just become engaged to be married. How time flies!"—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Dollar Mark.

"Have you seen the Washington monument?"

"Yes," replied the New Yorker. "It's a pretty tall building, but what's the good of it without any offices for rent?"—Washington Star.

Economy.

Husband—Excuse me, dear, but don't you cook much more for dinner than we can use?—Wife—Of course! If I didn't how could I economize by utilizing leftover dishes?—Cleveland Leader.

Not New.

"Electricity isn't a modern discovery. It is as old as the flood."

"How do you make that out?" "Why, didn't Noah have to have ark lights?"

Better a bluish in the face than a blot in the heart.—Cervantes.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

WHEN you hit the target you feel annoyed if the neighbors don't notice it, quite as much so as you feel if they do notice when you miss.

Most of the trouble that we see ahead of us drives us distracted by always staying there.

She is indeed a wise woman who knows when and how to spank her own child.

Being in love with himself tends to blind a man's eyes to the qualities of others.

The woman who makes her own clothes is often more clever than her clothes look.

Boys always admire freckles if the right girl wears them.

The Story of "Hard Hit." "Mr. Orchardson, if I thought that by killing you I could paint a picture like yours I would stab you to the heart!"

To Take No Chances. Hamlar—Why in the dickens have you got that string tied around your tooth?

Absentee—To remind me that I must have the tooth removed. Hamlar—But, goodness gracious, why don't you do as ordinary people and have the string tied around your finger?

Absentee (stiffly)—Because, sir, I don't care to have my finger removed.—Chicago News.

Mistake of a Comma.

This instance of what a mistake of a comma can produce has been noticed: "Lord Palmerston then entered upon his head, a white hat upon his feet, large but well polished boots upon his brow, a dark cloud in his hand, his faithful walking stick in his eye, a dark menacing glare saying nothing."
