OLD SOLDIERS MEET AT GRANGE HALL--INSTALLATION

Ceremonies are Conducted by Adjutant Gen. Williams--Relief Corps Also Has New Set of Officers

Last Saturday was a notable day in the history of the G. A. R. and W. R. C., being the date for installation of officers in both orders. The exercises were held in the grange hall in this city and the installation was conducted by Adjutant General C. A. Williams, assisted by Past Commanders Shaw and Pike.

The following officers were installed by the G. A. R.: Post Commander, Wm. Buttler; S. V., Geo. Keiram; J. V., W. T. Sherwood; Chaplain, J. Heester; Quartermaster, Henry Kane; Adjutant, G. B. Bates; Officer of the Day, E. G. Ricketts; Officer of the Guard, Thos. Ginder.

The installation of the W. R. C. was conducted by Mrs. Jessie B. Harding, of Oregon City, past department president.

The officers of the relief corps are: Mrs. Anna Bates, president, Maggie Crow, S. V. P. Mrs. Hattie Westell, J. V. P. Mrs. May Emery, Conductor, Lillian Chipman, treasurer, Clara Kane, secretary, Lizzie Jack, assistant conductor and press correspondent.

Sixty-five visitors from Portland, Oregon City, Sellwood, Lents and Sunnyside were present. A fine dinner was served to the assembly after which short speeches and music by the Oregon City drum corps closed the day's entertainment.

A committee on condolence was appointed to prepare a fitting memorial to Comrade N. L. Smith, who has been called to mourn the loss of his brother Joshua Smith of Salem, whose wife is the department president for Oregon.

Gone to Her Reward

Mrs. Johanna Weddeler, who lived with her aged husband and her only son on the old Weddeler homestead in Clackamas county, passed peacefully to her eternal home on the 12th of this month.

Johanne Weddeler was born in Germany September 24, 1830. At the age of twenty-nine she was married to Christian Weddeler, and twenty-one years later came with her husband and only child, Christian, to America, locating in Oregon on a farm near Danamascus. Here she lived with her family the last thirty years, doing her share to build up a new country and helping faithfully to make their farm the pleasant homestead it now is.

She was known by many of her neighbors as "Grandma Weddeler" and was loved by all. She was a good woman and a sincere christian, happy and faithful at all times in the every day duty of life. A born optimist, she was given to look on the bright side of every thing, and in consequence thereof brought sunshine and happiness to those around her.

Blessed with a strong constitution she frequently drove eight miles to Gresham to attend services at the Evangelical Zion's church, of which she was a member. Her last attendance was on Christmas day, when she took the car to Boring, walking three miles from her home to this station and back again. On the next day she and her husband, who is 77 years old, six years her senior, quietly celebrated Holy Communion at their home.

The funeral services were held at the residence and at the Union church at Danamascus, and were conducted in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives by Rev. E. H. Freund, pastor of the Evangelical Zion's church in Gresham. At the residence he spoke especially for the benefit of the aged husband, who was unable to follow the remains to their last resting place. At the church his remarks were taken from John 14: 1-3. "Let not your heart be troubled, in my father's house are many mansions." Interment took place in the Danamascus cemetery.

To Jordan's banks when'er we come,
And hear the swelling water's roar,
Father convey us safely home,
To friends not lost, but gone before.

KELLER BROTHERS TRIED FOR ROBBERY

Percy T. Shelley made a trip to Portland last Wednesday with a warrant for the arrest of the Keller boys who robbed the Ketch store some time ago, and on to Oregon City, where he assisted in the preliminary hearing before Judge Sampson of that city. The older brother, pleading guilty, was bound in the sum of five hundred dollars to appear before the grand jury. Failing to furnish bond he was committed to jail. His brother plead not guilty and had his trial set for Jan. 27th, in Sampson's court. The goods which they were accused of stealing, were found in their suitcases. The older one confessed to serving a term in the Colorado Reformatory but denied that his younger brother had anything to do with this robbery.

WELCHES

Snow fell here to a depth of twelve inches from the 8th to the 15th and has snowed most every day since. The total snow fall has been about twenty-four inches, but the present depth is eight inches. The barometer has registered from forty degrees to sixteen degrees. Indications are today that there will be colder weather.

The mail being carried on horseback, the roads being almost impassible. It is reported that Jerry Friel had to pry his horse, that was packing mail, out of the mire with a pole or long pry.

The lagrippe is prevalent in Welches district quite a number of people having slight attacks with a bad cough.

Great excitement was caused here yesterday when Wm. Welch, commonly called Billie, walked into the house and said he had killed a buck. Of course, that meant fresh meat, a nice, juicy venison steak. You old hunter will appreciate the feeling that prevailed here. All were frightened for fear a game warden would walk in before the buck could be disposed of. Many arguments were brought forth for the disposal of the meat, but at last Billie says, "Let's bring him in," so three of the men started to get it. Well, we were certainly astonished when we found it was an old buck rabbit or commonly called snow shoe rabbit. It was taken to Arthur Larkin's who disposed of it. The crowd thought Billie ought to join a certain club called—well, it begins with A.

Wm. Bartman, who has been staying with Mr. Morton, cut his knee with an ax which resulted in blood poisoning. He was removed to the Sandy hospital and is reported to be in a critical condition.

Mr. Woodard of Portland is a guest at the Welches hotel.

Miss Zip, Ruth and Bee Murphy, Don Bodely and Alex. Holden made a trip to Yocams and government camp on skis last week. They reported having a nice trip and a splendid time.

LUSTEDS

Hanse Holgren, the walker at camp No. 2 of the Mt. Hood railway made a remarkable walk during the recent snow. He left Gresham at 5 o'clock in the evening and arrived at camp No. 2 at five minutes after seven. He counted the steps which were 15,840 by the road. It is called nine miles from Gresham.

Mr. Erz is suffering from blood poison in his hand, caused from a rusty nail. It was necessary to have an operation.

A delegation of farmers went into the county court to see what could be done in getting the roads fixed up which are in bad condition on account of the heavy traffic that has been hauled over them.

W. Smith, who is staying at Ed. Andre's, is down with the measles.

School was closed three days last week on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Pauline Heacock.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Iekler, who has been sick for the past three weeks with pneumonia, is improving.

Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers, of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, emaciated from losing 40 pounds and growing weaker every day. Virulent liver trouble was pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine, Electric Bitters, cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they are supreme. 50c at all druggists.

CECIL METZGER MEETS ACCIDENT AT O.W.P. DEPOT

While Working on Electric Machine Received 630 Volts --- He Will Recuver

Cecil Metzger, assistant at the O. W. P. depot suffered a very dangerous accident last evening. While adjusting a part of the transformer he came in contact with the machinery, and received a shock that threw him to the floor. His wife after waiting some time in an adjoining room went to see why he did not return and discovered that he was helpless and unconscious. Dr. Bitner was hastily called and with the station assistants Mr. Metzger was carried into the office and placed on the floor. He was able to speak but unable to move. He gradually improved, was brought home and was somewhat better Friday morning. It is anticipated that he will recover in a few days.
