TROUTDALE

Troutdale, February 1.—Mrs Aaron Fox entertained a few of her friends at a 500 party last Friday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Mrs. J. Alfred Larsson, Mrs. C. B. Larsson, Mrs. Stoke, Mrs. A. B. Kendall, Mrs. E. Gruvash of Troutdale and Mrs. Shipley of Portland. R. E. Logan and wife of Halsey, Oregon, were guests of S. S. Logan and wife, en route to the Dalles. The vacant houses in town are fast filling up. Two new families have moved in within the past few days and another has rented and will occupy the Warden house. E. A. Potter of Portland has taken the Hampere place and the Palmer family are occupying the cottage of Mrs. L. Allard. Both hotels are practically full. A number of men are at work hauling the cottonwood from east of the Sandy river to the electric depot where it is being barked and then loaded and shipped to Oregon City. Quite a number of the local carpenters are working on the county farm and others are clearing land on the farm. The Sun Dial ranch has a number of employes caring for the sheep and other stock and running the farm, so there is yet quite a little employment here and the town is far from being dead. Mrs. Dora Andrews of Portland is a guest at the home of Otis Bowen. The revival services being conducted by Rev. C. C. Coop in the Methodist church, are being continued this week with an increased attendance. Rev. Coop is being assisted by ministers from Gresham and Pleasant Home. J. I. Funk was here from Kenton Tuesday calling on old friends. The Masonic hall now presents a pleasing appearance on the interior, having been redecorated and an entire new set of furniture installed. G. O. Warden has been renewing old acquaintances here. Mrs. Grant, wife of Dr. J. N. Grant, formerly of the Sun Dial ranch, has taken up her residence here temporarily. Mrs. Grant comes from Sheridan. Dr. Grant is away on business. W. Weller made his old friends a visit last Sunday. Elmer Campbell of Vancouver spent last Sunday with his brother, Ed. A meeting of the Troutdale library association has been called for next Friday afternoon for the purpose of electing new directors and planning ways to secure funds to maintain the library and reading room. Clubbing offers: Herald and Oregon Agriculturist for one year $1.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview, February 1.—R. Sprague, who was painfully injured by falling from a scaffold, a distance of fifteen feet to the ground, while working on W. Zimmerman's new residence Monday, is resting as easily as could be expected. One rib was broken from the spine and he was badly bruised. Mr. Sprague is associated with Mr. King as contractor. Oral Snover, who died at his home in Portland on January 27, after thirty-six hours' illness of spinal meningitis, was born and raised here. His parents were early residents of Fairview and conducted a grocery store up to the time of Mr. Snover's death in 1891. Oral was 21 years of age and the only child. His mother, Mrs. J. H. Snover, survives him. Funeral services were held from the family residence on Sunday. Interment was made in the Masonic cemetery on the Sandy road. Oral was a member of the Workman lodge. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harris are spending a few days with Mrs. Harris' parents, C. A. Steward and wife. Mrs. O. H. Jenkins is recovering from her recent illness. Bert Swank and family have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Anna Swank, this week. Mrs. H. M. Shaw and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Sellwood will spend the week with relatives and friends here. Mrs. J. W. Townsend visited relatives in Portland the first of the week. Mrs. J. Herbert and daughter, Miss Freda, spent Saturday with Mr. Herbert at Eagle Creek. D. W. McKay expects to build a residence on his lots in south Fairview soon. He will rent a house here in the meantime. J. T. Stilleon expects to move his family to Gresham next week. J. R. Hughes of Portland spent Sunday with friends here. A Y. P. S. C. E. business meeting and social will be held Friday night at Mrs. Herbert's home. The Ladies' society gave a tea in the church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. Clark and family of Portland will occupy the Stilleon residence. Miss Calla Heslin of Portland is spending a few days with her parents.

Stephens made a trip to Portland this week. E. M. Carpenter is on the sick list. George Carpenter was in Portland Tuesday on special business. William Calvin is home after an absence of several months. Mrs. McKinney's baby has been very sick, but is improving. Lewis Miller and wife were in Portland Saturday. ROCKWOOD Wm. Childers, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is slowly improving. Mrs. Josephine Watson will go to the home of her parents at Estacada as soon as she is able to take the trip to spend a month or two until she regains her strength. The sheriff was out from Portland the other day to sell out the Thompson R. R. camp. Fred Rhul is down with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen was called to the bedside of Mr. Jensen's sister last Saturday. She died Sunday. Besides her husband she leaves two children, a boy of ten years and a girl of two years. Mrs. Jensen will care for the little girl at present. Pupils of the public school at Rockwood are preparing for an entertainment and basket social to be given in the grange hall on Friday evening, March 3. The proceeds will be used to make a final payment on a set of encyclopedias purchased last year on the installment plan. The grange has given free use of its commodious hall. LUSTEDS Mrs. Wallace Davies made an all day visit with Mrs. Eder last Saturday. Fay Tomby is on the sick list this week. Mrs. L. Lusted of Gresham visited Grandpa and Grandma Lusted last week. Dick Raum is doing considerable blasting as he intends clearing his farm this winter. All the pipe is laid on the new pipe line through this part of the country. Mr. Foote of Gresham has been running a gasoline pump for over a week to take the water out of the ditch so that the riveting gang could work. They expect to be through this week, ready for testing. Life Saved at Death's Door "I never felt so near my grave" writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, as-hma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
