Big Show Coming Dec. 27

Undoubtedly the largest and best theatrical company to appear on the local stage is the Mamie Haslam Co. which will present the famous comedy "A Stranger in Town," at the Grange hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 27.

The Library Association has at no little expense arranged for the appearance of this excellent attraction. A feature of local interest with the company is the appearance of Mr. Guy E. Reynolds. This young man was well known for his efforts in amateur dramatic circles some years ago in this section of the country.

This company comes highly recommended and it is certain that a bumper audience will be present to enjoy the most laughable play ever offered, as well as support the worthy enterprise of the ladies of the library association. Don't forget the date, Tuesday, 27th.

Scene from "A Stranger in Town," at Grange hall, Tuesday, Dec. 27.

The Royal orchestra of Portland will furnish the music for the New Year's dance to be given at Sandy, Dec. 31. The prizes for the masqueraders will be on display at Bornstedt & Ruegg's store.
