SERVICE

There are three kinds of Service -- Good, Bad and Indifferent.

Do you know when you are getting first-class service? You do and I know you do. That is the reason I cater to your wants for I pride myself on my good service. Good service every hour of every day is one of my highest ambitions.

Good Goods

Good Goods and Good Service are necessary in the building up of a first-class mercantile business. Successful merchants slight neither. I specialize both and you appreciate all I offer.

Right Prices

Good goods, good service right prices and the privilege of buying what you want—my customers receive all these. Is it any wonder they are satisfied? I want to please you.
