SANDY

Sandy, January 18—L. J. Ranney of Three-Six was a Sandy visitor on his way home from Portland last week.

The baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Fosberg died last Thursday morning of indigestion. The little one had never been very strong, but loving care and skilled treatment had kept him alive until he was past four months old when all that could be done was of no avail. The little body was laid to rest in the Sandy Ridge cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of this community.

"How strange it seems with so much gone
Of life and love, to still live"

Sandy grange, No. 392, met in regular meeting Saturday and under the able leadership of Mr. Spooner of Orient, installed the following officers: W. M., A. C. Thomas; overseer, M. V. Thomas; lecturer, Mrs. Molair; secretary, James Bell; treasurer, Bert Jonsrud; steward, James De Shazer; assistant steward, Joe Albel; chaplain, Mrs. Fisher; Flora; Mrs. Jonsrud, Ceres; Mrs. Fields, Pomona; Maggie Edwards, L. A. Steward, Mrs. A. C. Thomas; gate keeper, Bee Nelson. Under the efficient directorship of this staff of officers, the Sandy grange will take a big step the coming year.

Mr. Shelley has leased his blacksmith shop for one year to the Sandy stage company, E. F. Donahue, proprietor. Mr. Shelley intends to devote his entire time to the justice's office, notary work, real estate, etc. He wishes to thank his customers for their help while he had charge of the shop.

It is reported that Casper Junker has sold his hotel and saloon to Mr. Wolf of Dover; consideration, $5,000. He has cut the dance hall and intends making it in two sections. The increasing demand in Sandy for business houses has caused him to make this change.

Harlow Douglas has proved his ability as a detective having caught Keller brothers, who left here several weeks ago, leaving behind several debts and taking Mrs. Douglass' silverware. When caught they had in their possession goods taken from Geo. Ketch's store. They are now in jail waiting for proceedings.

The Sandy drug store is being remodeled and when finished it will be an up-to-date establishment. G. M. Talmage, assisted by the proprietor, is doing the carpenter work.

SERVICE

There are three kinds of Service -- Good, Bad and Indifferent.

Do you know when you are getting first-class service? You do and I know you do. That is the reason I cater to your wants for I pride myself on my good service. Good service every hour of every day is one of my highest ambitions.

Good Goods

Good Goods and Good Service are necessary in the building up of a first-class mercantile business. Successful merchants slight neither. I specialize both and you appreciate all I offer.

Right Prices

Good goods, good service right prices and the privilege of buying what you want--my customers receive all these. Is it any wonder they are satisfied? I want to please you.
