Eccentric Work Basket.

There are work bags made of turtles. (Did anything else occur?) And yet they are not unattractive, queer as they sound. The shell of the turtle is lined with some gay silk, and the tail is pulled over and inserted in the mouth, then used as a handle. They make nice sewing baskets, and will undoubtedly appeal to the lovers of the eccentric.

WATER MAY BE USEFUL.

No doubt many uses can be found for a rattler's existence and yet when you have your gun with you and you find one within range, you kill it on principle, not that you are afraid of it biting you, but that there is a chance of its biting the next thing, human or otherwise, that comes along.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial. It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

DYING WOMAN WILLS FORTUNE OF $60,000 TO HOSPITAL.

Sandusky, Ohio, Woman, Supposedly Poor, Bequeaths Huge Sum of Money to Institution That Cared for Her.

Sandusky, O.—Although supposed to be poor, Mrs. Rosa Baubach, dying, left an estate valued at $60,000 to a local hospital, her relatives being cut off. The appraisers of the estate while going through Mrs. Baubach's effects found hidden on a shelf in a closet a large iron box which when broken open was found to contain more than $10,000 in gold, silver and currency, besides securities the value of which has not been ascertained. It has also developed that Mrs. Baubach owned real estate worth $50,000.

The iron box was rusty and mouldy with age and evidently had remained in its hiding place many years. Some years ago Mrs. Baubach was taken seriously ill and was removed to a local hospital. She was given the best of care, and often remarked during her illness that some day the hospital would be well remembered by her. After leaving the hospital she was a weekly visitor at the institution up to within a short time before her death. Each time she would inquire the needs of the institution.

For many years Mrs. Baubach had lived in a little story and half house in the business section of the city, and was seldom seen out of doors. She lived alone. Her spare hours were spent in sewing and knitting, and her neighbors often remarked how she would save a little piece of string or a thread of yarn.

"Some day with this yarn I save I will be able to knit a pair of stockings or two, and these little pieces of thread will always come in handy," she would explain.

She died a week ago, and in her will she left $500 to her church, a few small bequests to relatives and friends, and the balance of her estate to the hospital.

CANINE CALLED THE DOCTOR

When This Dog's Leg Was Broken, the Animal Knew Where to Go.

Topeka, Kan.—Tobe is a splendid bull terrier owned by Hal Hotchkiss of 412 Greenwood avenue. Some time ago in carelessly alighting from a motor car one of Tobe's front legs was broken. He was taken immediately to Dr. Otto Klene, where the injured member was set and held tight by a plaster cast. Tobe was permitted to go his way and again fraternize with other dogs. One of the other dogs evidently looking upon Tobe as an old "crip," started a rough house. Tobe came away the victor, but in taking stock it was found that his leg was broken. Once more he was taken to Dr. Klene, who reset it and placed it in another cast. Two days later Tobe had a heated argument with another dog. For the third time the leg was broken.

MILLION FROM DOLLAR TIP

Waiter Buys Out the Man Who Was Liberal in a Chicago Hotel.

Chicago.—Twenty years ago, Col. Richard H. Southgate handed Max L. Teich a $1 bill as a tip for serving him an extraordinarily good dinner in a Chicago hotel. Carl C. Roessler, who was waiting on the adjoining table, congratulated his waiter chum on having such a liberal patron. Recently Teich and Roessler paid Colonel Southgate more than $1,000,000 for his interest in the Congress hotel and annex in speaking of their rise and their acquisition of riches. Teich said: "We owe our start to the liberality of the American people in giving tips. About fifteen years ago I bought a small hotel in Chicago and later other houses. Now we have bought control of the Congress and annex. The two properties are worth about $1,000,000. We own 7,000 of the 16,000 shares."

Honeymoon Shoes.

Kansas City, Mo.—Harry Peterson, a cab driver at the Union depot, has collected all the old shoes that have been tied to his cab while hauling wedding parties, and is ready to go on the market with his freak collection. He declares his is the only collection of genuine "honeymoon shoes" in existence. It is composed of 42 men's shoes, 45 women's shoes and six white "aby" shoes.

Phonograph at Funeral.

