A Sad Serenade

By Eugene L. Thorpe

'Sighing, dying, lying, frying In the furnace of loves' fire;

Yet my love will ne'er expire.'

This the song the lover sang As he tuned his light guitar; These the words the still night rang, Echoing out their wild notes far.

Moping, groping, hoping, sloping From the fates that lure me on;

Love's last hope is dead and gone. Then he touched the tinkling chords; Low and tender was the strain, Hushed his voice, but music's words

Bore the maid this sweet refrain. Airy, fairy, tarry; marry One that loves and loves you most.

Flashing, slashing, smashing, crashing Came the old man s heavy tread; Dashing, mashing, lashing, hashing

With his cane the young man's head Now he courts the softest bed.
