GRANGE FAIR NEAR EVENT

All Eyes Focused on Four Big Days, Beginning September 29. New Attractions Being Scheduled Daily.

At a special meeting of the Grange Fair Association Directors held yesterday it was decided to go ahead with the preparations for the fair with a big rush now. It is somewhat short time for the work that will need to be done and the carpenters will go to work tomorrow to get things ready, considerable work will be done on preparing for the display room, arranging tables and providing for more extensive displays. Appearances are now that the floral display will be several times larger than ever before, and other departments are likely to be much larger. Superintendent H. A. Lewis of the Horticultural department is preparing to get to gather a better fruit display than heretofore. He will have some experienced hands at arranging fruit and packing apples on hand to advise the farmers when they bring their stuff in as how best to improve their exhibits and place them to get the best results. More than usual interest is being shown in entering the various classes of exhibits.

The East Side Commercial Club has decided to attend the fair in a body on Thursday which will be Portland day. They will charter cars and carry a brass band. This day will also be Auto day. Saturday will be a full day. The baby show, sports, and public speaking will be leading features. Ball games will probably be arranged and it is proposed that the politicians be given a show to tell the people just what they need and a lot of wisdom will be turned loose to enlighten the benighted voters of this part of the state.

The Retail Grocer's Association is also going to join in the hike to Gresham on Portland day, which date has not been definitely determined, but will undoubtedly be on Thursday the first day of the fair.

The Committee are looking up a couple of good ball teams to help out in the amusements features. A good purse will be put up for division between competing teams. It may be that a foot ball game will be arranged as such is in view at this time. Care will be used about advertising features that are not sure of coming off. Experience has shown it to be a very bad plan.

A good orchestra will be engaged so dancing will be possible every afternoon and evening. Arrangements will be made so that those who wish may stay at the evening ball so that an extra admission to the grounds will not be necessary.

Below will be found an additional list of prizes for special exhibits of flowers. The money for these specialties has been subscribed by Portland Seed Company, Routledge and Gill Brothers.

It is with some disappointment that we are obliged to announce that the driving association found on examination that there would be too much work to be done on the track to have it completed by the time the fair opened. It was then decided that the matter would be opened up this fall and full arrangements made so that a racing schedule would be ready another year.

One of the features of the Juvenile department will be the displays of vegetables that will be shown by boys under 16. At least three boys will enter into this race for first place in juvenile displays. They will show a dozen or more samples of their own raising and arranging.

Arrangements are complete for special rates from all the main points on the O. W. P. for the fair week. The rate from Portland will be 25 cents for the round trip; Oregon City, 40c; Boring, 25c; Estacada, 55c. The rates over the Troutdale line have not been received yet.

HALEY WALKS IN DELIRIUM

Young Man Reaches Home Exhausted After Days and Nights of Wandering Induced by Strain of Overwork.

Sandy, Sept. 12.—John Haley the 19 year old son of Mrs. McDonald who left home Thursday evening under a devious spell has been found. He had been breaking horses that day and returned home tired and very nervous. He r-tired early but got up at 10:30 and told his mother that the neighbors were all down on him for breaking horses. He then made a dash down stairs, ran out the gate and over to A. C. Bomback's place, dressed in his night clothes. He told Bomback that ghosts were after him and darted away before he could be captured.

Haley then went to the Sandy Bluff and descended the high bank on his hands and knees. After spending the night in his favorite fishing place, he returned to the road and there met a man of whom he asked for clothes.

The boy's tracks were followed and in places it was found he had made successive leaps of six feet. After spending a day around a slashing fire, he went to a James Failing's barn and was finally found and taken to the house.

Young Haley has recovered his mind and now remembers his wanderings. His body was badly bruised, his feet and face badly cut, and he is worn out from his exertions. He was suffering from a nervous breakdown resulting from overwork.

An attractive list of 50,000 actual farmers in the non-irrigated districts of the United States and Canada is being covered with official calls and formal invitations to participate in the congress.

The governors of all states are invited to attend, several have accepted and others are expected to accept.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.