Mason City, Ia.—A phonograph at a funeral is a novelty, and yet in carrying out the wishes of Oliver Andrews, a phonograph was used, and according to his request "Work for the Night Is Coming," a quartet, and "Nearer My God to Thee," a solo, were played, and were so beautifully rendered that there was no criticism. Mr. Andrews ordered his coffin and planned the details of his funeral three weeks ago.

MERRY "LAUGH OF A CHILD"

Rendition by Elderly Boarder Caused Landlady to Announce Dinner Half Hour Ahead of Time.

"Did any of you ever hear the song," asked the elderly boarder, "entitled 'The Laugh of a Child'?" It appeared that nobody present ever had heard it. "It was very popular fifty years ago," he said, "but I don't suppose it's in any of our modern collections of music. It was a great favorite of mine."

"How does it go?" timidly inquired the new boarder. "I don't remember it all, but a part of it goes like this."

Clearing his throat, he sang: "O, the lah-hah-half of a chi-hi-hild So wi-hi-hild and so free-bee-hee, Is the meh-heh-herriest sow-how-houng In the wuh-huh-huh-hild to me!"

"Dinner's ready!" gasped the landlady, although it was a full quarter of an hour earlier than the regular time.

The Fresh and the Sweet.

"Have you some real nice chocolates?" he asked in a familiar manner. "We have," replied the sweet-faced girl behind the candy counter. "Are you sure they are sweet and fresh?" "Sure." "Have you any as sweet as yourself?" "Yes, but none as fresh as you."—Brooklyn Life.

One of its Consequences.

General Sherman had just uttered his memorable definition of war. "In fact," he added, after a pause, "war is even worse. Down there, as I have every reason to believe, they don't have any triumphant music."

For the brass bands had begun already to fire "Marching Through Georgia" at him.

His Reputation.

"Every one in town knows that Blank is wretched play."

"Is that so?"

"Yes; why, whenever he gets on a trolley the conductor stops and demands Blank's nickel before he will go on."

Explanatory.

"What's the worst you can say about him?"

"He hasn't an honest hair in his head."

"Well, that's bad enough."

"Oh, not so bad as you think. He never wears a wig."

Had Him Guessing.

"Why do you look so worried, Tom?"

"I went around today to ask your father for your hand in marriage."

"Did—did he refuse?"

"No. He wanted me to put it in writing."

A Forlorn Hope.

Critic (casually)—What do you think of this rural drama with its plot turning on an egg?

Theeplan (cautiously)—I hope it is not rotten.

Couldn't Tell a Lie.

"Are these socks all-wool, young man?" queried the old gentleman.

"I—er—don't think so, sir," replied the new clerk. "They are marked 'half hose' on the box."

When You Think

THOROUGHbred ANIMALS AND PLANTS.

Their Great Commercial Value.

"There is as much difference between thoroughbred and ordinary plants as between thoroughbred and ordinary animals." This statement is made by D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, the greatest flower and vegetable breeders in the country, and appears in their 1911 Annual Catalogue just issued. They argue for the great value and economy of thoroughbred seeds. "Any fundamental natural law which applies to animals applies equally to plants." A good cow (i. e. a thoroughbred) eats no more than a poor one, but may give twice as much butter-fat. "Good blood" makes as much difference with corn as with cows. But thoroughbred plants, like thoroughbred animals, are not produced in one or two generations, for no matter how superior an individual of common origin may be, its progeny are as a rule like the general run of its antecedents. Hence the need for seedsmen like D. M. Ferry & Co. They have experience, the best plant breeding equipment in the United States, and the business acumen to sell only such seeds as have been bred from the choicest stocks for many generations.

D. M. Ferry & Co.'s Seed Annual for 1911 may be had free of charge by writing to them at Detroit, Michigan. It contains much of interest for those who think.

A few Sundays since, in a small school at Independence, Va., the subject was "The Wise and Foolish Virgin." One of the teachers asked the class the following question: "Which of the invited guests did not have their lamps trimmed and burning?" The one to respond was a pretty little girl. "Can you answer the question, Molly?" asked the teacher. "Oh, yes, sir," said the little girl, "it was the foolish Virgin."—National Monthly.

If kid gloves become spotted with mildew they should be placed in a bottle with a lump of ammonia about the size of a walnut; cork the bottle tightly and leave them for a short time, when the mildew spots will quite disappear. If left too long, however, the ammonia will rot the stitches; so they must be watched. An air-tight box will do equally well as a bottle.
